STATE HOUSE NEWS

County superintendents of a large number of Oregon counties are expected to be in Salem next Saturday when the grading of the papers in the recent teacher's examinations held in the various counties will be done. The number of persons who took the examinations this time is considerably less than last year in other years. For instance, Polk county, which has had over a hundred, this time had only 9; Marion had only 47, and Lake county, which usually has about a hundred, had about 40. Frank K. Welles and his assistants in the state superintendent's office are preparing for the coming of the county superintendents.

A resolution dissolving the Watson Brothers Iron Works of Albany, Linn county, was received by the corporation commissioner this morning. The ear shortage has been decreasing rapidly the past few weeks and yesterday it stood at 1,099 in contrast to 2,952 on December 1. On the other lines in Oregon the shortage totals $82.

The people of Phoenix, Oregon, are asking the help of the public service commission concerning their announcement of the Southern Pacific railroad that on January 5 it will close its freight and passenger office at that place. On account of there not being enough business to warrant its maintenance. The communication states that Phoenix, while not large itself, is the center of a farming and orchard community, and that development is promised by the orchardists. The past two years the crops have been poor and the passenger traffic light because of jitney buses on the Pacific highway. The people feel that the closing of the station is unjust. Phoenix is between Talout and Medford.

During the past two years the state treasurer has received from the inheritance department of his office about $150,000, or an average of $75,000 a year. The net which placed this department with the treasurer provides that the expenses can be paid out of the receipts.

But Treasurer Kay says he has been able to run the department on the expenses of the treasurer's office, thereby saving good money for the state. In this time he has also saved the state about $10,000 a year on account of reappraisements of estates alone. If he is not satisfied that the state is receiving enough money on account of the inheritance, he seeks a reappraisal or an agreement with the parties concerned relative to the proper sum due the state. In many cases he gets more for the state than by the first reappraisal.

Seattle Defeated Vancouver Hockey

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 27.—With Frank Boynton leading his men like a Napoleon, the Seattle ice hockey team defeated Vancouver here last night, 7 goals to two, and tied the Millionaires for the leadership of the Pacific Coast Hockey association. Captain Foysson sagged the net for five of the seven tallies chalked up in his honor last night at the New House hotel, resulted in extraordinary precautions being taken in the preparation and serving of the dinner. For a time the hotel kitchen resembled a chemist's laboratory, as the state chemist, Herman Harris, was called in and made a minute examination of the ingredients of the meal. As soon as each dish was prepared the manager of the hotel ate a liberal sample and another sample was put through various scientific tests. During the transit of the food from the kitchen to the dining room it was carefully guarded by detectives. During the dinner the reward for the arrest of the person or persons who placed the infernal machine at the corner of the governor's house on Sunday night was raised to $5,000 by those present.

Just when the dinner was served another warning was received that an attempt would be made to throw a bomb through a window of the dining room and a cordon of police was placed about the building. The governor today said he still stood for what he said the day Joe Hillstrom, the I. W. W. leader, was executed—that he believed the I. W. W. to be the most lawless element in Utah and that they should be driven across the borders. The governor is showing signs of worry, not on his own account, but on account of the attempted destruction of his wife and children.

GOVERNOR WARNED AGAINST POISONING

Anonymous Letter Says Dinner Last Night Would Be "Doctored"

Salt Lake City, Utah, Dec. 27.—An anonymous letter received by Governor Speer yesterday, warning him that an attempt would be made to poison the food served at the banquet to be given in his honor last night at the New House hotel, resulted in extraordinary precautions being taken in the preparation and serving of the dinner.

St. Louis, Dec. 27.—Ernest Beuchamp laid out Dan Ketchel in the fifth round of their mill here last night.

Chicago.—Johnny Condon, former bandmanweight champion, left here today after two weeks hard training to fight young Wagner New Year's afternoon at New York. Condon said he is in good condition as formerly and will stage a real come back.

Chicago.—Tom Andrews, Milwaukee fight promoter, is here today waiting for Les Darcy's answer to an offer of $25,000 for a 10-round scrap to be pulled off at Milwaukee. Andrews isn't particularly who faces the Australian. Darcy's opponent probably would be picked from Jack Dillon, Billy Miske, Battling Levinsky and Mike Gibbons.

New York.—John Kaulbeck has been married to two women for eleven years and didn't know it. His divorce from his first wife, he learned in court, is invalid on a technicality. The worst of it is that she's married again, too.

New York.—Leonard Soglen, from Alaska, after thinking it over for several months, today declared that more furs are worn on Fifth avenue in July than in his frozen home land in the winter.

