"The Lilac Domino" Musical Extravagance

Andreas Dippel presents "The Lilac Domino" at The Grand Opera House one night, Tuesday, January 23. This production is conceded to be the most elaborate and altogether charming musical entertainment of many seasons. It is superlatively bright, breezy and clean, with a magnetic attraction for all ranks of society. In New York, Boston and Chicago, prominent leaders of society engaged boxes for the entire engagement last season, and theater parties were of nightly occurrence. It has been said that the customers are a fashion show in themselves being up-to-the-minute in style and magnificent in quality. There is a great dancing exhibit. The whole gamut being run from the Russian ballet to the modern society steps. In fact every approved and tested element of musical production has been included in this one stupendous production; yet no feature is allowed such prominence as to detract from the exquisite score and the genuine musical excellence of the piece. No music lover can afford to miss it and no lover of brisk, mirth provoking comedy will.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE FOR BUSINESSMEN

Too much comment can not be made concerning the objective which the local Young Men's Christian association has in view when it organizes and conducts such activities as the Commercial Basketball League which already has played off six of a series of thirty games which are to be played over a period of ten weeks. The central object which the Y. M. C. A. officials have in mind is first of all to afford an opportunity for all the young men members to learn and play the game of basket ball which is the most popular American indoor sport. Approximately sixty young men are members of the six teams which compose the league and all are more or less given an opportunity to play on organized and well equipped teams. The equipment is made possible through local business houses who together with the association furnish it. It is of the highest quality and would do credit to any university or high school team. An admission fee of ten cents is charged for the three games which take place on each Wednesday night thus affording all interested in basket ball an excellent opportunity to witness three basket ball games. The small fee which is exacted is not for the purpose of making money but for defraying the expenses incurred by the purchase of uniforms, printing of schedules and the securing of medals for the members of the winning team. For those who have not given the matter a great deal of thought it may be surprising to know that the cost of organizing and conducting the league is approximately $200.00, 50 per cent of this amount is paid by the business houses represented in the league and the remaining amount is collected by 10c admissions. The games on last Wednesday night were exceedingly interesting from a spectators point of view. The large crowd which filled the gymnasium cheered the boys continually for the good plays and at no time was applause lacking. In the last game of the evening the Price Co. took the lead in the standing of the teams by defeating the Watt Shipp Co. Thus far the Price Co. has a perfect score of 1000 points having won both games played. Melittire for the Price Co. scored 13 of a total of twenty points for his team. Harrs scored 9 of the total 15 for Shipp's. The individual points and scores follow:

POULTRY EXHIBIT ENDS WITH THE DAY

Was One of Most Successful Meets—President Shaw Is Praised

The Marion County Poultry association closed its annual exhibit this afternoon. All day yesterday the Derby building was crowded by those interested in poultry and especially for the expounding demonstration of C. M. Wilcox, superintendent of the Oregon state hospital farm. The officers of the association fell under special obligations to George E. Shaw, president of the association and superintendent of the exhibit, who gave his entire time during the week towards the success of the exhibit. G. M. Voris, assistant secretary, also did much to make the show a success, giving his personal attention to details during the week. Contributing to the success of the exhibit was the $100 given by the Commercial club without which the association could not have given cash prizes. F. N. Derby, the owner of the building, showed his interest in the exhibit by giving the association the use of the store rooms for a nominal rent and of course the silver cups offered by the United States National bank and the Salem Bank of Commerce and much towards bringing in additional exhibits.

Intolerance Is A Great Production

At the Bligh Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday there will be presented the great Selig play, "The Ne'er-Do-Well" written by Rex Beach. In many respects, critics assert that "The Ne'er-Do-Well" is even greater than that other photo-drama, "The Spoilers," also written by Rex Beach and released by the Selig Company. Colin Campbell directed "The Spoilers" and "The Ne'er-Do-Well," and Kathryn Williams, who achieved such emotional heights in "The Spoilers," even surpassed the record made there as Mrs. Stephen Curtland in "The Ne'er-Do-Well." Wheeler Oakman plays the title role and the drama, filmed in Panama, the locale of Rex Beach's story, abounds in plot, counter plot, hand-to-hand battles, and strong love interest. Beautiful scenic effects are plentiful including wonderful tropical scenery.

In Salem this evening and preach the first sermon in the new church at the evening service. At 11 o'clock Sunday morning Rev. Dr. C. P. Poling will preach. In the afternoon there will be informal platform speaking and address by Rev. Bowersox. In the evening Rev. C. P. Gates, of Dayton, Oregon, will preach, and Presiding Elder of the Portland district, Rev. S. S. Mumey, will dedicate. There are three memorial windows. The first is in memory of Rev. Bowersox, the second is in honor of Rev. H. L. Pratt, who was formerly a pastor here, and the third in honor of the two deceased children of S. C. Halston, of this city.
