King Bing Lerchen has again spoken to his vasals and it is about like this: "Have your uniforms pressed out, get a clean shave and report in uniform at the Commercial club at 7:15 Sunday evening as we are going to march in a body to the First Congregational church for our annual church services. The Rev. James Elvin will deliver a short sermon and there will be moving pictures."

The Crown Drug Co. has a vaccine for preventing colds and grip. It is proving highly effective in a large percentage of cases. Several physicians of the city are using it and advising its use.

Senators and representatives of the coming legislature evidently appreciate the courtesy of the Salem Commercial club in extending to them the hospitality of the club during their 40 days' stay in the city, as quite a number of responses of appreciation have been received. Cards entitling them to make themselves at home at the club have been mailed to all legislators.

Traded in—I have eight outfits of Edison machines and records I traded in on new Edison disc machines, ranging from $8.00 to $65.00. If you want good music in your home come and see these bargains. They may suit you. Geo. C. Will, music and sewing machine dealer.
