The river this morning was just one foot higher than yesterday and is rising on account of the general rains in the valley. The gauge today is 1-4 feet above the low water mark. The range of temperature yesterday was from 46 to 33.

The Woodmen of the World are planning for a box social to be held at their lodge rooms in the Derby building on the evening of Friday, March 16. The dance given by the lodge last week was one of the most successful they have given this winter.

Salem boasts of the largest Rifle club in Oregon with a membership that makes it one of the largest west of the Rocky mountains. The membership now numbers 150. Tonight the regular weekly target shoot will be held in which all the members will have a chance to participate, regardless as to whether they are marksmen or just common shooters.

There are plenty of Elks and Moose in Salem, but there are no Eagles. Hence, to remedy this condition, A. W. Rediek, of Snohomish, Wash., is in the city to organize an Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. Mr. Rediek has recently assisted in the organization of the Eagles at Portland with a lodge membership not of about 600. There are 12 lodges in the state with active organizations at Albany, Eugene, Marshfield and The Dalles leading in number. Mr. Rediek is staying at the Bligh.

Newell W. Banks, the champion blindfolded chess and checker player will play in Portland Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week and the chances are that arrangements will be made for his appearance here on Thursday and Friday evenings. Those in charge of his second visit here announce that the public will be invited to see him play at the Commercial club and that the first playing of the evening will show Mr. Banks blindfolded, playing against 10 of Salem's experts.

There is something wrong with the clock in the court house tower. In fact ever since the legislature convened it has been inclined to do tricks and act otherwise crazy. This morning when it should have struck eight resounding whacks on the bell it only struck one. The other evening when it should have struck seven times it only struck once. Who can tell what is the matter with the clock? Does it need winding? Or has the county court forgotten to instruct the janitor to wind it once every eight days?

A little lad of uncertain age was picked up this afternoon on High street by County Clerk Boyer, who endeavored to help him find his home. But the boy did not know his name, or the name of his parents, or where he lived. So he was placed in the hands of the police, who left him with Mrs. McAlvin at 545 North Church street. He had a little push wagon and was running it about the streets. Up until late this afternoon the police had received no calls for a lost boy.

C. C. Robinson, of New York City, a member of the international Y. M. C. A. committee, whose specialty is boys' work, spoke yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. This morning he spoke before the students of the high school and at Waller chapel. This afternoon he conferred with the boys' work committee of the Y. M. C. A. consisting of Jos. H. Albrecht, chairman; C. E. Knowland, Glenn Niles, A. O. Davidson, George J. Watson and Harold Eakin. Tonight at the Y. M. C. A. he will deliver an address on vocational training to the employed boys of the Y. M. C. A.

The official flower for Salem will be selected at the meeting this evening of the Salem Floral society, to be held in the auditorium of the Commercial club. To assist in the selection, everyone is invited, whether they are members of the society or not. The Oregon grape is the state flower and now that Salem will soon be known as a city of flowers, it has been suggested that now is the time to select the official flower. Professor Peck, of the extension department of the University of Oregon, will deliver an address and there will be a general discussion as to what should be done this spring in the way of the planting of flowers in the parkings.

There will be more onions grown in the back yards in Salem this spring than ever before, according to those who are selling seeds. At least, so far the greatest call has been for onion seeds with potatoes running a close second. The seed men are anticipating a rush of business as soon as the garden season opens up as the chances are back yards and parkings will be utilized to the greatest extent. The opinion seems to be that when an average sized potato is retailed for 10 cents, it is about time to lay in a winter supply of potatoes by way of a garden tract. Last year was the greatest year ever known in the way of garden seed and the chances are the record will be broken again this year.

The down town sale of stamps seems to be increasing, as the substitution of the Crown Drug store reports stamp sales amounting to $1,053.65 for the month of February.

On account of the delays in shipments and general car shortage, the only way to get a Ford car is to line up and take them in regular order just as they arrive. The following happened to be in line when a car load arrived Saturday: H. C. Heffner, E. G. Patterson, B. J. Miles, O. B. Miles, Ben West, R. P. Kirby, W. G. Allen and Roy R. Wise, all of Salem.

