San Francisco, Feb. 15 .- San Franisco's underworld today accepted de feat quietly.

Hysteria and excitement which came with the closing of the "Barbary 'oast" has passed and one of the world's most notorious vice spots towas as quiet as the morgoe underworld women have dropped quietly from sight. Not one took advantage of the offer of financial aid and other assistance which social workers made. Rev. Paul Smith, whose vice rusade sounded the death knell of the 'Barbary Coast.' said today that not only did the women decline to seek aid but they had laughed at social workers who offered such aid. 'Fin Juana and the border will get sany of them, it is said.
