Are you satisfied with your tailor? If not I request you to call at my shop. I am new to the trade in Salem and use this method to bring to your attention my ability to satisfy the most critical dresser.

I served my apprenticeship as a tailor in several European cities and obtained a thorough knowledge of the business from the master tailors of the old country. Since coming to America I have taken a full course in the Chicago Cutting Schools in cutting both ladies' and men's garments, acquainting myself with every detail of the work, and have had master tailor experience in such cities as New York, Chicago, Winnipeg, San Francisco and Portland.

My aim is to build up a business in your city that will meet the requirements of all classes of the trade, hoping that as time goes on I may be able to employ many men upon work that is now sent to Eastern cities, keeping the wages of the workmen in this city where it will be spent with other Salem business houses.