George E. Baker, of Salem, formerly of Company M, has enlisted at the local recruiting station for service in the infantry. He left this afternoon for Vancouver for the usual three weeks' training before being assigned to his regiment. Married men are not barred from service in the U. S. army as orders have just been issued they will be accepted for enlistment in the quartermaster's corps.

A service of peculiar interest will be held at the First Baptist church tonight. At 6:15 the Woman's Home Missionary society will serve a supper following the regular meeting this afternoon. They will have as special guests of honor Dr. A. M. Petty of Portland, district secretary of the American Baptist Home Mission and Foreign Mission societies, and Dr. J. Y. Aitchison of Boston, home secretary of the Foreign Mission society. They will be speakers at a missionary conference which will follow the supper.

At seven thirty the gospel service will open with a song service led by the chorus choir under the direction of Mrs. Mabel Stevens Burton of Corvallis. Mrs. Burton reached Salem yesterday and at her first meeting with the choir showed her ability as a leader while her personality won for her at once the admiration of the members of the choir. The song services will be an attractive feature of the meetings to be held for two weeks. Dr. Aitchison

NO CHANGE IN CABINET
Washington, March 5.--President Wilson may send to the senate tomorrow the names of all his present cabinet members. No cabinet changes will be made at this time.

If this is decided on the cabinet names are expected to head the list of nominations which failed of action last session.

However, the cabinet matter was not completely decided upon just before the president took his inaugural oath. It was said he might change his plans and merely let his cabinet "run over" since it is not essential that they be formally appointed.

Raymond Axley, who was formerly employed in Ladd & Bush bank as a bookkeeper, and who is now with the auditing department of the Southern Pacific railway with headquarters in Portland, is in Salem for a few days on business connected with the railroad.

He is looking up records in the office of the public service commission. He says he is well pleased with the work and likes Portland, nevertheless he is glad to get back to Salem again and meet his old friends.

DIED

FRIZZELL--At his home 248 North Summer street, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, March 4, 1917, Jason Porter Frizzell, in his 69th year.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Lloyd T. Reynolds, and Mrs. Otto J. Hendrick and a young son, Ronald J. Frizzell.

The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the First Presbyterian church and will be conducted by the Rev. Carl H. Elliott. Burial will be in the City View cemetery. The services will be according to the rites of the Masonic lodge.

Friends of Jason Porter Frizzell, who would like to view the body, are requested to call at the home Tuesday morning between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock.

Mr. Frizzell was one of the best known pioneers in the city. He was born in Springfield, Mo., August 6, 1848, and came with his mother to Salem in December of 1852. On the overland journey his father, grandfather, uncle and aunt perished on the plains from the cholera epidemic of that year.

In the spring of 1853 his mother and her six children settled on a donated land claim in Polk county near McCoy.

In 1873 Mr. Frizzell married Miss Louisa Baskett at Rickenell, and settled on a farm near Perrydale where he lived until 1888 when with his wife and two daughters he moved to Salem. His wife died in 1888.

In 1892 he married Miss Alicia B. McFadden, who survives him. Mr. Frizzell was a member of the First Presbyterian church and held membership in Salem lodge, No. 4, A. F. & A. M., De Molay commandery, No. 5; Knights Templar and the Al Kader temple of the Mystic Shrine of Portland.

Willard Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hall, of 1277 South Commercial street, left yesterday for Middletown, Ohio. His parents expect to follow about the first of April. It is expected that Mr. Willard Hall will enter the employ of the National Cash Register company at Dayton, Ohio, later in the spring. While in Salem, he was popular in musical and dance circles and his many friends will regret to have him leave, although wishing him well in whatever community he may find himself in the future.

Clean, Fresh, Airy Rooms HOTEL LOUVRE (Formerly Hotel Keith) 459 State St. Phone 1109 Rooms 50c to $1.00 a Day Special Rates by the Week MRS. M. M. LAY, Proprietor

Yesterday at the First Christian church Rev. M. H. Fagan gave a masterly address on Calvary to a large and appreciative audience, in the morning, Mrs. Fagan sang "Bearing His Cross," with great effect. Over the Empty Grave," dealt largely with infidelity and unbelief in the divinity of Christ and showed forth that Christ was either the Son of God, as He claimed, or else He was an imposter. The house was crowded. Mrs. Fagan rendered the solo "Oh Ye of Little Faith." There were 13 additions during the day.
