SOCIETY

By ALINE THOMPSON

Mrs. John J. Roberts and small daughters, Helen and Mildred, will leave tonight for Palo Alto, California. They will remain in the south for about two months going later to Paso Robles.

During their sojourn in California little Miss Helen Roberts will attend a private school in Palo Alto.

Much to the delight of Mrs. Roberts, her friend, Mrs. Percy Young of Albany is in Palo Alto visiting her daughter, Miss Isobel Young, who is attending Stanford University, and will probably be there all during her stay.

Mrs. Charles L. McNary presided over a charming luncheon today, her guests being about a dozen prominent matrons who are members of the hostesses club.

Luncheon was followed by an afternoon over the bridge tables.

Mrs. Clifford Brown went to Portland today for a few days visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bretherton.

Mrs. S. A. Richardson, who has been visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Richardson, since Christmas time, expects to leave tomorrow for her home in Ellsworth, Washington.

Mrs. E. E. Waters will be hostess tomorrow for a bridge in honor of Mrs. Harvey Wells of Portland who came Tuesday to join Mr. Wells for several days.

A number of matrons have been asked to greet Mrs. Wells, the greater part of whom are old friends.

Laurence Hofer returned last night from a few days visit in Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gouley entertained several days ago with a charming dinner party in honor of Mrs. Gouley's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Williamson of Portland.

Their guests included a group of married friends and also several little playmates of Master Homer Gouley, Jr. who gathered to celebrate the fourth anniversary of his birthday.

An artistic array of yellow tulips and candles decked the table arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Gouley's guests, while decorations suggestive of Lincoln's birthday and a lovely cake adorned the table placed in the breakfast room for the little folks.

The guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Williamson and two children, Walter and Josephine of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. David W. Eyre and David and Revena Eyre, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Myers and children, Deryl and Maxine, Mr. and Mrs. William Belle and little Dorothy Belle and Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Gouley and daughter, Katherine Gouley.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred W. Vincent of Pendleton are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murphy for a few days.

A formal reception will be given on Saturday night by the faculty of the Willamette University for the students at Eaton hall.

The affair which is an annual event will call forth a large throng of college folk.

Mrs. L. K. Page was hostess Tuesday night when she entertained the members of the E. O. T. club and a few guests with an informal "500" party at her residence on Cottage street.

The decorations were suggestive of St. Valentine's day and the card favors which were pretty heart shaped boxes of candy were won by Mrs. E. M. Hoffmann, F. G. Bowersox, E. M. Hoffmann and Mrs. Mary Hofer.

his will, and despite urgent requests for permission to leave. Germany is now similarly treating American consuls. None have reached Berne since the arrival of the embassy train, although the American legation at Berne was advised from the Spanish embassy in Berlin that American had expressed a desire to leave. Germany's hostility toward America is not new.

Women Are Searched. Weeks ago Ambassador Gerard vigorously complained to the foreign office that the Germans were searching the wives of American consuls at the border. At Warnemunde alone, the wives of three prominent officials were lately stripped, bathed and examined internally because they were suspected of carrying documents.

Because the military is supreme, and because it has adopted this general attitude, the foreign office is powerless. American officials who have been in Berlin hold Foreign Secretary Alfred Zimmermann responsible for many of the anti-American plans. At the foreign office immediately after America broke relations with Germany, Zimmermann, in talking confidentially to newspaper correspondents, showed a bitter and nervous attitude against President Wilson and America, surprising all present.

It was then that he declared Germany would not stop in her course and was determined to go ahead and win the war with her submarines.

Zimmerman Changes Attitude. Two days before Gerard left Berlin I met Zimmermann, then leaving the office of the imperial chancellor. His attitude was changed. He said, "Ackerman, I hope when you arrive in America, you will work for peace."

ANTI-AMERICAN PROPAGANDA ASSISTED BY PRESS CENSORSHIP By Carl W. Ackerman, (United Press Staff Correspondent.) (With Ambassador Gerard.) Berne, via Paris, Feb. 15.—Germany's censorship cut an important "joker" out of the text of the treaty which German officials demanded that American Ambassador Gerard sign, under threat to hold American newspaper correspondents as hostages.

That "joker" does not show in Berlin dispatches outlining the treaty, as published in French newspapers here. It was: "That German ships in American harbors should not be forced to leave unless safe conduct from Germany's enemies which would permit them to return to Germany or to a neutral port."

Anti-American Propaganda. The same strict German censorship which has concealed real developments in the empire and left untold active anti-American propaganda therein, did not permit an intimation of this "joker" to slip out of the country. It was after reading this stipulation that Ambassador Gerard, as has been related in previous United Press dispatches from Berne, told Count Montgelas, for transmission to Foreign Secretary Zimmermann, that he would not even consider the matter—and that he would "remain in Berlin until King-dom come" if Germany carried out her threat to hold Americans as hostages. Exclusion of this provision from the text of the treaty is another example of the strictness of the German censorship which for months has refused to pass real developments to America. Some of these developments have included: Anti-American speeches in the Reichstag.

