DETECTIVES BUSY

involving the man under surveillance, were discovered, police again sought him.

His connection in the new development is being carefully guarded by the police. Coincident with this, it was learned that Miss Colbert had arranged for a reconciliation New Year's day with the man she really loved. He is a former University of Pennsylvania athlete. The model had merely led the others to believe she gave them her affections. The unsuccessful suitor, who is employed in the engineering department of a large corporation, will be questioned this afternoon.

A new element was brought into the case by the discovery of several strands of a man's hair, found clutched in the dead girl's hand. She had ripped them out in her fight for life. Several letters attacking Miss Colbert for her "unfaithfulness" were found. These are being carefully guarded by the police, who will not intimate whether they have any bearing upon the man under guard in a hotel or a second western brewer.

A faint odor of perfume clinging to a blood stained silk shirt found in the apartment of Mario Colbert, or Grace Roberts, may aid the police in finding a trail which will lead to the arrest of Al Williams, it was drawn.

To Revive Horse Racing

San Francisco, Jan. 3.—Racing will be revived in California under a state commission of three members and the pari-mutuel system of betting will be legalized, if a bill prepared today by leading horsemen passes the coming legislature. The bill provides for the use by the state school fund of a certain percentage of the commissions derived from the sport.

Stecher May Meet Lewis

San Francisco, Jan. 3.—Joe Stecher, Nebraska wrestler, will probably meet Al Santel in this city on February 22, in a bout which may determine the world's heavyweight championship. This was the belief of local mat fans today following the Santel-Lewis match last night which lasted two and a half hours without a fall. Referee Al Williams made it a draw.

Horse Racing in Illinois
Chicago, Jan. 3.—Revival of horse racing in Illinois along legitimate lines is the purpose of a bill that will be introduced in the state legislature next week by the businessmen association of Illinois. The bill prohibits bookmaking, touts and professional gamblers and establishes a state racing commission.

The beautiful corset and stocking model's murderer.

While detectives were indicating this afternoon that something had come up to shift suspicion away from a man known as "Champagne Charlie," leaving the mystery surrounding the killing of the girl still unsolved new importance was attached to the shirt found in the blood spattered apartment.

Villa and his pursuers seem to elude each other like the arms of one of those taffy pulling machines.

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID DISEASE

Humors in the blood cause internal arrangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions. They affect all the organs and functions, membranes and tissues, and are directly responsible for the readiness with which some people contract disease.

For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. It is distinguished for its thoroughness in purifying the blood, which it enriches and invigorates. No other medicine acts like it, for no other medicine is like it.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Insist on having Hood's.

Millwrights Organize Protective Association

(Capital Journal Special Service)

Silverton, Ore., Jan. 3.—The millwrights working on the big mill that is being built at Silverton by the Silver Falls Lumber company, held a meeting on Sunday December 31 for the purpose of organizing an association, to be known as "The Millwrights Protective Association."

Their aim to be the protection and uplift of their trade this is practically a millwrights' union, but as the word "union" brings so forcibly the thought of strikes and union wars that "association" was deemed the better word, as the slogan "there shall be no strikes," will be strictly adhered to by each of these earnest working men.

The roster started with 25 names which is expected to reach the 200 mark within the next sixty days.

If their present plans are a success there will be a head office established in Portland where work can be secured and where the general business of this association will be carried out. A committee of three were appointed to further the plans already made and also to fix a date for the next meeting, the committee are: E. V. Buttis, Gus Heitschmidt and D. B. Gillette.

FOOTBALL LEAGUES MAY BE ORGANIZED

Baseball Magnates Considering Plan to Use Grounds for Games

Chicago, Jan. 3.—The organization of professional football leagues similar to the big baseball circuits and the utilization of big league parks as gridironas after the baseball season is over, is a plan that is being considered by baseball magnates. An agent of a professional team is in Chicago today and will confer with President Weegham of the Sox, President Navin of the Detroit Americans, Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh Nationals and President Hempstead of the New York Giants are said to be ready to aid in the venture.

