SHRINERS GATHERING

Portland, Or., Jan. 27.—Shriners from Seattle, Tacoma, Vancouver, B. C., Spokane and many other northwest-ern points arrived in Portland today for the installation of eighty neophytes by Al Kader temple. A procession, with uniformed parades in line, and a banquet featured the proceedings. The hot sands will be crossed tonight at a theatre, decorated with gorgeous trap-pings.

TAXPAYERS LEAGUE MAKES SUGGESTIONS

Wants State to Work Time Deposits—Would Print Court Reports at Home

The State Taxpayers' league, in its annual session yesterday at the Commercial club, refused to recommend any material change in the six per cent limitation amendment, although it did condemn an attempt to add the six per cent every year on a compound interest proposition. It recommended that the state acquire time deposits and work them with convict labor to give farmers a lower price on live for the soil and to prevent higher prices. Supreme court reports should be printed on a competitive basis by printers in Oregon and not by those outside the state. Home rule for counties was advocated and that the amount of taxes to be raised in counties should be levied in stated amounts rather than by an estimate in mills. The road code of the Oregon good roads committee was unanimously adopted. The election of county commissioners from geographical districts in each county was not favored, although the motion in favor was lost by one vote and then there was some doubt as to the counting. A proposal to eliminate the state aid feature from the industrial accident commission was laid on the table. Thirty-one counties were represented at the meeting.

RUSSIA APPROVES PRESIDENTS IDEAS

Theories for World Wide Peace Indorsed by Democracy of Whole World

London, Jan. 27.—Fresh proof of the solidarity of the allies was furnished today, in the belief of officials, in the identical opinions as to President Wilson's senate address voiced by official and semi-official sources in Paris, Petrograd, Rome and here. The view that the president's aim and ideals in general approximate those outlined by the allies in their reply was held in all of these expressions. Russia furnished perhaps the strongest statement, officially announcing her approval of the American president's views as to all nations having an outlet to the sea as to an independent, autonomous Poland and as to his general aims after the war to prevent any future world conflict. The statement, which was issued from the foreign office, noted "with satisfaction that President Wilson makes a sharp contrast between the definite reply of the allies to his first communication and the equivocal note of the central powers," and concludes: "As to the nature of the peace to be concluded, whether it be a peace without victory or not, one should remember that it never has been the aim of the allies to crush their enemies, and that they have never insisted upon victory in that sense over Germany. It is Germany who has taken that view and who wishes to dictate peace as a victor."

LABOR PARTY INDORSES IT

Other peace news which aroused comment here today inference of the action of the Manchester conference of the British labor party in endorsing the president's speech and in urging that when the peace conference does eventually come, organized labor be granted representation on the British committee which will meet to fix terms. Paris reports that united socialist deputies of the chamber had formally adopted resolutions approving Wilson's aims and urging that "democrats of all nations" join in hastening peace. The 89 members signing the resolution of the extreme socialist wing. London was filled with reports today that the Kaiser's birthday would be marked by some important move by Germany. It was pointed out that under the guise of a celebration of the German emperor's anniversary a notable gathering had assembled at the German great headquarters. Those there, included, besides the Kaiser, the Austro-Hungarian emperor, the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, German Imperial Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg, Foreign Minister Zimmermann, Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, Quartermaster General Von Tunderoff and other high officials of the army and navy.

ANOTHER SHIPYARD

Portland, Or., Jan. 27.—Work on a new shipyard covering four blocks, for the construction of vessels for New York interests, will be started here in a few days, it was learned today. The yard is to be built by J. C. Lockwood, Joseph Supple and Fred A. Baldwin, of Portland. Contracts have been signed for two, four thousand ton motor ships for the Gaston, Williams, Wigmore Steamship Corporation of New York.

RICKARD IS PEEVED OVER PUBLICITY

Fred Fulton and Charley Weivert First Attraction at Madison Square

By H. C. Hamilton. (United Press Staff Correspondent.) New York, Jan. 27.—Tex Rickard was considerably riled today over the fact that his negotiations for a lease on a plot of ground near 132d street had become public. Rickard is somewhat afraid plans for this spot will be knocked all out of alignment by publicity and he as much as stated that he was going to look around for another place that may be suitable for his huge sports arena. Rickard declared he certainly will build an arena in New York and that he expects to have it finished before the fall season for championship and other kinds of fighting comes around. Associated with him will be Samuel McCracken and between them they expect to have something going on in their enclosure most of the time. A direct or something of that sort will be enrolled for New York every month or so. Fred Fulton and Charley Weivert will form the first attraction for Madison Square Garden under the guidance of Grant Hugh Browne, that promoter announced. He has signed the men to articles which call for ten rounds of fighting the night of February 12th. No opponent has yet been selected for Les Darcy, who is scheduled to do a trial heat the night of March 5. An offer was made by Al McCoy, the American middleweight champion, but Al immediately decided it wasn't enough and went away. George Chip or Billy Miske are now said to be holding the bulge.

Portland Hockey Team Beaten

Portland, Or., Jan. 27.—Portland's hockey squad had another defeat to brood on today, having been beaten 5 to 4 by Spokane in one of the most thrilling contests ever seen here. Portland led by 3 to nothing in the first period, when Fowler, the Spokane goal tender, proved rather weak. Fowler settled down and Spokane evened it up. The count was 4-1 when the final session began. With two minutes to play, Lester Patrick passed the puck to Kerr, who slapped it past Murray, into the net and Spokane won, 5 to 4. Just before the end Portland claimed to have tallied again but it was disallowed. Excitement was at fever heat during the last period. Dunderdale and Irvin of Portland were sent to the sidelines for fouls and it seemed likely the spectacle would end in a riot.

