

SOCIETY and CLUBS

By ALINE THOMPSON

With the advent of Ash Wednesday, the first day of the long penitential season, arriving this week, social affairs will be laid on the shelf for several weeks to come.

Although the Lenten period is not regarded with as much sacrifice as in olden days by society, large and formal functions will be taboo and everything willavor of informality until after Easter.

Society however will not suffer greatly from ennui as there undoubtedly will be diversions aplenty.

George Washington's birthday was the all sufficient excuse for frivolity during the past week and Thursday especially was replete with Colonial teas and other patriotic celebrations to honor the "Father of our country."

A few of the affairs enlivening the past week were: the informal dinner for which Mrs. and Mrs. Frank H. Spears were hosts to honor their house guest, Miss Annette Linné of Seattle; the delightful Kensington given on Tuesday by Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. Charles L. Dick and Mrs. Robert E. Downing; the informal theatre and supper party for which the Chauncey Bishops were hosts Tuesday night in celebration of their wedding anniversary; Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr., informal dinner, also on the occasion of their wedding day, Wednesday; the Colonial tea for which Mrs. Henry W. Meyers was hostess for the D. A. H. Thursday and the luncheon for which Mrs. Harry H. Olinger was hostess Friday, to honor Mrs. Jesse Evans Flanders of Portland.

Mrs. Henry W. Meyers' Colonial tea on Thursday afternoon for the Daughters of the American Revolution and eligible members, was one of the smartest and most delightful patriotic events of the week.

Quantities of brilliant Oregon grape and flags decked the drawing room, where the hostess and Mrs. James A. Heltnel, regent and Mrs. S. C. Dyer, past regent of Chemeketa chapter of D. A. H., received the guests.

Over thirty matrons and maids called during the tea hours.

In the dining room the exquisitely appointed tea table was decked with a huge crystal basket of yellow jonquils and narcissus combined with tall spikes of pussy willow, surrounded by crystal candlesticks containing yellow candles.

Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen presided over the affair and was assisted by Mrs. Frank H. Spears, Mrs. George M. Post, Mrs. William Connell Dyer and Miss Ellen Thielsen.

A charming event of the early week was the delightful Kensington for which Mrs. Charles L. Dick, Mrs. Robert E. Downing and Mrs. Edgar Hartley were hostesses at the Hartley residence on Tuesday afternoon.

The rooms were charming with fragrant blossoms in an artistic array of coloring, and the guests included over 50 matrons of society, a number of whom were members of the hostesses' Kensington club.

Assisting the hostesses were Miss Hazel Downing and Miss Pauline Dick.

Those asked to share in the pleasures of the afternoon were: Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen, Mrs. James Withycombe, Mrs. E. S. Wallace, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. George G. Bingham, Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. Charles H. Fisher, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, Mrs. Russell Catin, Mrs. George H. Burnett, Mrs. John H. Craig, Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, Mrs. Sherman W. Thompson, Mrs. E. E. Waters, Mrs. William H. Boat, Mrs. H. J. Schulerman, Mrs. Zedee J. Riggs, Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, Mrs. Edward S. Tillinghast, Mrs. T. K. Ford, Mrs. Hal D. Patton, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, Mrs. E. L. Small Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. Burton E. Carrier, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Mrs. P. A. Elliott, Mrs. T. H. Galloway, Mrs. W. A. Cusick, Mrs. Fred A. Legg, Mrs. Carey F. Martin, Mrs. Charles A. Murphy, Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mrs. William E. Kirk, Mrs. Irwin Griffith, Mrs. M. C. Findley, Mrs. Ray L. Farmer, Mrs. H. J. Clements, Mrs. E. P. Carleton, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. W. G. Allen, Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Douglas C. Minto, Mrs. W. S. Mott, Mrs. A. T. Wain, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. J. L. Stockton, Mrs. Carrie J. Talington, Mrs. Cora Talkington, Mrs. Fred Steinloff, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. Roy Burton and Mrs. William Steusloff.

Mrs. W. P. Lord who with her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Lord, has been passing the winter in Cebu, Philippine Islands, as the guest of her son, Montague Lord, writes friends that they are planning to return home in July. This bit of news is the cause of much rejoicing among their many friends; for although their plans were indefinite upon their departure they rather expected to be gone for a year or more.

