New York Suffragettes In Hunger Strike

New York, Jan. 25.—New York authorities realized that they had a real hunger strike of the English suffragette variety on their hands today, and issued an official bulletin announcing that Mrs. Ethel Byrne, birth control advocate, was spending her fourth day without food or drink.

While women supporters of the militant birth control worker were planning to appeal to President Wilson and Governor Whitman in Mrs. Byrne's behalf, the latter accepted her imprisonment on Blackwell's Island calmly, but steadfastly refused all food offered her.

A bulletin issued by Burdette G. Lewis, commissioner of correction, detailed Mrs. Byrne's physical condition as normal today. Her pulse, respiration and temperature were declared practically normal. No ill effects of her fast have yet appeared, but the bulletin mentioned that Mrs. Byrne was taking no exercise. She left her cell only twice yesterday, and then only to wash a couple of handkerchiefs.

A show down between Mrs. Byrne and Warden Fox runs the Blackwell's prison is expected to come tomorrow. The birth control advocate said today she expects to be very uncomfortable by that time. The warden has declared that whenever the uncomfortable time comes he will see to it that Mrs. Byrne sits up and takes nourishment.

Mrs. Margaret Sanger, sister of Mrs. Byrne, was indicted today by the Kings county grand jury on a charge of keeping a public nuisance. The indictment, according to the police, will enable them to close her birth control clinic on Amboy street, Brooklyn. Mrs. Sanger appeared and gave bail in the sum of $500.

Are You Worn Out? Does night find you exhausted—nerves unsettled—too tired to rest?

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is the food- tonic that corrects these troubles. Its pure cod liver oil is a cell-building food to purify and enrich the blood and nourish the nerve-centers. Your strength will respond to Scott's Emulsion—but see that you get SCOTT'S.

German Raider Said To Be Liner Cap Ortegale

By Charles P. Stewart.
 (United Press staff correspondent.)
 Buenos Aires, Jan. 25.—Dispatches from Montevideo today declared on reliable information that the German raider has been identified as the former Hamburg-American liner Cap Ortegale. The same source was authority for the statement that the Cap Ortegale is known to have transformed two of her prizes into auxiliary raiders.

How identification of the raider was made did not appear in the Montevideo dispatches. The Cap Ortegale was formerly engaged in European trade between Buenos Aires and Hamburg. It is known she was in Hamburg at the time of the outbreak of the war.

Lloyd's register lists the Cap Ortegale as a steel twin screw steamer of 7,818 tons, built in 1903 and owned by the Hamburg-Sud Amerik Dampfschiffahrts Ges. registered at Hamburg. She is 440 feet in length.

The social committee of the Macca-bees has announced the giving of a dance Wednesday evening, February 7, Mrs. Sims Swartz and F. J. A. Boehringer have been appointed as a committee on arrangements.

Party holding little white curly hair

The subject of Prof. G. R. McAuslan's lecture last night at the Salem Commercial club where he is conducting a short course on salesmanship, was the knitting process. He stated it might surprise many familiar with the multitude of uses to which knitted fabrics are put at the present time to know that knitting is not an old process, dating back only to about the time Columbus discovered America. Tonight the subject treated will be "Wool," and its development. The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock and be held in the auditorium of the Commercial club.

E. N. Branson, rural mail carrier for route No. 1, is in hard luck, just like any man would be if told he would have to travel a mile farther each day in his regular vocation. The postoffice department at Washington has decreed that half a mile be added to Mr. Branson's travels as rural carrier each day, taking him into Yamhill county. That means he will travel about 200 miles more every year in the delivery of the mail and he already had the longest of the nine rural routes.

Fresh halibut has climbed in the band wagon of advancing prices and now retails at 29 cents a pound. A few years ago the price was 10 cents a pound. According to C. T. Doty, of the Doty fish market on South Commercial street, the halibut are not spawning fast enough to supply the market demands, and now that the Prince Rupert railroad is completed, halibut is not coming in such quantities to Seattle. By shipping east from Prince Rupert a better price may be obtained in eastern Canada. Smelt are not running yet and those in the market are gill nets.
