

CLOSED

The Store of Gale & Co. will be closed Today, Tuesday and Wednesday

WATCH

for a most thrilling announcement in Wednesday's Morning and Evening Papers. It is of the Greatest Importance to You.

Postpone All Your Buying and

WAIT!!

FIFTY Extra Experienced Salespeople Wanted

Apply to Manager Between 10 and 11 a. m.

Gale & Company

Formerly the Chicago Store

SALEM'S biggest popular priced Department Store—Not connected with any other in this city. CORNER COURT AND COMMERCIAL, STS., SALEM, ORE

THIS IS THE TIME WHEN YOU NEED AN

OVERCOAT

We're proud of our Overcoats because we know their quality. Real merit in style, comfort and long wear is built right into the overcoats we sell. They are the product of the best makers in the country and carry a distinctive air about them that is as pleasing as their low prices.

Brick Bros.
STATE AND LIBERTY STS.
The House That Guarantees Every Purchase

Miss Clara Perry, the house guest of Mrs. V. H. Cornelius, returned home Friday morning.

Mervin Pearson is home from the hospital and gaining strength each day.

Hollis and Frederick Ransome were among those who took in the football game at Corvallis on Saturday of last week.

Mrs. J. F. Lyle is home from Oak Point.

Miss Hazel Fleetwood spent Thanksgiving with her parents.

Tudor Farrens, a deputy postmaster in the Portland postoffice, was up to eat Thanksgiving dinner with his mother, Mrs. Barzee.

Bert McKay has sold his interest in the Turner meat market to Jack Humphrey.

Johanie Watson is ill. Don't worry boys, it is not the result of too much football.

Mrs. Edith Ransom and daughter, Carolyn, are at Astoria, the guests of Mrs. Shaw.

Mrs. Euberg, of Condon, Oregon, was at Barrs a few days this week the guest of Wm. Lee McCaleb.

Elsie Jenns is home from the logging camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobbs, of West Stayton, were at the W. A. Martin home this week.

Mrs. P. S. Wold, of Mill City, formerly of Turner, was at the home of Mrs. Maude Bones on Tuesday.

George Ranson was the invited guest at Agent Miller's on Thursday.

Mr. Bursick and L. C. Cavanaugh were in our town Friday.

Every one will have to contribute to the play shed or lose their popularity with the student body.

Miss Gladys Salisbury was here from Corvallis this week.

Richard Hoover and Vester Bones, of Shaw, spent Tuesday evening with J. M. and C. F. Bones.

K. Hanningman was in town this week.

Floyd Fleetwood was a Turner visitor Friday evening.

Someone must have the idea that Turner is going to boom, as another general merchandise store is reported to open soon.

The Wm. A. Martin Lumber company has been very busy for the past two weeks.

The story of "My Husband and I" is the topic of the day and is always discussed at the Five o'Clock teas. The only point that each one can agree on is "why are the chapters no longer!"

L. W. Robertson went to Portland on business Saturday morning.

W. H. Harris spent part of last week with his son, Joe, at Shields.

Professor Merritt gave a lecture at the school house Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Earl entertained their daughter, Miss Earl, of Salem, and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Sellwood, of Salem, (Mr. Earl's sister and husband) on Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Lester Harper motored to Independence on Friday to be the guest of Mrs. Willis Small for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Sellwood spent Thanksgiving night at the home of Mr. H. L.

Earl. Dr. and Mrs. Massey had a family reunion Thanksgiving day.

Mr. Steve VanCleave, of Woodburn, is quite sick at the home of his sister, Mrs. L. E. Morgan. Dr. Massey is attending him.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bear and family spent Friday at Rosedale at the home of Mrs. Bears' sister, Mrs. R. M. Cammock.

U. E. Denyer was confined to his home several days on account of a gripple.

Mrs. Esther Neal is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. E. Edwards, of Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Small, of Independence, spent Thanksgiving at the home of L. W. Small.

Mr. Chris Hansen, who has been laid up with his gripple for several days, is up and around again.

Miss Hazel Bear, who is attending school at Newberg, is spending a few days at home.

Eugene McVicker arrived here from Kansas on Tuesday to be at the bedside of his brother, who has been very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Osborn entertained a few friends on Thursday evening. Games were played and light refreshments served.

Mrs. Cal Small, who has been very sick, is reported better.

The State Board of Health is making a survey of the state of Oregon for tuberculosis. The work is being financed by the Oregon association for the prevention of tuberculosis, that sells the red cross seals. Part of the fund is used for actual relief in families where it is needed and part in education along public health lines.

Miss Cronan, a member of the National Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, is conducting the survey in Oregon, is now doing Marion county and Turner vicinity.

Gates Items

(Capital Journal Special Service) Gates, Ore., Dec. 3.—Carl Smith arrived home from Washington Friday.

Mr. Paetric and family moved to camp 10 Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hall served Thanksgiving dinner at their home, and had a lovely time. There were twenty-two guests.

It still rains and the snow can be seen on the mountains near Gates.

Ethel Wigons left Saturday for Portland where she will spend the winter; she has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Collins for some time.

Mrs. Fair has been very ill, but is able to be up and around a little now. Her husband Hammie is very sick with tonsillitis.

The school children have had a four day vacation and all seem to be enjoying themselves.

Langton Stafford and Miss Mevis were to be married today and leave for Albany on their honeymoon trip.

Mrs. Nona Stafford left for Salem.

Send it—Journal want ads will sell it.

DALLAS ITEMS
(Capital Journal Special Service)
Dallas, Dec. 2.—Thos. Catherwood returned the first of the week from a ten days visit to his old home in British Columbia. Mr. Catherwood says that the country is in a prosperous condition and that there is very little talk about war notwithstanding the fact that thousands of the young men of the country are fighting in Europe.

Dallas Defeats Indians
The Chemawa Indian school football team was defeated Thanksgiving day by the Dallas high school team by a score of 12 to 7. The game was exciting from start to finish and it was only on account of a number of fumbles made by the Indians that Dallas won the game as the visitors were heavier men and good players too.

Dallas Hotel Changes Hands
The Dallas Hotel at the corner of Church and Mill streets has been purchased by C. T. Elmore an experienced hotel man of Portland. Mr. Elmore has had the place renovated and put in first class condition and intends to run a strictly up to date hotel.

Ballston Man Breaks Back
W. B. Bowman a resident of the Ballston neighborhood, was brought to Dallas this week by Dr. Wm. Tyler-Smith of Sheridan and placed in the Dallas hospital suffering with a broken back received by falling down a well he was digging in Ballston. The injured man is in a very critical condition as the lower limbs are paralyzed and slight hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Dallas Has New Restaurant
Arthur Griswold of Forest Grove has opened a restaurant in the room west of the Kopy Korner confectionery and prepared to serve short order meals of all descriptions. Dallas is now fairly well equipped for eating places, having two hotels, two restaurants and a number of boarding houses.

Mayor on Visit to Portland
Mayor and Mrs. E. C. Kirkpatrick are in Portland for a short business and pleasure trip.

Turner Tidings
(Capital Journal Special Service)
Turner, Ore., Dec. 3.—Richard Gray spent the Thanksgiving day with home folks.

Grant Farris returned from Canada on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Thomas spent a few days in Portland this week.

Martin Nicely is home from Portland.

Dr. J. W. Ransom was a Turner visitor for the first of the week.

K C Biscuit

For light, wholesome cakes, biscuits and pastry, use

K C BAKING POWDER
Always safe and reliable. If it isn't all we claim your grocer will refund your money.
JAQUES MFG. CO., CHICAGO

