McBride Becomes Chief Justice of Court Today; Decisions Are Rendered

Justice McBride Tuesday took the chair of Chief Justice of the supreme court of Oregon and Attorney Wallace McCann, of Portland, who was appointed recently by Governor Withycombe to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Justice Eakin, ascended the bench and this afternoon his sitting in his first case as a supreme judge in Oregon.

A re-arrangement of the department of the supreme court was also announced, which is as follows: Department Number One, or law department, Justices Burnett, Benson and Harris; department Number Two, or equity department, Justices Moore, Bean and McCann.

The first case before Justice McCann is that of Madis Paabo against Anton H. Hanson, in which Allan R. Joy, of Portland, is appearing for the appellant and Guy O. Smith, of Salem, for the respondent. The case is appealed from Lincoln county.

Four decisions were handed down by the court this morning, and are as follows:

N. K. Bott, respondent, against Harriett Campbell, et al., appellants; action to reform a written contract; appeal from Umatilla county, Judge Phelps; affirmed by Judge Bean.

Lulu R. White, admx. estate James R. White, deceased, respondent, against East Mill & Lumber Co., appellant; appeal from Multnomah county, Judge McGinn; motion to affirm judgment of lower court overruled by Judge Burnett.

Alexander Christie, as Roman Catholic archbishop of Oregon, respondent, against City of Bandon, and W. H. Webb, appellants; appeal from Coos county, Judge Coke; action to enjoin city from excavating on land for improvement of a street; decree of circuit court affirmed by Justice Moore; McBride and Benson concur.

A. E. Mitchell, respondent, against W. G. Howell, appellant; appeal from Multnomah county, Judge Davis; action to recover on contract for services; judgment affirmed, per curiam.

One German Faction May Make Demand for Amb'dr Gerard's Recall

Amsterdam, Jan. 9.—Press versions of what American Ambassador Gerard said at the recent banquet of the American Association of Commerce and Trade have aroused violent denunciation from the advocates of ruthless submarine warfare, according to Berlin dispatches today.

Count Von Reventlow, leading advocate of the Von Tirpitz system of unlimited use of submarines, was quoted in these dispatches as declaring that the American ambassador "must have lost all sense of diplomatic propriety in thus meddling in Germany's internal affairs."

Other leaders of the Von Reventlow type were said to be urging a demand by Germany for Gerard's recall, on the ground that his expressions of opinion as to the continuance in office of certain German leaders of the conciliatory group exceeded his prerogatives.

That part of Gerard's speech to which the Von Tirpitz adherents violently objected, as reported by the official press bureau and sent out by wireless, read: "Never since the beginning of the war have the relations between Germany and the United States been as cordial as now. . . . I personally am convinced that as long as Germany's fate is directed by such men as my friend, the chancellor and Dr. Helfferich and Dr. Solf by Admirals Von Capelle, Hantzendorff and Von Mueller; by Generals Von Hindenburg and Ludendorff and last, but not least, by my friend, Zimmerman, the relations between the two countries are running no risk."

THAT BAD BACK

Do you have a dull, steady ache in the small of the back—sharp, stabbing twinges when stooping or lifting—distressing urinary disorders? For back and weakened kidneys Salem residents recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this Salem man's statement.

Joseph Wint, retired blacksmith, 668 High St., Salem, says: "My back and kidneys bothered me. My kidneys were disordered and my back seemed to lose strength. Short use of Doan's Kidney Pills soon put me right." (Statement given December 12, 1912.)

On April 11, 1916, Mr. Wint said: "My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills is just the same today as it was when I gave my first endorsement. I haven't had any of that former trouble for several years and I give them credit for bringing such lasting results."

Price 30c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Wint has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

FRED FULTON LINED UP FOR LIG LEAGUE

Victory of Last Night Puts Big Minnesotan In Heavy-weight Class

By H. C. Hamilton.
(United Press staff correspondent.)
New York, Jan. 10.—Fred Fulton, Minnesota southpaw, is in the big league today. His manager, Frank Fure, has everything lined up for the huge plasterer to pull off two more bouts in New York and then, beat it for Havana, where Fulton expects to meet Frank Moran in a scheduled 40-round tussle.

Fulton reached security in the big fight league last night when he heaved his left over Tom Cowler's jaw and the alleged "concrete-crusher" knocked off work for the night. It happened in the first round.

Jimmy Johnson had been hurling instructions across the ring to Cowler, who had become considerably confused by the number of gloves that Fulton persisted in sticking in his eyes but when Fulton reached over with the left hook Jimmy fainted.

The blow that started the finish, according to Fulton, was a short right hand uppercut, which landed on the point of Cowler's chin. Cowler, dazed, was an easy mark for a smashing left hook that put him down for nine. Rising, he ran into a fusillade of rights and lefts which left him sprawling on the lower rope of the ring while the referee counted him out.

Baltimore bantam's blows found their mark and Herman was in distress on two occasions.

Williams was the favorite in the betting and when Rocamp raised Pete's hand the house sat spellbound.

Jack Moran Wins.
St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 10.—Jack Moran won from Jack Geyer in 12 rounds in the roughest battle seen here in years. The heavies got so roughly enthusiastic that three policemen were called into the ring to separate them in the final round.

