SOCIETY

By ALICE THOMPSON

A small group of little girls gathered as the guests of Miss Dorothy Livesley, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley, Saturday afternoon to participate in the "movie party" which her grandmother, Mrs. G. W. Debeck of Vancouver, B. C., planned in honor of the anniversary of her birthday.

After the pictures the little folks returned to the Livesley home for a frolic and refreshments. The daintily appointed table was all done in pink with an array of pink tulips and a lovely birthday cake adorned with candles.

The little guests were: Janet Plimpton, Nancy Thielson, Margery and Louise McDougal, Rovenna Eyre and Alicia Hunt.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Clay went to Portland Sunday, accompanying Asahel Bush who motored down for the day.

Miss Gertrude Taylor who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harry Hawkins since Saturday returned today to her home in Albany.

Miss Vera Dilley, whose marriage to Lawrence G. Bolgin of North Carolina will take place Wednesday has been entertained with several pre-nuptial attentions. One of the affairs in honor of the bride-elect was a miscellaneous shower for which Miss Gertrude Taylor was the hostess.

Misner was hostess several days ago. Friday night Miss Dilley was again the honoree for a surprise kitchen shower given by Miss Laura Marr. The evening was delightfully rounded out with music and games.

Miss Beatrice Dilley assisted the hostess in the serving.

Those gathering for the evening were: Miss Dorothy Dick, Miss Marjorie Brown, Miss Greta Misner, Miss Evelyn Reigelman, Miss Laura Purvine, Miss Celia Wilson, Miss Maxine Buren, Miss Ester Bailey, Miss Gladys Pemberton, Miss Helen Hayne, Miss Florence Kumro, Miss Helen McInturff, Miss Selma Kumro, Miss Beatrice Dilley, Miss Lacey Leonard, Miss Gladys Harbert, Miss Bertha Bouch, Miss Elizabeth Leonard and Miss Ruth Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton had as their week end guest, Dr. T. L. Perkins of Portland.

Clarence Bishop of Pendleton passed the week end in Salem with his parents, the C. P. Bishops.

The Pringle and Pleasant Point social club was entertained several days ago at the home of Mrs. Roy V. Ohmart. The afternoon was spent informally and the roll call was responded to by data from the life of George Washington. Later music was enjoyed in a contest. Mrs. Ernest Clark and Mrs. L. W. Potter were awarded the prizes.

Assisting the hostess in serving the refreshments were Mrs. Ernest Clark and Mrs. J. M. Cohnburn.

The club members present were Mesdames C. C. Best, J. M. Cohnburn, L. W.

That the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs is taking a great interest in the promotion of art in Oregon is reported by the art chairman, Mrs. Alice Weister. The General Federation of Women's clubs is sending an exhibit of American paintings throughout the western states and the collection will be shown in various schools and communities of Oregon.

The list of pictures proved so interesting to Miss Anna B. Crocker and Miss Ina Dunlap of the art museum, that they expressed a wish to have them displayed in the art museum in Portland.

"There is no doubt but that Portland will have the pictures, but the city is rich in exhibits at the art museum," said Mrs. Weister. "So what seems particularly important to the department is that the smaller towns of the state will have this exhibit, and that the public school children will be given an opportunity to see in colors some of the great works of our country's artists."

The work of handling this exhibit and sending it from town to town will be in the hands of the newly organized art department of the State Federation of Women's clubs. It was for this purpose that Mrs. Weister organized an

FIFTEEN SEAMEN BELIEVED DROWNED

Coast Guard Boats Swamped While Trying to Help Others

Washington, March 5.—The death list of United States coast guard seamen who perished in a heavy sea while going to the rescue of a stranded steamer off Ocean City, Md., last night, was today believed to have reached fifteen, when additional reports to the coast guard told of the swamping of a second small boat.

The second boat, containing six men, was lowered from the coast guard cutter Yamacraw when a first boat containing nine men had been swamped just as it reached the towering sides of the Texas oil steamer Louisiana, laboring on Winter Quarter shoals.

Further dispatches this morning told of the safe beaching of a small dingy with four men. Coast guard officers, however, did not believe this boat was from the Yamacraw, as it bore a strange lettering.

But Little Hope Left

Norfolk, Va., March 5.—Small boats and dingies were today scouring the sea off Winter Quarter shoals, near here, for traces of the seamen of the coast guard cutter Yamacraw, who are believed to have perished when their lifeboat was swamped as they were fighting through a choppy sea to the rescue of the stranded Texas oil steamer Louisiana.

Small hope, however, was held out when at daybreak no trace of the missing men had been found. Hope is also dwindling that the Louisiana, now firmly fixed on the sea lashed shoals three miles northeast of Ocean City, Md., can be saved. The vessel has sprung serious leaks and her hold and engine rooms are filled. She ran ashore in a dense fog.

art department comprised of women from every federated club in the state.—Sunday Oregonian.

Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Eva Himes gave a children's party at her home, 608 North Liberty street, for her small son, Des Himes, on the occasion of his eighth birthday.

Fourteen little playmates were assembled for the celebration and the afternoon was merrily spent playing games. Later the party closed with a birthday collation.

Mrs. Himes was assisted in the serving by Mrs. William Powell and Mrs. Mae Estes.

The Pythian Sisters club will meet on Tuesday (tomorrow) afternoon at the Moose hall. The afternoon will be spent informally and refreshments will be served by the hostesses, Mesdames J. C. Perry, C. Lueker and H. G. Sellers. All members of the club are urged to be present.

Mrs. George T. Gerlinger who has been passing the winter in Portland, left there Saturday with her family for her home in Dallas.

President and Mrs. Wilson had been waiting in the great East room of the white house, when, at 11:52, Vice President and Mrs. Marshall the escorting delegation of senators and representatives, Colonel Robert N. Harper, chairman of the inaugural committee, arrived at the white house to form an official escort.

The official escort accompanied Wilson to his carriage and the procession left for the capitol.

Streets a Seething Crowd As the president, with Mrs. Wilson seated beside him, swung through the main gates, Second Cavalry buglers shrilled forth the presidential salute. Just before that, however, a slight hitch, unnoticed by the executive, occurred—the horses on a carriage behind the president, rearing and falling.

Back of the president swung into line the carriage bearing Vice President Marshall. The black horse troop of Culver Academy, Indiana, spirited and precise, escorted Marshall while behind came Chairman Harper's carriage and the "president's own cavalry" as escort.

Thousands swelled the cheers as the president and his escort swept majestically down the avenue past the court of honor and on to the capitol.

Thunderous applause and continuous cheering greeted the presidential party throughout the mile long trip to the capitol.

As the president arrived at the great legislative edifice the greatest cheer of all arose from the enormous crowds in the stands which stretched all the way across the front of the building.

Movie Men Busy The movie men—taken care of as never before in a special stand directly in front of where the president spoke—were a great source of amusement to the crowds as they waited.

Hurrah! How's This

Cincinnati authority says corns dry up and lift out with fingers.

Hospital records show that every time you cut a corn you invite lockjaw or blood poison, which is needless, says a Cincinnati authority, who tells you that a quartet of a drug called freestone can be obtained at little cost from the drug store but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus. You simply apply a few drops of freestone on a tender, aching corn and soreness is instantly relieved. Shortly the entire corn can be lifted out, root and all, without pain. This drug is sticky but dries at once and is claimed to just sweep up any corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. If your wife wears high heels she will be glad to know of this.