Mrs. Lord and Miss Lord recently have left Cebu and are now enjoying a delightful sojourn in the Bagio mountains. They will linger there for a few weeks before going to Manila where they will probably remain for some time.

Soon after their arrival in Salem Mrs. Lord and Miss Lord will go to Seal Rocks where they will pass the summer at their beach cottage.

In celebration of the tenth anniversary of their wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop entertained a small group of friends informally Tuesday night with a theatre party followed by a delightful supper at their home.

It being the Bishops' ten anniversary the table decorations and appointments were all suggestive of the occasion and were unusually artistic. A huge pan of fragrant violets and lace ferns was centered with a large funnel filled with exquisite pink roses, freesia and violets, around which hung tiny bunnies containing bouquets of similar blossoms for each of the girls. Place cards tied with pink satin ribbons marked covers for the girls and extended to the centerpiece where lovely colored handkerchiefs were hidden among the flowers. In one little "hanky" there was a tiny card telling the guest that she had captured a favor, which was an adorable silver and pink enamel vase.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop's guests were for the most part the members of their wedding party and included: Mr. and Mrs. Frederic D. Thielsen, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. Jesse Evans Flanders of Portland, Miss Aline Thompson, John J. Roberts and Carl Gabrielson.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell who have been the house guests of Mrs. Powell's parents, Judge and Mrs. George G. Bingham, for a few days, returned to their home in Lafayette yesterday, accompanied by Miss Hazel Downing, who will be their guest over the week end.

Much regret will be felt over the departure in the near future of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds (Frances Adams) who are leaving Salem to make their home in Silverton.

Mr. Reynolds senior has been in very poor health of late and young Mr. Reynolds will take care of his father's business which is the reason for their leaving Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds were a delightful acquisition to the younger married set and will be greatly missed by their many friends.

Miss Annette Linné, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Frank H. Spears for a few weeks, left today for her home in Seattle. Miss Linné was the motif for several charming affairs during her visit, not the least delightful of which was the informal dinner for which the Spears were hosts in her honor Monday night.

Greens and yellow daffodils adorned the prettily appointed table around which covers were placed for Miss Linné, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gill, Miss Veda Cross, Miss Ellen Thielsen, Dr. Fred W. Byrd, Roy Barth, James Young and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weller who are enjoying a delightful sojourn in California have left San Diego, and are now in Los Angeles, with Mrs. Weller's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Shultz (Julia Chamberlain) of Portland who are also passing the winter in the south.

They are devoting much of their time to motorizing and will pass the remainder of their stay wherever their fancy leads them among the balmy southern resorts.

The Wellers were recently joined in Los Angeles for the day by Mrs. M. E. Chapman and her daughter, Miss Oida Chapman, and Mrs. M. E. Breyman who with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Frank S. Snedcor, of Birmingham, Alabama, have been in the southland since early in the winter.

Honoring Mrs. Jesse Evans Flanders of Portland, who is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. L. P. Griffith, Mrs. Harry H. Olinger was hostess Friday for a charming luncheon.

The affair was very small and informal, the guests being a few old friends of the honor guest. An array of lovely rose pink blossoms and greenery adorned the prettily appointed table. Luncheon was followed by an afternoon over the bridge tables.

Mrs. Olinger's guests included: Mrs. William H. Dancy, Mrs. Milton I. Meyers, Mrs. L. P. Griffith, Mrs. Oliver C. Locke, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker and Mrs. George G. Brown.

Mrs. Milton I. Meyers entertained a group of matrons informally on Tuesday with a matinee party at Ye Liberty theatre. Later the guests gathered at the Spears for a delightful lunch.

Mrs. Meyers asked as her guests: Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. John D. Sutherland, Mrs. Geo. H. Burnett, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Mrs. Sherman W. Thompson, Mrs. Geo. G. Brown, Mrs. Eugenia Gillingham, Mrs. A. J. Rahn, Mrs. G. Steiner, Mrs. D. W. Mathews and Mrs. P. E. Shafter.

Mrs. John Griffith entertained informally on Wednesday with a bridge, her guests being a small group of matrons who are members of the Happy Hour bridge club.

Guests made up four tables of the same, card honor falling to Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding.