Anti-Wilson and anti-Gerard propaganda, financed by prominent German leaders. Fiery attacks by Stresemann and Von Heydebrand on the president. Frequent statements of army and navy officials that the United States "might as well enter the war, because the nation was unneutral."

Say Americans Excitable. The foreign office attitude just before we left Berlin was that Americans were very "excitable" and if Germany could control all dispatches for a few days, Americans "would forget all about the submarine blockade and bring pressure on President Wilson to remain neutral."

Before Ambassador Gerard and Secretary Joseph C. Grew left Berlin, German officials requested them not to allow newspapermen accompanying the embassy staff to telegraph regarding Berlin developments, except news which the Berlin censor might approve.

Cartoons in the German illustrated papers daily picture President Wilson selling munitions to the allies over the counter of a country store—and taking orders from John Bull. There are many variations of this theme.

Munitions Output Doubled. Since Field Marshal Von Hindenburg has been in command, the output of munitions in Germany has been doubled. Every possible human being is working on war supplies for the western front.

Hindenburg's dream of a separate peace with Russia is dwindling. But Germany is united in the expected great offensive this year. Officials say it is the last chance to win or lose; when it is over the socialist peace leaders will again force themselves forward.

Wilson Misrepresented. Special envoys have advised Germany that President Wilson "represents financial and munitions interests" and that congress, on the other hand, representing the people, will not support war.

The German people believe President Wilson pro-ally. The German press departments—that is the propaganda agencies—have, for months, centered efforts on convincing America that war is terrible. The battle." Moore, replying to Gardner, repeated assertions made previously that the United States ought to keep out of the war and said: "Germany is no worse than Great Britain." He said he probably would introduce a resolution for investigation of charges by other representatives that newspapers are controlled by British interests.

Shipping Man Protests. New York, Feb. 15.—"If the captain and crew of the schooner Lyman M. Law, all of them Americans from a long line of American seafaring men, have no protection, who the hell has?" demanded George W. S. Green, of the Maritime Transportation company, owners of the schooner, today.

The Lyman M. Law was sunk Tuesday by an Austria submarine in the Mediterranean sea.

"The owners, captain and crew of that vessel are all Americans," Green said.

A formal statement given out by Green declared the owners have called Captain McDonough for further details of the sinking, to discover whether she was sunk without warning and have consulted attorneys to determine whether there is basis for civil action.

Green repeated the assertion that the schooner was loaded only with shoos for making lemon boxes and that a representative of the company watched the loading to make sure no contraband would be taken aboard.

Green repeated the assertion that the schooner already was in the Mediterranean when the German submarine order was published to the world. She had no wireless, he said, and could not have known of the decree.

The Lyman M. Law, he said, recently was completely overhauled at a cost of $20,000.

The facts of the sinking will be presented to the state department at Washington in a statement by the company.

British Steamer Sunk. Washington, Feb. 15.—The British her crew, including one American, saved after suffering great hardships, according to a message from Ambassador Page to the state department today.

The message said: "British sailing ship Ainsdale, Buenos Aires, November 5, for England, stopped by submarine 180 miles from Cape Clear February 5; crew of 25 ordered to boats; ship sunk. Crew rescued after suffering 10 hours great hardships. One American in crew.

theory is that Americans are cowards and will back out of a war. The average German thinks American international policies are "bluff" and was immeasurably delighted over refusal of neutral nations to join with President Wilson in breaking relations with Germany.

Had Terrible Pains in Kidneys and Back.

Dear Mr. Editor—I want to write you about "Anurie." I was very sick, could hardly be up; I was in bed most of the time. Had terrible pains in my kidneys and back, so much so that I had to scream sometimes when I was sitting down and wanted to get up, the pain was so great. I had tried a well-known kidney medicine but it didn't help me. I heard of Dr. Pierce's Anurie Tablets so I thought I would try them. I took only one box of the Tablets, and my back is now free from pain and I can work and take care of my family. I feel I cannot say enough for this medicine. Sincerely, Mrs. Wm. Kellen.

NOTE: This "Anurie" is adapted especially for kidney complaints and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine and urinary troubles. The physicians and specialists at Dr. Pierce's great Institution, at Buffalo, N. Y., have thoroughly tested this prescription and have been with one accord successful in eradicating these troubles, and in most cases absolutely curing the diseased kidneys.

Patients having once used "Anurie" at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, have repeatedly sent back for more. Such a demand has been created that Dr. Pierce has decided to put "Anurie" in the drug stores of this country, in a ready-to-use form. If not obtainable send one dime by mail to Dr. Pierce for trial package or 50 cents for full treatment.
