Cherrians Will Attend Services Tomorrow

During the past two weeks there has been no busier organization in our city than the famous boneters, "The Cherrians." Treating the children and supplying needy families with Christmas cheer has kept every member on the jump. According to all rumors and reports the meetings at the annual banquet kept the new members on the jump.

WEST SALEM

Residents who have been suffering from "pink eye" have about all recovered. Mrs. N. E. Tyler of Buena Vista returned to her home in Buena Vista Tuesday after a few days visit with the R. Bedford family.

Hayesville Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service) Hayesville, Jan. 6.—Mrs. W. C. Privott was the recipient of a jolly birthday surprise party, given on New Year's evening, by a crowd of friends and neighbors. Music and games formed the evening's amusement. Oysters were served and all departed for their homes at a late hour.

Stayton News Items

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Stayton, Ore., Jan. 6.—Attorney Elmo S. White, of Salem, accompanied by Mrs. White and her sister, Mrs. Reese, of Sherman county, came to Stayton last Sunday night and delivered a highly appreciated address in the M. E. church on "Efficiency and the Making of Resolutions."

Bonney Family Reunion Held at Woodburn

The annual reunion of the onsey families was held last Thursday, Dec. 28th, in the basement of the M. E. church. Those present to enjoy the day were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. W. Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Scott, Rev. and Mrs. Victor Balentine and son of Kings Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bonney and son, Hartley Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bonney, Mrs. C. E. Tyler and family, Mrs. Agnes Bonney, Mrs. Emma Townsend, Mrs. Rena Bonney, Mrs. Merle Davis and children, Miss Ina Bonney, Miss Ethel Bonney, Miss Merle Hall and Mrs. Carrie Young. A delicious dinner was served at 1 p. m., which all enjoyed greatly. Holly and evergreens comprised the table decorations but the abundance of good things to eat left small space for the former. An additional guest at dinner was a friend of E. N. Hall, Mr. Skow of Portland.

DEATH OF A VISITOR

Joseph Craig was born in Roxborough-shire, Scotland, January 25, 1833. He was united in marriage to Jessie Mabin in 1861, and emigrated to Huron county, Canada, in 1865. His wife died in 1880, leaving a family of six sons and two daughters, six of whom are still living. He came to Oregon two weeks ago with his son, Joseph, to spend the winter. He was taken sick with pneumonia December 24, and passed away December 30, aged 83 years, 11 months and five days. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and brought up his family in the way of the Lord. Funeral services were held Monday, conducted by Rev. J. J. Mickey, at the Cloverdale school house. Interment in Old Fellows' cemetery, January 1, 1917.—Turner Tribune.

MARRIED IN CALIFORNIA

Martin Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Smith, of this city, and Miss Thora Peterson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Peterson, of Santa Barbara, Cal., formerly of Silverton, were married at San Francisco, Cal., on December 22. They arrived in Silverton Tuesday, after having spent a few days with relatives in the south and will make this city their future home. Mr. Smith is engaged in the jewelry

SELLS TWO MORE FARMS

Geo. A. Smith is still on the job in the real estate line, and made sale of two ranches this week, aggregating in price $16,000. In the transactions, J. M. Krantz of Rocklin, Cal., takes possession of the 150-acre farm owned by Peter Ruid at Jordan, and Mr. Ruid acquires an orange grove at Rocklin. Mr. Ruid will leave for California in the near future, and Mr. Krantz will soon take possession of the Ruid ranch.—Stayton Mail.
