Court House News

A marriage license was issued to Ross C. Dammell, a printer of West Salem, and Mary Lemmon, a housekeeper of Salem, today.

The will of Byron T. Randall, deceased, was filed in the county clerk's office yesterday by the executrix, Mrs. Randall, his wife.

By the terms of the will, $2,500 is given to a daughter, Ada Belle Judson, a fourth interest in all the property to his wife, Lucinda, and the remaining property to be divided up equally between the following children of Mr. Randall:

Benjamin M. Randall, Rex B. Randall, Charles Z. Randall, Leyon G. Randall, Kenneth L. Randall, Donald T. Randall, Eva L. Randall, Rolland P. Randall and Burton T. Randall.

An answer in the case of McKinley Mitchell vs. S. W. Jones of Brooks, Oregon, was filed in the county clerk's office today.

A complaint was filed with the county clerk today in the case of The Lamo Manufacturing Co. vs. C. L. Sprigling, a suit to recover $400 alleged due on a promissory note made by the defendant to the Western Fabrique Machinery Co.

The will of Werner Breyman filed some time ago, provides that all his property, real or personal, shall be given to his daughters: Elva Breyman Brown, Ada Breyman Eldridge and Anna Breyman Praed.

The questions for the January Eighth grade examinations are now in the hands of the county superintendent, and will be mailed Monday.

County Superintendent Smith will go to Silverton this afternoon to act as a judge in the Salem-Silverton judicial debate held in Silverton this evening.

Captain of Detectives Tate announced he had received a letter from the Chicago police, containing information of the utmost importance.

"Lewis ran around all the expensive cafes in Chicago," Captain Tate said, "and was quite fond of young girls—'chickens' as they are known on the street."

"Last December he took one from Chicago to New York. He rented a room in the Netherlands hotel and took the young woman there. Lewis pulled the shades down and began peering behind the furniture."

"He told the girl he was in constant danger and must be careful. 'I am engaged by the British government,'" Tate declared he told the girl. "'Spies follow me everywhere.'"

Captain Tate could not disclose the identity of the girl, he said. She comes of a good family, it is said.

With only a slight reduction the amount asked by Secretary of State Olcott for the maintenance of the capitol building, the supreme court building and the grounds for next biennium was approved yesterday evening at the second session of the ways and means committee.

This committee also heard Miss Corbin Marvin, state librarian, present the needs of the library and educational department.

In order to hasten the work of going over the appropriations, the committee decided to meet each night at eight o'clock beginning next Monday night.

Charged with illicit relations with his step-daughter, Press McPherson, a logger of Springfield, was brought to Salem from Eugene yesterday by Constable Varney.

Constable Varney today served a summons on C. L. Johnson today in the case of J. W. Hill vs. Johnson, a suit to collect $75, and interest at 10 per cent on a note given May 12, 1912.

Lloyd Zackery, West Salem, Stabbed by Sydney Hawthorne

Lloyd Zackery, of West Salem, age about 13, was stabbed over the left breast this morning by Sydney Hawthorne, aged 12 or 13 years, in an altercation resulting from vile names alleged to have been flung at Zackery by Hawthorne.

The wound was a pocket knife and the wound is not considered serious. The stabbing took place this morning on the West Salem school grounds during the morning recess.

It appears from the story told the officers that Hawthorne has been in the habit of calling any one whom he chose vile names. This morning he called Zackery names and he took exception to them and started to fight.

THE EASIEST WAY TO END DANDRUFF You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and feel a hundred times better.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

Wheat Market Nervous Showing Sharp Gains

Chicago, Jan. 12.—The wheat market was nervous today, showing sharp gains at the opening. The reply of the allies indicating that there was no hope for peace in the near future was the influence.

There was heavy realizing on the advance from outside accounts and prices broke sharply before support was encountered. May wheat opened up 2 1/2, then lost 4 3/4, going to $1.85 5/8.

Corn had a firmer tone at the opening, but followed wheat down later. May corn opened up 1 1/8, then lost the same, going to 98 3/8.

Ons registered sharp price gains on the opening trade. Later oats followed wheat and corn. May oats opened up 5/8, but lost 1 1/4, going to 57.

Provisions ruled slightly higher. Pork was neglected early but a brisk demand for lard and ribs appeared. Offerings were limited.

Committee Indorses Secretary's Request

With only a slight reduction the amount asked by Secretary of State Olcott for the maintenance of the capitol building, the supreme court building and the grounds for next biennium was approved yesterday evening at the second session of the ways and means committee.

This committee also heard Miss Corbin Marvin, state librarian, present the needs of the library and educational department.

In order to hasten the work of going over the appropriations, the committee decided to meet each night at eight o'clock beginning next Monday night.

Constable Varney today served a summons on C. L. Johnson today in the case of J. W. Hill vs. Johnson, a suit to collect $75, and interest at 10 per cent on a note given May 12, 1912.

A case is in the justice court today concerning the recovery of about $125, alleged due The Albert H. Weinbrener Co. from C. E. Reinhardt.

CHARGE ANARCHISTS PLANNED TO KILL GOVERNOR JOHNSON

Sensational Allegations Made by Prosecution in Mooney Trial Today

San Francisco, Jan. 12.—Charges that Thomas J. Mooney, Alexander Berkman, Miss Eleanor Fitzgerald and their friends planned an attack on the life of Governor Hiram Johnson were made by the prosecution during today's session of the trial of Thomas J. Mooney on charge of complicity in the fatal preparation day parade here.