Mrs. Griffith was assisted by Mrs. Joseph H. Albert.

Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer Putnam will leave tomorrow night for Bend, Oregon. They will be away for about a week.

The Putnams formerly lived in Bend and have many friends there who will undoubtedly make their visit delightful by many little attentions.

Mrs. George L. Rose asked a small group of matrons to her home for an informal afternoon over the bridge tables on Thursday. Her guests who were the members of the Thursday club, made up four tables of bridge, the card honors falling to Mrs. Edwin L. Baker.

Assisting Mrs. Rose were Mrs. George F. Rodgers and Mrs. James A. Wilson.

Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson has gone to Portland for a few days visit. She went the middle of the week and was one of the hostesses at the Daughters of the American Revolution reception which was given on Washington's birthday at Alexandra Court and was one of the most delightful and notable of the days' celebrations in Portland.

Miss Ida Simmons has gone to Portland where she will be the guest of friends and relatives. She will visit in Portland over the week end.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Roma Hunter will be hosts for an informal dinner, the affair being in honor of the anniversary of Mr. Hunter's birthday. Their guests will number 8.

Following a custom of many years Mr. and Mrs. Hunter will have with them for the day Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones and children, Allan Jones and the Misses Ruth and Florence Jones.

A group of the married folk including Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. W. Al Jones, Mrs. L. P. Griffith, Mrs. William H. Dancy, and Mrs. James A. Wilson have gone to Portland to be guests at the theatre party for which Miss Mabel Creighton will be hostess tonight at the Heilig theatre.

Miss Creighton's guests will number 22 and later the party will join the merry-makers for the supper dance at the Hotel Bonson.

Mrs. Dancy who will be the house guest of her sister, Miss Creighton, will remain in Portland for several days, the others returning Sunday night.

Mrs. Clifford Brown returned Wednesday from Portland, where she has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bretherton, for a few days.

An informal dinner party was presided over Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Graham, who entertained a group of the younger married set at their apartments in The Court.

Covers for nine were placed around a table prettily appointed.

Mrs. Ansel Bush will leave next Saturday night for California where she will join the senior Bushs, who with the former's small son, Ansel Jr., are now sojourning in Paso Robles.

The Bushs have their car with them and are having a delightful time motorizing to the various places of scenic interest.

Soon after Mrs. Ansel Bush's arrival they will tour Southern California, going as far south as San Diego, and Coronado Beach.

Mrs. Bush will be away for about three weeks, remaining south until the return of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bush.

Mrs. Rollin K. Page entertained on Tuesday afternoon with a few tables of bridge, her guests being the members of the Trio club.

Guests were asked to make up three tables of the game and the high score

CADMAN-TSIANIA CONCERT, MAR. 16

Address, Minnetta Magers, Moore building.

Over 40 members and friends of the Au Sait club, gathered at St. Joseph's hall on Tuesday night to participate in a "500" party.

The hall was appropriately decorated with flags suggestive of Washington's birthday and the guests all were clad in colonial costumes, which added to the merit of the evening.

Ten tables were arranged for "500" and the prizes were won by Mrs. E. A. Domingala and Thomas Vond. The consolations fell to Mrs. W. S. Page and Paul Zander.

After the card games refreshments closed the evening.

The members of the Round Dozen club enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Frank E. Mull at her suburban residence on the Pringle road Thursday afternoon.

During the afternoon one of the members read an interesting paper on the "Lumber and Mining Industries of Oregon." Later the afternoon was passed with a contest and sewing.

The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Miss Leone Davidson.

Mrs. John H. McNary will be hostess Friday for a bridge luncheon. Her guests will include a dozen prominent matrons who are members of the hostess' club.

Monday night, the P. E. O. Sisterhood and a few friends were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. George A. Wood.

The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Mary A. Long, Mrs. Lon A. Roy and Mrs. Gerald Volk.

One of the features of the evening was a Longfellow programme which had been arranged by Mrs. Carolyn Selee and Mrs. B. E. Bowers.

A contest, guessing the names of poems, from pictures also proved most interesting and a reading by Mrs. Merritt and a vocal solo by Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist added to the enjoyment of the evening.

At the home of Miss Laura Grant on Thursday evening, Chapter G of P. E. O. was inspected by the state organizer, Miss Josephine Seymour, of Forest Grove. During the evening Mrs. R. W. Walton was initiated as a member of the Sisterhood.