Promoters point out that professional football made tremendous strides last fall and has come to stay. By re-sounding the rules which prohibit baseball players participating in other sports the services of league players, as well as college gridiron stars could be secured. Those mentioned as prospective members of the new league are Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburgh, New York, Columbus, Cleveland and Indianapolis.

Money for Les Darcy
New York, Jan. 3.—Thirty thousand dollars was added today to the fast growing pile of offers to Les Darcy for his first fight in this country. John Reisler of the Harlem Sporting club offered for a ten round bout with the winner of the Weinert-Miske bout, scheduled for January 12. Reisler said he would deposit with Tex Rickard or any man Darcy should designate a forfeit of $5000. If the additional $25,000 is not forthcoming before a date to be set for the match, he stipulated, Darcy would be welcome to the sixth of the total to spend on ice cream sodas and things.

Packey McFarland Again
Chicago, Jan. 3.—After refereeing the Spike Kelly-Goats Dog bout in New York and siring up Les Darcy at the ringside, Packey McFarland decided to get back into the ring. The stock yards fighter has reached an agreement with Doc Kroce to act as his manager.

Portland Handled
Seattle a Trimming
Seattle, Wash., Jan. 3.—"Moose" Johnson and six other members of the Portland ice hockey crew handled the Seattle Metropolitans 7 to 4 lacring at the arena here last night. The game was one of the fastest and toughest ever staged on the local ice.

The mace started like the dinky pop of a fire cracker but before the final the molee started like the rattle of the Dardanelles.

The game threatened to end in a free for all fight in the final period when Captain Foyston, of the Mets, made a swing at the puck which was just ahead of Murray, the Portland goal keeper's nose. Murray had fallen in an effort to prevent a goal.

There was a clashing of clubs and exchanges of discourtesies before Referee Micky Ion sent the two principals to the bench.

The stone wall defense of the visitors brought a problem hard for the Seattle team to solve. Time after time the locals brought the puck down to the last line of defense only to have it carried back to their own goal posts. Harry Holmes, Seattle's net guardian, was inclined to get far away from home and this fact at least cost several goals.

To Select Grounds Later
San Francisco, Jan. 3.—The Portland Beavers will not decide upon a spring training camp site in California until after Henry Berry, owner of the San Francisco Sels, has made up his mind. Judge McCreary, Portland owner, today wired Berry a friendly greeting and announced that he would give Berry his pick of the sites before making a selection of his own.

It was believed today that Berry would select Sacramento, Stockton or San Jose.

County Judge Bushey
Yesterday appointed county judge of Hood River county by Governor Withycombe. He succeeds E. E. Stanton, who resigned.

The vacancy caused in the department of weights and measures by Fred Buchtel, head of the department, becoming a public service commissioner was filled yesterday by Spence Wortham, who has been district sealer for the past three months.

Talmadge, a printer who lives at 1856 Court street, and Beatrice N. Roberts, of South Winter street.

Dr. Prince Byrd was called on for a talk on "Ether or Either," and he said in brief that the work of the Cheyenne was to be commanded and he hoped it would be kept up. He said the slogan was "One for all and all for one."

Some of the Suggestions

Among the favorite selections of Yappy's Crossing Orchestra were "Should Have Been Censored" and "Why the Bass Drum Caused Her Downfall."

After the program in general was over, initiatory rites were begun. Following through the strict censorship comes the following glimpses:

Hal D. Patton acted as school master and as the pupils of the school entered they were found to be dressed in all manner of hideous styles, from a convict to a circus clown and ballet dancer. They carried signs, Joe McAlister's sign read: "This banner outfit with Mexican border by Max Jailes." Ben Bricks' read: "Suits and coats—if they wear out stick them come from Bick." Devoe's banner read: "5-10-15 cents—spend your money here and help put another store on the Woolworth building." Parker's banner told the following: "My pictures are sometimes recognized." Michaels, of the S. P., read: "The road of a thousand blunders," and that of Joe Albert, "I take a great deal of it."
