

NEW TODAY

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

Rate per word—New Today: Each insertion, per word 1c One week (6 insertions) per word 5c One month (26 insertions) per word 17c

FOR RENT SIGNS—For sale at Capital Journal office.

WANTED—Roof and stock cattle. Phone 1156W. 2-20

3 2-ROOM—Apartments, bath, lights, and telephone. 491 N. Cottage. 2-23

WILL SELL—22 head 3 and 4 year old mules, Dwight Misner. 2-23

HAVE YOU WOOD SAWING?—Call phone 7. 2-23

WANTED—2 men to build fence. Phone 994. 2-8

GOOD—Reliable man wants work on farm. 26 care Journal. 2-9

GET PRICES—On farm sale bills at The Journal office.

TRESPASS—Notices for sale at Journal office.

SIX CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS—$5.00. Dr. May. Phone 572. 2-11

HARRY—Window cleaner. Phone 1391J. 2-18

JONES' NURSERY—State and 24th. 2-18

FOR RENT—8 acres good land. Inquire M. Miller, 267 S. Com'l St. 2-10

FOR RENT—Modern 5 room house, $7.00. Phone 944M. 2-10

LOST—Gray fur collar piece. Return to Journal office. Reward. 2-10

HEMSTITCHING—Room 10, McCormack bldg. C. A. Admitt. 3-1

HORSE FOR SALE—Cheap. 999 Trade St. 2-10

DRY FIR—Ash and maple old fir for sale. F. E. Wells, 2501J2. 2-9

FOR RENT—35 acre farm near Salem, 10 acres prunes, buildings. Call Leonard hotel. 2-10

WANTED—Good shipping potatoes, in car lots or less. Salem Fruit Co., 267 S. Com'l St. 2-22

FOR SALE—Cheap, mare 1200 lbs., also single farm wagon and harness. 156 N. Front St. 2-12

FOR SALE—Cream separator, practically new. Mrs. Lou Porter, R. 5, box 125. 2-9

WANTED—A few fresh cows or will be fresh soon, heavy milkers. Phone 483. 2-12

62-ACRE FARM—One mile southwest of Gervais for sale or trade for city property. See G. W. Johnson. 2-9

WANTED—4 men to cut hard wood logs at $1.50 per thousand. Phone 692, E. A. Way. 2-11

WANTED—To buy old oak timber for logs. Phone or write E. A. Way, Salem, Ore. 2-11

FOR SALE—1st class dry second growth. Call Richardson's grocery. Phone 494. 2-10

FOR SALE—Salem Garage, 660 N. Capitol (Pacific Highway) Phone 1010. 2-15

GET YOUR—Trespass notices, new copy of cloth ones at Capital Journal. 2-11

FIR SALE—Baldwin and Northern Spy apples, 35c, 50c and 75c per box. Phone 101F12. 2-12

FOR SALE—Or trade team of horses, or will sell singly; also disc. Route 1, box 4, Turner. 2-9

LOST—Yellow kitten, brown stripes and brown eyes. Reward for return. 1465 State. 2-10

FOR SALE—Scotch Collie pup, half grown, partly trained, goes to heels. Phone 2501J4. 2-10

FOR SALE—Cheap, 1 team, weight 2400 lbs., in good condition. 1810 N. Commercial. 2-9

FOR SALE—At about 1/2 price new 2 1/2 H. P. gas engine, standard make. Address B 46, Salem. 2-11

CARE OF—Children or domestic work, experienced. Phone Mrs. Philes, 2419. 3-6

FOR SALE—At about 1/2 price, new 1/2 H. P. gas engine, standard make. Address box 46, Salem. 2-11

4 ROOM COTTAGE—For rent at 2285 N. Front St. A large garden plot, electric lights. Ward K. Richardson, 2895 Front St. 2-12

DAY OLD CHICKS—Pure strain S. C. White Leghorn 10 cents each, safe delivery guaranteed. E. J. Miller, Turner, R. 2. 2-9

WANTED—Refined lady not less than 25 years of age for house work in small family in country, must be first class cook and good companion. Work in light. Phone 18F13. 2-9

POTATOES WANTED—Don't forget we are always in the market for potatoes in small lots or car lots at the highest cash price. Phone 717, Manig's Bros. 2-10

TO TRADE—Town property valued at $5000.00 for ranch with ten to fifteen acres in prunes. Value must be about the same. See R. H. Mills at Spaulding Logging Co. office, or W. L. Spaulding, Bank of Commerce bldg. 2-9

CITY NEWS

(Continued from page eight.)

Lawrence T. Harris of the supreme court, who will speak on "The History of Our Flag;" Gus C. Moser, president of the state senate, who will speak on "Lincoln and Our Flag;" and William Wallace Youngson of Portland, who will speak on "The American Spirit."

Mr. Youngson is grand prelate of the grand encampment, Knights Templars of America. Every Mason in the city is invited to attend the ceremonies.

Fred Endicott, who has been searched for on a charge of non-support, has been found in Spokane and H. T. Allison was deputized to go and bring him back.