Commission Prevents Higher Gasoline Price

Washington, Jan. 10.—The Texaco and the Gulf Oil companies, "follow the Standard Oil company" in setting their prices, but no actual evidence has been adduced to show any "agreement to maintain prices" between the three, the federal trade commission will declare in its gasoline report to be presented to congress, probably next week, the United Press learned today.

Whether a "combination" exists between the many subsidiary companies of the Standard, it was not stated, other than that the Magnolia company is "connected" with the Standard.

An increase of 10 cents a gallon in gasoline was "prevented by the commission's investigation," congress will be told.

HEARST SUIT POSTPONED

New York, Jan. 10.—The news piracy injunction suit brought by the Associated Press against Hearst's International News Service was postponed until next Tuesday at the request of Hearst's lawyers, when called up for argument before Judge Hand in the federal district court here today.

Salem Rifle Club Elected New Officers

B. W. Macy, city attorney, was last evening elected president of the Salem Rifle club for the coming year. Other officers chosen to serve with Mr. Macy were: Fred J. Rosenberg, secretary; E. B. Millard, treasurer; H. V. Doe, executive officer; Henry Freeland, range officer.

The records of the club show that among its members are twenty who have qualified as marksmen, one as sharpshooter and one as expert rifleman. During the year 6,220 rounds of ammunition have been fired. The military course for target shooting has been adopted by the club whereby a man's standing as a marksman is established by his highest score at any time.

The club is preparing for several competitive shoots and teams are already being organized. These contests will take place at the headquarters of the club in the old armory over the city hall.

BUFFALO BILL DIES

of the west that is now forever gone. To a handful of friends who knew him in the early days he was dear because of deeds with which they were familiar. But to the great majority of Americans he was known through vague stories of the past and very realistic deeds of the present, under the "big top."

The most romantic figure left over from the thrilling days of Indian fights and clashes with white renegades—a figure at once the ideal and despair of every red blooded boy in America; remnant of an organization that once roamed the plains of the fast vanishing wild west, disappeared with his death.

He killed his first Indian when he was only 12 years old, while he was with a troop of United States soldiers on their way from Lawrence, Kansas, to Utah.

Young Cody was only 10 when he left Iowa and went with his father and mother and seven sisters and brothers to Kansas. Isaac Cody, his father, was forced to leave when he became too ardent as a champion of anti-slavery.

Cody wasn't a soldier long. He spent 29 days alone while his partner, Dave Harrington, rode 125 miles on a horse to get help. He was visited by a warring party of Indians, who would have scalped him if he had not recognized the chief.

Cody served in the Civil war, first as a horse buyer for the government, then as a guide to Colonel Clarke, commanding the Ninth Kansas volunteers, and then as an enlisted man in the Seventh Kansas volunteers.

He gained his nickname in 1867 when he killed 4,280 buffaloes while under a contract to supply a Kansas Pacific railroad gag with buffalo meat.

Cody was born February 26, 1846, in Scott county, Iowa.

Two of the worst points in the Mexican situation are that Villa is as bad as he looks and Carranza is not so good as he looks.

When the great war broke out England was forcibly feeding suffragettes. When the war is over, will she merely begin where she left off?

Bernard Baruch Denies He Received "Tip"

Washington, Jan. 10.—Bernard Baruch, New York stock broker, who was mentioned as having profited through the leak to Wall Street on the president's "peace note," this afternoon denied he had been tipped regarding the note.

Baruch told the house probers he had no information "from anyone in the administration or from anyone else in the world concerning President Wilson's note or Bethmann-Hollweg's speech, except that carried in the house press."

Baruch explained he began selling when the ticker said in substance "Lloyd-George refuses German peace, but leaves the door open." A slump then, he believed, was natural.

STRIKERS GET NEW SCALE

Portland, Ore., Jan. 10.—If striking employees of the Northwest Steel company will return to work, they will receive the same scale of wages as is paid at the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, according to the statement today of President J. R. Bowles. Some of the strikers demand that the Seattle scale be paid. It is slightly higher.

STEEL ORDERS HEAVY

New York, Jan. 10.—Unfilled orders on the books of the United States Steel corporation reached another new high record December 31, an increase of 488,744 tons over the record set in November.

The company's unfilled tonnage report today showed 11,547,286 tons unfilled orders on the books December 31, against 11,058,542 on November 30.

SHIPBUILDING PLANT For City of Tacoma

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 10.—This city is soon to become the largest shipbuilding center on the Pacific coast, according to plans outlined here today by Chester Thorne, of the recently organized Todd Shipbuilding and Drydock company. Several destroyers and a scout cruiser for the United States navy will comprise the first construction work of the company, Thorne says.

Preliminary work on the big $1,000,000 plant, located on the tideflats, will begin within the next few weeks.

One Dollar Damages Awarded by Court Jury

The jury in the case of Skagen vs. Ulvestad, returned a verdict late yesterday afternoon, awarding one dollar in damages to the plaintiff. Malicious prosecution in connection with the case brought in the justice court, in which the plaintiff in the present case was charged with the theft of a horse, was the basis of the present trial. It was claimed by the defense that instead of stealing the horse, Mr. Skagen had taken the animal with the owner's consent.