Burns Beat McLarny

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 27.—Frankie Burns, Oakland light eight, launched a torpedo and sunk the ship, here last night when he knocked Eddie McLarny, the "battling sailor" cold in the last round of their four round tangle at Dreamland. On the same card, Chet Neff, Seattle lightweight, was given a four round decision over Eddie Pinkman. Tommy Burns, former heavyweight champion refereed the two main bouts.

REBUTTAL EVIDENCE

San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 27.—The state continues to introduce rebuttal testimony today in the trial of Harry J. Spanel, charged with the murder of his wife and Major M. C. Butler. Mrs. Pat Murphy of Alpine, state witness, under cross examination by the defense, refuted the testimony of R. N. Pittman, star witness for the state who declared last yesterday that he saw Spanel shoot both his wife and Butler.

Would Limit Placing Measure On Ballot

A moon five feet in diameter will shed its soft rays on the dancers who attend the dance to be given at the armory the evening of February 14. The dance will be a St. Valentine dance and will be given for charitable purposes by the Auxiliary of the Spanish War veterans. The moon will be of a home made variety and the ladies in charge feel confident the moon dance will be so popular that the program will include several when the only light will be the light of the moon. The executive committee of the Oregon Threshermen's association in session yesterday, decided to hold a plowing contest this spring although the time and place was not determined. This was placed in the hands of committee composed of Hike Ohling, of Albany; A. H. Axerill, of Portland, and H. C. Waters, of Portland. In a short address Governor Withycombe mentioned the threshermen in regard to contracting for heavy rentals for wheat land as the war might close and the price of wheat drop. He favored diversity of farming. About 75 members of the committee from all parts of the state were present and the meeting was presided over by the president, I. Kauffman, of Hubbard.

SUFFRAGETTES WILL DANCE

Washington, Jan. 27.—With the hesitation barred, no one but strictly progressive dances on the program, the Congression Union's near-militant white house pickets tonight will step off their hot bricks, designed to keep tender feet from the cold white house pavement, into dancing pumps. The dance will celebrate the end of a perfect second week of suffrage picketing.

CITY NEWS

meeting of farmers and discovered that if such a meeting was to be held, he would have to hold it all by himself. In the January 20 issue of the Orange Judd Northwest Farmstead, Mr. Sather read on the first page of the magazine the announcement that a mass meeting would be held on Saturday, January 27, at the county seat of all counties and that the object of the meetings was to focus public attention on public farm loan bonds and other matters of interest to the farmers. The call for the meetings was sent out by the American Farm Finance League. There is no experimenting on your eyes. I am able to refer you to over 36,000 people whose eye troubles I have corrected since I have been in Salem. Among these are over 1100 children. The most of them from Marion and Polk counties. A good many of them come from the valley. Some from as far south as Ashland. I do not use drugs or drops of any kind as they are dangerous. I fit your eyes on scientific principles. At a very reasonable price and guarantee satisfaction. Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn, 209, 210, 211 U. S. Bank bldg.

Bandit Whipped Recaptures Train, Citizens Flee As Pershing Leaves

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 27.—In a two days battle at La Junta in Western Chihuahua Villa was severely defeated, two hundred of his followers killed and his trains captured by government forces two days ago, according to information reaching the border today. Yesterday Villa rallied his men and recaptured the trains. Before the fight Inez Salazar, Villa's chief lieutenant, split with the bandit leader and left, taking 1,500 men to the mountains, it was reported here. After recapturing the trains, Villa marched northward, vowing to massacre all Mexicans and natives who aided or worked for General Pershing's American expedition. Four hundred residents of the Colonia Dublin district, are fleeing to the border today as General Pershing prepared to evacuate his field base. Forty wagons loaded with refugees started overland toward Columbus, N. M.

Pershing Moving Out

Juanes, Mex., Jan. 27.—At daybreak today a general evacuation of General Pershing's headquarters and base at Colonia, Dublin, began, messages from the Carranza commander at Casas Grandes stated. The evacuation of Colonia Dublin will be in progress for several days from indications, the troops moving leisurely northward to the next camp. The next base of the American expedition is expected to be established at Ojo Fedeico. Cowboys Still Fighting. Nogales, Ariz., Jan. 27.—The fighting between Mexicans and American cowboys, the latter later reinforced by Utah cavalry, continued today, according to advices at headquarters here. Reinforcements were sent from here today to the scene of the trouble and the officer in command will make an investigation. Despite several conflicting stories, headquarters here declares it has no further particulars regarding the matter.

KILLED IN SNOW SLIDES

Juneau, Alaska, Jan. 27.—Search continued today for the body of Maurio Rasmussen, who, together with Benjamin Crote, linemen, were killed in one of the three monstrous snowslides occurring in the mountains surrounding this city and creating thousands of dollars worth of property damage late yesterday.

VILLA'S LIEUTENANT AND 1,500 MEN QUIT

Before the fight Inez Salazar, Villa's chief lieutenant, split with the bandit leader and left, taking 1,500 men to the mountains, it was reported here.