Proposals Invited—The undersigned will receive sealed proposals up to 5 o'clock p. m. Monday, February 19th, for the purchase of 5000 yards, more or less of No. 3 crushed gravel to be delivered as required, F. O. B. Salem, Oregon. Also approximately 3 car loads of steam coal, F. O. B. Salem, Oregon, to be delivered in car lots or required.

Public and Informal—The bill given by the Cherrians complimentary to the legislature at the armory tonight for the public generally and is not restricted to Cherrians. It will be an informal affair.

The Oregon clover seed is preferred to that raised in the far east by the commission men in Illinois and Indiana. This morning D. A. White & Sons shipped a carload to Chicago, with a value of about $5,000.

Bids Wanted—Sealed bids will be received by the county court of Marion county, Oregon, until 2 o'clock p. m. Saturday Feb. 10, 1917, for grading down a ferry landing near the foot of Chenocka St. See the county roadmaster for requirements. U. G. Boyer, county clerk.

The Sons of Veterans will give an entertainment Monday evening at the Elks' lodge a an observance of Lincoln's birthday. A special invitation has been extended to all the patriotic organizations of the city.

To members of Sedgwick Post, G. A. R. You, together with all civil war and other veterans of Salem and vicinity, are invited by the Rev. James E. Vin, pastor of the Congregational church, to attend services at his church on Sunday February 11, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, in observance of Lincoln's birthday day. Let there be a generous turn out upon this occasion. W. C. Faulkner, commander, D. Webster adjutant.

Bessie East, who refused to testify before the district attorney in connection with recent liquor raids was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Webster yesterday evening, and pled not guilty. The date of her trial has not been set.

A telegram was received this morning by Judge Bingham from Mary F. Buck, of Los Angeles, announcing the death of Mrs. Alpha Miller in that city, Tuesday, February 6. She was the daughter of Dr. L. A. Port, an old time resident of Salem.

Roseburg and vicinity is now in competition with the country of Norway when it comes to the growing of broccoli and since it is becoming difficult to ship from Norway, the broccoli business around Roseburg is assuming large proportions. This is the Spaulding Logging company's shipping 80,000 crates to Roseburg for the shipment of broccoli, this being more than double the amount used last year. The crop will require about 200 cars for shipment, the greater part going direct to Chicago. Roseburg claims to be the broccoli center of the country, but those who know say it can be raised profitably around Salem, especially by the crop is ready for shipment about 30 days later than Roseburg, supplying the market demand after the Roseburg crop has been shipped.

Besides the movies, there will be plenty of entertainment in town tonight. The Oregon State Penitentiary will give its second annual minstrel this evening beginning at 8 o'clock. Then those interested in music will find the opera "Eranni" given tonight at the public library by Victrola records worth while, especially as Prof. F. S. Churchill has loaned a complete record of the opera. But the attraction of the largest number will be the Cherrian dance at the armory given especially for the legislators, who will be the guests of honor. Those who do not dance will find it worth while to look on from the balcony.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hodges have arrived from Mission City, Iowa, and will make their home in Salem. They were residents of this city about five years ago and after trying the Iowa climate came to the conclusion that the Willamette valley was about right after all. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reidle accompanied them and will make their home here. Mrs. Reidle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hodges.

The disease known as cylindrosporium or leaf spot of the prune tree is becoming a menace to the prune industry of the valley and experiments to learn the best means of fighting the disease have been carried on by the extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college. Prof. H. P. Barass of the horticultural department of the O. A. C., will address a meeting of the officers of the Willamette Valley Prune association and others interested Saturday afternoon at the office of H. S. Gile & Co., beginning at 1:30 o'clock. He will discuss the proper treatment for leaf spot and tell of the experiments now being carried on.

OREGON TROOPS WAITING

San Francisco, Feb. 9.—All the Oregon and Washington troops still at Calexico, Cal., will probably leave there for home tomorrow, according to information obtained by the United Press today at the headquarters of the western division of the army here.

These troops are merely waiting for the completion or arrangements for railway coaches. It was stated that the necessary cars are leaving Los Angeles today and will probably get to Calexico tonight.

The fire department responded to a call turned in this morning to fight a chimney fire, at a house on the corner of Center and Cottage. The call was turned in at 11:15. There was no damage.

Members of the Salem Rifle club who are competing in the national inter-club gallery competition for the season of 1917 are making better scores, as the record of Wednesday evening showed an average of 186, several points higher than the record of the first shoot.

Three barrels of the beer taken from the Southern Pacific freight depot was destroyed last evening by Constable Varney. It was taken to the city dump and each bottle broken. There is now in the possession of the constable in Justice Webster's office one barrel of beer and seven cases of beer taken in previous raids.

George E. Hatch, the veteran mail carrier, is reported to be seriously ill at his home, 436 North Front street. For the past six weeks he has been unable to attend to his regular duty as mail collector. He is just finishing out his 30th year's service with the postoffice department