The prosecution planned to attack Governor Johnson's office when they were raiding the "Blast" office recently.

During a hot exchange with Bourke Cockran, chief counsel for the defense, Assistant District Attorney Cunha declared that the grand jury would be asked to investigate his charges that Mooney's friends planned to attack Governor Johnson.

In reply, Cockran told the court that the district attorney's office was trying to go back to "the old star chamber session days and to violate American liberty by holding back secret papers affecting the life and liberty of the accused."

"When this trial is over," he added, "we are going to take legal action against every man who was connected with the raid on 'The Blast' office."

Cockran asked the court to instruct the jury not to read the daily papers or their headlines. He said the district attorney was attempting to poison the minds of the jurors and the public against the defendant.

The prosecution then questioned the right of the friends of the defense to mail throughout the city a letter setting forth "the case of the defense."

Judge Griffin upheld the defense's right to do this.

Attorney Cockran countered this move by the state by requesting the release of all papers seized in the "Blast" raid. It was at this juncture that Miss Fitzgerald took the stand.

During her examination by Cunha, she called the latter a liar.

Judge Griffin adjourned court until Monday without ruling on the disputed point as to possession of the seized letters.

Ministers of Salem are highly indignant over the fact that the sergeant-at-arms of the senate took upon himself to warn Dr. Talbot, head of the Kimball college of Theology, during the offering of prayer Thursday morning in the senate chamber.

Dr. Talbot, according to the ministers, is not in the habit of making long prayers, but yesterday morning the sergeant-at-arms, probably believing that the minister had prayed long enough, pulled his coat-tails to warn him that his time was up.

Nevertheless, because the ministers were there on the invitation of the senate and as they had been given no instructions as to how long they should or should not pray, they feel the action of the sergeant-at-arms to be an affront to their calling.

This morning the senate session was opened without prayer by a minister. This oversight is also laid on the shoulders of the sergeant-at-arms, whose duty it is to notify the ministers at what hour the senate convenes.

They were slightly late in arriving, but, bundled up in fur coats, many of which had been sent them from suffrage organizations in nearby states, they voiced determination to go through with their program or freeze in the effort.

Returning from his golf game this morning, the president for the first time exchanged salutes with the sentries. As the white horse car plunged through the women stood at attention, saluting, and the president smilingly touched his hat in return.

Such was the conflict of views as to the effect the reply of the entente belligerents to President Wilson's communication of last December would have on the outlook for peace in the near future, that the public still feared to re-enter the stock market today.

CITY NEWS

All of the new officers of the Women's Relief Corps are requested to meet with the president at her residence 195 South Church street, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

A warrant for the arrest of Carl Schultz, who is charged with speeding past a street car at the end of Center street yesterday afternoon, was issued today by the city recorder.

Saturday morning's story hour will have for its main attraction "The Elephant's Child." A favorite from Kipling. All children are invited to the public library to hear it at 9:30 in the morning.

It has been reported to the chief of police that the hoboes are becoming a nuisance in the outlying districts of Salem. It is stated that, when they are refused food or lodging, they become abusive. The police are keeping a sharp lookout for any signs of disorder and little trouble is expected.

Notwithstanding the fact that all auto tires have advanced from 10 to 15 per cent and that gasoline is not likely to become any cheaper—at least not this season—the following have purchased Ford cars from the shipment received this morning at the O. C. T. dock: Fred S. Lamport, W. C. Tibbison and Falls City-Salem Lumber company.

The significance of the 11 o'clock hour and the bailing sign of an Elk were given to eight candidates last night at the Elk lodge, all of whom were duly initiated and impressed with the duties of an Elk. They were: A. R. Wilson, James Imbuh, W. H. Dalrymple, O. L. McDonald, Richard Harbert, C. C. Simeral, Newton S. Smith and H. R. Jones.

Howard M. Brownell, an attorney of Eugene, is in the city to conduct the preliminary defense of P. W. McPherson, charged with a statutory crime. The case was to have come up before Justice Webster today, but was postponed until next week, as the district attorney was unable to attend. McPherson resides at Springfield, but it is alleged that the crime was committed in this county.

When one cannot attend an opera and see and hear Caruso, the next best thing is to hear him and other famous opera stars, via the Virola route. Tonight at the public library, to which, of course, there is no admission charge, the Italian opera "Pagliacci" will be given on a Victrola furnished by the George C. Will music house. Mr. Will has also loaned the records from the opera. As the records are played, Mrs. Anna Rodgers Fish will tell the story of the opera and explain the special significance of each number.

DON'T TAKE A CHANCE

Salem People Should Act in Time If you suffer from backache; If you have headaches, dizzy spells; If the kidney secretions are irregular, Don't delay—likely your kidneys are sick.

Salem people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's a Salem woman's experience: Mrs. Leslie Kouscher, 1253 N. Church St., Salem, says: "Ten or twelve years ago, I suffered a great deal from rheumatic pains in my back and more or less throughout my whole body. I ached all over. My kidneys were so congested and irregular that I concluded they caused the pains. I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and they stopped the pain in my back. I have since then off and on for ten years, whenever I have noticed that my kidneys have needed attention and they have always done me good."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Kouscher had. Foster-McBarn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. The World is my territory.
