CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

Dayton News

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Dayton, Ore., Dec. 25.—Mr. W. J. Mayo made a business visit to Sacramento, Cal., last week. He returned home Sunday morning.
V. T. Phillips was in Portland a few days preceding the holidays.
A. T. Brewer now has the milk selling business of the community, having purchased the Crabtree business.
Mrs. J. R. Gardner is slowly recovering from a gripe relapse.
Mrs. Martin has been ill during the past few days, but is now much improved.
Snow blanketed the town Friday.
Merchants report the holiday business to have been very satisfactory. Saturday the Christmas present purchasing was being out in great throngs.
W. F. Klecker, the merchant, with his family, spent Christmas day with Sublimity friends.
D. C. Davis has returned from a Salem visit.
Rev. Mr. York, of Florence, Ore., is visiting friends across the river. He expects to leave for Fall River, near Eugene, Saturday.
The crowd at the school exercises on closing day was very appreciative of the program and very large.
Rev. Marion Horne, of Eugene, has been engaged by the Christian church people to preach for them twice a month.
Roy Ferguson, of Salem, is visiting friends here.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Lilly are in Corvallis.

The Methodist church was crowded Sunday night when a Christmas drama was presented by home talent, winning warm commendation for the high grade manner of the presentation of the piece.
The Christian church Sunday school program in the morning also drew a good audience which it well deserved.
Joseph Humman has recovered from the gripe and is back on the stage route caring for the travelers.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fryer are located at Junction City, where Mr. Fryer is proprietor of a drug store.
Gene Titus helped to handle the Christmas rush in the J. R. Gardner store.
Mrs. A. S. Starr leaves Saturday for a visit to Washington county.

THE MARKETS

The following prices for fruits and vegetables are those asked by the wholesaler of the retailer, and not what is paid to the producer. All other prices are those paid the producer. Corrections are made daily.

Nothing stirring in the markets today. It seems to take several days for the market to recover from the Christmas dullness. There is a continuing shortage of cars and this has prevented a very active market for produce that is shipped in car lots.

"THAT LITTLE GAME" --- According to Hoyle

"Now, listen, fellas, we've been havin' so many arguments here that I decided to get a rule book. Here it is. We'll just chip out the pot to pay for it."

"Chip out the pot? I didn't want it. I know how to play. I'm not gonna help furnish your home."

"Gonna play accordin' to rules, goodnight! We better have a referee or an umpire."

"Do we have to buy uniforms?"

"Let's start a league and play world's series."

"Get me a book too—how to mix 'em."