LEAGUES WILL PLAY USUAL 154 GAMES

Schedule Committee to Meet Next Month to Plan Season's Games

By H. C. Hamilton, (United Press Staff Correspondent.) New York, Dec. 27.—When the National and American league schedule committee gets together next month to frame the annual playing program, the two major circuits will not cut their playing season from the conventional 154 games to 140 as has been suggested. Plans already have been laid for these schedules and they will follow the lines of former years. The schedule committee will meet immediately after the session of the national commission, which is down on the cards for next Tuesday. This meeting will be held in Cincinnati, but the location of the affair of drafting a schedule is something of a mystery. As a matter of fact, it always is a mystery. The business of schedule making requires considerable effort. Hence it often comes to pass that French Lick, Ind., or some other place remote from the centers of baseball is the location. Barney Dreyfuss and John Heydler, assisted by President John K. Tener, are the schedule demons of the older circuit, while B. R. Johnson usually does most of the work for the American league, assisted by his secretary. The coming meeting of the national commission promises more than the usual run of activity. The plea of the minor leagues for a separate commission to which they can appeal their cases from the national board and the request of the class AA leagues for elimination of the draft system will come up for serious discussion.

Long Wrestling Bout. San Francisco, Dec. 27.—The referee for the coming wrestling bout between Ad Santel and "Strangler" Lewis will be named at a meeting to be held this afternoon by the two principals and their managers. Dan McLeod, of Los Angeles, and Eugene Van Court of Oakland have been mentioned.

The wrestlers have agreed to have a two and a half hour bout, with a decision by the referee in case neither man gets a fall.

Will Play On Coast. San Francisco, Dec. 27.—Arrangements were completed today whereby the Chicago Club will play the San Francisco and Oakland Coast league clubs 10 games in this city and Oakland between March 15 and March 25 next. Details of the arrangements have not been completed.

Clabby May Quit. San Francisco, Dec. 27.—Jimmy Clabby may abandon boxing to become the manager of Miss Fannie Durack, the Australian woman swimmer, on a tour of the United States, according to word reaching here today from Sydney, N. S. W.

Played 120 Games. Philadelphia, Dec. 27.—Frank J. Marshall, American chess champion, today holds a new record. Marshall played 120 opponents simultaneously, breaking his own record of 105 contests played at one time.

After Les Darcy. New York, Dec. 27.—Matt Hinkel, Cleveland fight promoter, is due to reach New York today. He is bringing with him, so reports say, several bundles of currency with which he hopes to tempt Les Darcy into some matches. Rumors also say he will endeavor to really himself with Tex Rickard and Sam McCracken in negotiations for a lease on Madison Square Garden.

Sailor Grande. Philadelphia heavyweight, stopped Ned Dowey in the fifth round.

COUNCIL OF 1917 HAS PRELIMINARY CAUCUS

Selects Officers for Coming Year and Prepares for Business

At the caucus of the members of the 1917 council held last night in the city recorder's office for the purpose of determining the city officers dependent on the votes of the council, the following were chosen to be recommended for election:

Police matron, Mrs. Sara J. Dursey, 941 North Cottage street.

Police officers, S. O. Burkhardt, J. A. Folland, Eugene Hawley, H. H. Lucas, J. E. Wright and C. E. Faulkner as alternate in case any of the others should fail to qualify.

Street commissioner, Walter S. Lowe, incumbent.

Fire chief, Harry Hutton, incumbent.

City health officer, Dr. O. B. Miles, incumbent.

City engineer, Walter Sgeilton, incumbent.

City attorney, Bert W. Macy, incumbent.

That the appointment of Mrs. Dursey as police matron will meet with universal approval is believed by those who know her and the work she has done as matron at the Oregon Electric depot. Mrs. Dursey has experience in this line of work and her kindly temperament, and genial disposition has made her popular with those with whom she had to deal. She has formerly matroned at the Oregon Electric at several different times, and gave evidence that she was peculiarly fitted for the position.

Chief Names Policemen. It was expected that a fight would develop in the caucus over the appointment of the police matron, but it failed to materialize after the recommendation of Mrs. Dursey by Constable Cooper. The names of Mrs. Myra Shank, incumbent, and Mrs. Lelia Lynch, former matron, were proposed but when it was evident there was no disposition to consider them they were dropped. There was talk of abolishing the office unless a suitable person could be found to fill it. However, the question of abolishing did not receive much consideration.

E. E. Cooper, who takes office at the first of the year as chief of police, recommended the men nominated for police officers and the council adopted the recommendations without dissent. It was the opinion of the council that the police chief should be given every opportunity to get officers from his force and the best way to help this along was to give him officers of his own selection.

