COAST LINE RAILROAD MAY BE BUILT SOON

Hill - Strahorn Combination May Stir Southern Pacific to Action

San Francisco, Mar. 9.—A coast rail road line from San Francisco to Portland through Eureka may be the result of a Hill-Strahorn alliance, according to unofficial, but apparently well founded reports in San Francisco today.

The plan contemplates the use of the present Northwestern Pacific railroad from San Francisco to Eureka and an extension from Eureka to Marshfield to be built by the Southern Pacific. The traffic then would be carried over the present Southern Pacific line from Marshfield to Eugene, and thence to Portland.

According to the reports, Hill's principal part in the deal would be the extension of his present road from Bend to Klamath Falls, and from Klamath Falls to the coast at Trinidad, a few miles north of Eureka. Hill would also assume one-third of the cost of the Northwestern Pacific line from San Francisco to Eureka.

It was pointed out that this line would eliminate the Siskiyou grade on the present Southern Pacific line. Surveyors are known now to be working out a new grade over the Willits hill, between Eureka and San Francisco.

NERVOUSNESS AND BLUES

Symptoms of More Serious Sickness.

Washington Park, Ill.—"I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, headache, nervous spells and the blues. My children's loud talking and romping would make me so nervous I could just tear everything to pieces and I would ache all over and feel so sick that I would not want anyone to talk to me at times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me. I have had quite a bit of trouble and worry but it does not affect my youthful looks. My friends say 'Why do you look so young and well?' I owe it all to the Lydia E. Pinkham Remedies."

leadership in this crisis who is not in full accord with the policy of the president or who does not with whole heart believe in defending the rights and honor of America."

"The copperhead senators," the Chicago Journal, democratic, says editorially, "have received the first installment of their reward. The German press applauds them as 'wise,' 'patriotic' and 'representative of the best spirit.' Doubtless a dozen iron crosses have been laid aside for them, to be delivered when this cruel war is over; and 'Gumshoe Bill' at least ought to receive the Kaiser's photograph."

Duty of Senate Plain.
 Harrisburg, Pa., Mar. 9.—Democratic National Chairman Vance C. McCormick joined the chorus of opposition to Senator Stone again heading the foreign relations committee. The Harrisburg Patriot, of which McCormick is the principal owner, today said editorially: "Senator Stone has forfeited his right to remain longer at the head of the very important senate committee on foreign relations. It would seem as though Senator Stone should have the foresight and patriotism to quit. If he does not, the duty of the senate is plain."

Kansas City Too.
 Kansas City, Mo., Mar. 9.—The Kansas City Star in its leading editorial yesterday demanded that Senator Stone resign from the chairmanship of the foreign relations committee. "If Stone declines to resign, the senate should remove him," the editorial declared. "If Stone's place cannot be taken away from him by abrogating the rules of seniority there could be no more pressing reason for abrogating it."

Turned to the Wall.
 O'Gorman is one of the "little group of wilful men" who bent the armed neutrality measure asked by the president.

 On March 30, 1916, the federal grand jury here indicted Alfred A. Fritzen, Captain Franz Von Pappen, Captain Hans Tauscher, Wolf Von Igel and Constantine Vovain, on the charge of setting on foot a military enterprise. It was claimed they procured dynamite for the purpose of blowing up the Welland canal.
 Tauscher, a German reservist officer in this country for Krupp, and husband of Madame Galski, the singer, was tried and acquitted, although it was admitted he had procured dynamite. However, the jury believed his evidence, which was to the effect that he had done nothing with an intention of violating the laws of this country, having aided Von Pappen on the latter's assurance as a soldier and gentleman that he was asking him to do nothing illegal.

As evidence of faith in the good work of the federal farm loan board, organized at Freewater some time ago, the Milton Eagle says, $125,000 in loans has been applied for to date.

If You Suffer From Catarrh

don't make the fatal mistake of regarding it as a trifling matter. Authorities agree that Catarrh is an infection of the blood. Consequently, sprays, salves and lotions can afford only temporary relief, because they do not reach the source of the disease—the blood. When you depend on these temporary remedies alone your case is likely to grow steadily worse until it becomes chronic and possibly affects the lungs.
 But even if the infection does not go this far, the continuous dripping of mucus in the throat, the constant spitting and hawking and evil odor of the breath will not only cause misery to you, but will make your presence obnoxious to others. S. S. S., which has been the standard blood medicine for fifty years, will relieve your catarrh, because it will purify your blood and relieve it of the accumulated poisons. S. S. S. contains no mineral or habit-forming drugs. S. S. S. is on sale at all druggists and the advice of our medical department is at your disposal, free of charge. 240 AND 246 COMMERCIAL STREET

THE SNOW STORM

A wintry scene lies before me,
 The landscape covered quite
 As far as human eye can see
 With a robe of beauty white.

And as I watch from my window,
 The old oak's swaying boughs,
 And hear the wind as I linger,
 Sighing and moaning about the house.

I see a bunch of mistletoe there,
 Growing close to the end of a bough,
 And with its own gyrations rare,
 Receiving a share of the snow.

And I'm reminded of childhood days
 In the far away eastern clime,
 Where the winter's snow filled all the ways,
 And oft remained till the glad spring time.

I like to see some snow now and then,
 A beauty the scripture tells about.
 If it very soon melts off again
 And doesn't leave us sick and tired out.

If the east hasn't come to stay
 With the people from that clime,
 These inches will soon melt away,
 And we will have a milder time.

But in gripe may follow in its wake,
 So children, women and even men,
 Then as we grumble, shiver and shake,
 Will say, "How I wish 'twould rain again!"

But still it is coming thick and fast,
 What are we coming to I wonder—
 The wind is raising to quite a blast,
 But I'm glad there isn't any thunder.

It must be fearful in the east,
 Glad I don't live any nearer there—
 For 'twould be hard on man and beast,
 All of this — and below zero air.

For too much rain, or some sort of lack,
 Some have returned to their eastern home,
 But soon they are seen journeying back
 Though it takes money to go and come.

We like our fruit and lovely flowers,
 The beautiful scenery rich and rare,
 The snow-capped mountains, the nooks and bowers,
 Sweet pure water and healthful air.

We are glad to miss the drear tornadoes,
 Deadly reptiles and mosquitoes galore,
 The dangerous tarantulas,
 And centipedes off from our floor.

We need not seek a perfect land here,
 Where evil doth so greatly prosper,
 But make it our business to prepare
 For the home offered by the gospel.

So in Oregon we think we will stay
 Till to that pure country called away,
 That land of Elysian bowers!