Mrs. Joseph Pennell entertained the Ladies Aid society at her hospitable home in West Salem on Thursday afternoon.

Although Mrs. Pennell is in poor health and unable to attend gatherings at the homes of her friends, she delights in entertaining and enjoys having her friends around her.

In honor of Washington's birthday, the rooms were appropriately decorated with flags and greenery.

The afternoon was devoted to tying a comfort, after which the hostess served tempting refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Edward Brock and Miss Beth Bedford.

Those present were: Mrs. Billings, Mrs. Brock, Mrs. D. K. Brannan, Mrs. J. B. Bedford, Mrs. Ed Becken, Mrs. W. W. Babes, Mrs. D. Cade, Mrs. Geo. Frazure, Mrs. Fennell, Mrs. R. A. Hunt, Mrs. J. W. Lee, Mrs. J. J. Miller, Mrs. L. A. Rex, Mrs. B. J. Tanton, Mrs. L. Thomas, Mrs. W. J. Watten, Mrs. M. Wurm, Mrs. M. A. White, Miss Beth Bedford, Miss Helen Rex, Miss Vera Becken and Frank Jarvis.

Friends and old students of the Capital Business College will gather at the Masonic Temple on next Friday to participate in the gayeties of an informal evening.

The students have been giving a series of those soirees this season and Friday's gathering will be no less delightful.

BELL-ANS Absolutely Removes Indigestion. One package proves it. 25c at all druggists.

Over 20 neighborhood friends of Captain and Mrs. A. J. Spang gathered at their country home at Spang Ferry several days ago to participate in the gayeties of an informal evening.

Dancing and cards furnished the evening's diversion, and the informality of the affair combined with the graciousness of the hosts made it most enjoyable. Several Salem friends also motored out for the festivity.

Salem music lovers will flock to the First Christian church on Tuesday night to attend the complimentary musicale to be given by Mrs. Halliday Haught of New York.

Mrs. Haught will be assisted by Mrs. Leonie Peterson, soprano; Mr. Henry B. Compton, tenor; Mr. Albert Gilie, baritone; Miss Bernice Clark, accompanist; Mrs. Vera Schapp Frickey, pianist and accompanist.

The programme for the evening includes:

Ave Maria.....Gnomod-Bach
(a) Nur, wer die Sehnsucht kennt..... Liszt
(b) Ich Liebe Dich.....Mildberg
'Gavotte.....Ambrose Thomas
Mignon
(c) Il Bacio (by request).....Arditi
Mrs. Halliday Haught
Piano, Hungarian Rhapsody No. 8..... Liszt
Mrs. Vera Schapp Frickey
'In Persian Garden', a song cycle, Soloists, Mrs. Leonie Peterson, soprano; Mrs. Halliday Haught, contralto; Henry V. Compton, tenor, and Albert Gilie, bass.
'Star Spangled Banner'..... Quartette
The feature of the programme "'In a Persian Garden'" is a setting to music of quatrains selected from "'The Rigaiyat'" of Omar Khayyam, the Persian poet, by Liza Lehmann, the English composer, and so well has she done it, with such characteristic tone color, edic and harmonic in voice and accompaniment, with such daring originality, yet with such beauty, that it stands to-day the most popular of all song cycles.

As this famous work has never been given in this city it is anticipated with much delight among musical folk.

Mrs. A. F. Marcus has as her house guest for the week end, Mrs. John Watt and daughter, Miss Lois Watt, and Miss Alice inchester of Portland. The visitors are here attending the convention.

Miss Watt who is a contralto soloist, will sing at the banquet to be given tonight at the Baptist church.

Tsianina (pronounced Chie-ne-an and translated Wild Flower) the young Indian mezzo soprano who is to be heard here soon at the Grand theatre, has been before the public less than three years, and has already taken a place in the concert field of America that many veteran artists might envy. Chosen by the famous composer, Charles Wakefield Cadman, to illustrate his "American Indian Music-Talk," she has appeared in most of the larger cities from New York to Los Angeles and from Jacksonville, Florida, to Duluth. She has been praised by the critics, feted by persons high in social and official life, painted by famous artists.