Of the new police officers, J. A. Folland, who presides in the office as night sergeant, is the only hold-over. Sam Burkhardt has been on the force before and has been recently employed at the state penitentiary as guard. Eugene Hawley was also formerly employed at the penitentiary; J. E. Wright is a former resident of Turner; H. H. Lucas is at present a clerk in Weller Brothers' grocery store; and C. V. Faulkner, alternate, is a machinist in a local garage.

With Mayor-elect Walter Keyes presiding, those present were Aldermen W. E. Buchner, N. D. Elliott, R. N. Hoover, F. V. Johnson, G. H. Jones, Roy Melson, G. C. Millet, James McClelland, L. T. Rigdon, C. M. Roberts, Ray Simeral, Glen Urub, Frank Ward and Otto Wilson.

Default and judgment was rendered in the action to collect $600 on a promissory note given by Mrs. Rose O'Connor to the Washington County Abstract company which, later came into the hands of the plaintiff, Mrs. E. S. Parker, an answer has been filed by the note except the interest has been paid.

In the action brought by G. W. Thurman to recover a cow from Philip Heckler, an answer has been filed by the defense alleging that the laws of the county forbid cattle running at large and also alleging that Thurman allowed the cow in question and 13 others to run at large. He states they habitually trespassed on his property and did his property damage to the extent of $100 in trampling over ground sowed to crops, pulling up and eating potatoes, and destroying hay. On November 27, 1915, he confined the cow before he could sell it under the estray law the action was brought. He asks $25 for the keep of the cow or $155 in all.

Denial of the allegations in the complaint brought against E. Ulvested by B. Skagen are denied in an answer filed in the circuit court by the defense. The answer admits that on September 4, 1916, he appeared before the justice of the peace for Silverton and verified a criminal complaint against the plaintiff on a charge of larceny of a horse of the value of $40.

He alleged that Axel Peterson on August 1, 1916, when he left Silverton gave his horse to him for care and safe keeping. On September 3, he alleges Skagen came and wrongfully and unlawfully took the horse away on pretense that he had bought it. Returning to his place Ulvested says he swore out a warrant for Skagen in good faith. He asks the complaint against him be dismissed.

Judge Bushey this morning committed to the insane hospital Gustave Devoyser, of St. Louis, a carpenter. Dr. W. Carl Smith was the examining physician.

OREGON TEAM HAS REACHED PASADINA

Members in Fine Shape Expected at Least 23,000 Will See Game

Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 27.—With the University of Oregon team here, and the Pennsylvania aggregation due this afternoon, Pasadena football fans are in a high state of excitement today, and are haunting the Oregon headquarters at the Maryland hotel in the hope of getting a little better line on the boys who will battle for the west in the big game New Year's day.

Coach Bezdick's squad arrived at 10 o'clock from the north, their special car being switched from the Lark to an electric train. All of the boys are in tip-top shape, according to Bezdick, and they began limbering up this afternoon. Tomorrow a scrimmage practice will be held.

The Oregonians use Tournament Park for their practice. The Pennsylvania boys will be quartered at the Hotel Raymond, will work out on the golf course. At least 23,000 people will witness the game, say Tournament officials. Reses officials. The demand for tickets continues heavy.

Officials for the big game will be chosen tonight by Coaches Polwell and Bezdick. It is persistently reported that W. S. Keimholz and Dr. Andrew Smith, southern Californians, who starred in college football, will be the men chosen.

Youngsters to Form Junior City Government

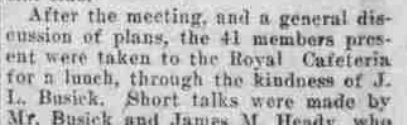

That the young growing up generation of boys may have an insight into the city government and acquaint themselves with the civic duties of a citizen, a junior city government will be organized as part of the work of the Junior Commercial club.

This organization will include the election of a junior mayor, city council, chief of police and other officers and the boys will meet and act just like real city officials.

For the present the boys will meet in the auditorium of the Commercial club. One of the qualifications of membership is that the boys are willing to work and should any one need the help of a boy, it may be secured through the Commercial club.

After the meeting, and a general discussion of plans, the 41 members present were taken to the Royal Cafeteria for a lunch. Short talks were made by Mr. Busick and James M. Heady, who organized the club.

The following new members enrolled last evening: Harold Secor, Earl Taylor, Ralph Hamilton, Arthur Hamilton, Madras Heady, Russell Edmeades, Charles Craig and James Boynton.
