higher. The ships already destroyed by the raider are valued with their cargoes, at about $10,000,000. Insurance is carried for the most part by local underwriters. The liner sailed from New York at 7 a. m. today for Bordeaux, regardless of the raider's presence. She will have 120 passengers aboard. Other large liners now on the Atlantic and not yet reported as reaching their destinations are:

The Alphonse XII for Vigo, Spain. The American liner St. Paul, with many Americans aboard for Liverpool. The Saga for Rio Janeiro. The Brasos for San Juan, Porto Rico. The Sao Paulo for Bahia and Buenos Aires.

The Valdivia. Ships which are on their way from European ports to America are: The French liner Touraine, from Bordeaux; the American liner Philadelphia; the White Star liner Baltic, at present the second largest passenger liner engaged in Atlantic trade; the Holland-American liner Tyndan; the Helgola of the Scandinavian-American line and the Bergenfjord of the Norwegian-American line.

MANY IN SALEM TRY SIMPLE MIXTURE

Many Salem people are surprised at the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka. This simple remedy acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-ka is astonishing. J. C. Perry, druggist.

Sun Chin Loo at Bligh Theatre

An exceptionally bright and entertaining bill of Hippodrome vaudeville is promised by Manager Bligh at the Bligh theatre Saturday. It is headed by Sun Chin Loo, a celebrated Oriental mystery worker, and his company of five, in an elaborate act of magic. As an illusionist Sun Chin Loo stands in the first division of his craft. He bears the distinction of having been for years a chief court entertainer of his country; he has been decorated by various European monarchs for his wonderful ability as a magic worker; and wherever he has appeared in this country he has created a sensation. It is one of the biggest and best acts of its kind in vaudeville. A beautiful Oriental setting and many elaborate costumes add richness to the act and the paraphernalia carried requires the service of several extra assistants.

Myra Errington, a dainty songstress and instrumentalist, who has earned unusual popularity along the big circuits, is also on the bill. Her pleasing art, attractive personality and gorgeous gowns would make a big impression on any bill.

James T. Dervin will be on hand with his well known brand of irresistible comedy. Dervin is an excellent ventriloquist along original lines that defy imitation, and his fame as a mimic has made of him a high light in big time vaudeville. There will be an entirely new show in for Sunday with all new acts.

Corn Prices Higher Than Ever Before In 50 Years--Wheat Higher

Chicago, Jan. 18.—A new fifty year record for corn was set today when May delivery sold at $1.01 3/4, the highest since 1868.

There was a rush to buy corn at the start. The destruction of shipping and probable loss of Argentine corn in the South Atlantic is expected to improve the demand for North American corn. May opened up 3-8, gained 3-4, going to $1.01 3/4. July opened up 1/4, subsequently gained half, going to $1.00. Oats were posted higher in initial transactions and the market was affected by the erend in corn and wheat. May oats opened up 1-8 and then gained 3-8, going to 58 5-8. July opened unchanged, but registered a gain of 3-8, going to 56 1-8.

Provisions averaged lower on the easier feeling of legs. Slight fluctuations, but up and down, were recorded. That wool growers of the Northwest will receive as high as 40 cents for their 1917 wool clip is the opinion of W. B. Barrett, president of the Oregon Wool Growers' association, says the Heppner Gazette-Times. He bases his contention in part from a recent letter received from S. W. McClure, secretary of the National Wool Growers' association.

Salem Taxicab Manager Does Much to Remedy Loss by Closing of Bridge

From the much interested Salem public has been coming about in almost every direction for a solution to the traffic problem occasioned by the condemnation of the Willamette river vehicle bridge, and arriving at little or no conclusion as to what shall be done, J. A. Beck, the progressive proprietor and manager of the Salem Taxicab Co., now comes forth with the announcement that Polk county visitors to and from the Capital city are to meet with no difficulties whatever in the future in making trips across the stream which, until Mr. Beck found the remedy, has estranged Salem from all west side vehicle service.

In announcing his new Polk county service, Mr. Beck says: "There is no denying the fact that Salem and West Salem people have and would continue to suffer more or less by reason of all vehicle traffic being discontinued over the only possible structure spanning the Willamette river at this point. "Prior to the closing of the bridge my cabs have been busy transporting physicians, business men and visitors to and from Polk county points, and I know it to be a certainty that West Salem depends almost exclusively upon Salem doctors in all cases of emergency. Bearing this in mind I concluded that this city should have some direct connection with the folks across the river and succeeded in a favorable negotiation with Charles Dennison for the exclusive use day and night of a modern and entirely safe motor boat in which to transport patrons from this city to West Salem where I have established a permanent taxi stand in addition to my stand in front of the Bligh Hotel. In this way I can not only give good and speedy service but also assure all who wish to take advantage of my new traveling scheme perfect safety and comfort."

There is little doubt but what Mr. Beck's late service will be liberally patronized by both West Salem and Capital city travelers, as his method is the only one so far introduced which bears any definite assurance of prompt and convenient transportation across the troublesome stream. Mr. Beck drove some of his taxis to West Salem the first of the week by way of Newberg and before putting into effect his cross river service his cabs have carried several persons to West Salem points via the same long and costly route. A hurry up call would have been more than useless under these conditions, while now there will be but a few paltry minutes consumed in connecting with West Salem and other Polk county places.

Smith, of Smith & Smith, attorneys, is the one who is forming this association and he suggests that any farmer who wishes to
