LES DARCY MUST MEET GIBBONS OR NO ONE

His Dodging Real Scraps Has Permanently Shut Him Out of New York

By H. C. Hamilton.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
New York, March 9.—Today may bring forth the announcement from heckled Les Darcy that he intends living up to the agreement signed for him by Tim O'Sullivan, calling for a ten-round bout the night of April 10th with Mike Gibbons in Milwaukee. Eddie Kane, manager of the St. Paul phantom, expected to make a special trip to Goshen, N. Y., where Darcy is hibernating, and get the final word from him.
Les, having been stopped in his encounter with Governor Whitman's determination to prevent Darcy's appearance in a New York ring, was a saddened young man today. His intention to show New York what a scrapper he is has been laid away for the time being, and he is preparing to make a study of time tables regarding trains that will carry him to the free and untrammeled west.

It was the logical thing for the Australian to do. If he had agreed long ago to a meeting with some high class boxer instead of picking out Al McCreary all the while and whooping that he was springing an over his probable appearance never would have been heard. It is probable that Governor Whitman never would have seen it brought out forcibly enough to urge him to action.
It is now up to the pugilist himself. He can go west and fight Mike Gibbons, or he can stay here and remain idle.

Horse Racers Worried.
New Orleans, La., March 9.—Sportsmen today were disturbed over the latest developments in the horse race fight here. Many thought the state would step in and put an end to the game or at least regulate the sport and limit the number of racing days. The introduction of pari mutuel machines is probable.

Following the filing of affidavits yesterday against the Businessmen's Racing association, which conducts the meet here, charging the operation of the band books, it was announced tomorrow two new tracks would be built across the river in Jefferson Parish. The Jefferson Fair association plans to conduct a meet across the river from December 10 to New Year's day. The Louisiana Stock association will run from Thanksgiving Day until March 25, 1918, if plans do not go astray.

Pirates On Way to Train.
Pittsburgh, Pa., March 9.—Without Hans Wagner, Jimmy Callahan and his Pirates left Pittsburgh for the spring training grind at Columbus, Georgia, today. Wagner may not play with the team again. He wants at least another week in which to decide whether or not his envying days are over.

Max Carey, Bill Fischer and Walter Schmidt, the three remaining holdouts, have been heard from. President Dreyfus said that they have asked for conferences to adjust our differences.
"There are no differences," the Pirate head declared. "What we offered is final."

West Leads In Tennis.
Angles, Cal., March 9.—The third day of the East vs. West tennis tournament saw the West still maintaining the lead it gained the first day. Maurice McLoughlin, former national champion, will meet Harold Throckmorton of the eastern team this afternoon while John Strachan, of the West, clashes with T. R. Pell, East. One of the most sensational contests of the day is expected to be that between Miss Mary Brown, West, and Miss Molla Bjurstedt, East, who is national women's champion.

The double match between Church and Throckmorton, of the East, and Johnston and Strachan, of the West, was going against the westeners when darkness interrupted it. The match will be finished tomorrow.

The Hockey Championship.
Portland, Ore., March 9.—The Towers team of Vancouver, B. C., will meet the Multnomah club seven here tonight for the amateur hockey championship of the northwest. Norman Youmans is about the only thing that stands between Vancouver and victory, according to the dopers. Even if Van conquer only the Multnomah, Youmans at goal can be counted on to stop most of the shots in his direction.

Bank in Marshfield Has New Ownership

Marshfield, Ore., Mar. 9.—The announcement of the sale of the Flanagan & Bennett bank, the oldest banking institution in southwestern Oregon, to a local syndicate, was made today.
The new corporation will be known as the Bank of Southwestern Oregon and the incorporators are Charles Hall, James E. Montgomery and John D. Gross. The bank was owned by James H. Flanagan and the estate of J. W. Bennett, both of whom will retain stock in the new company but no active interest. Ralph Williams, now cashier, likely will remain in that capacity.
The new bank will have a capital of $100,000. The transfer will be made the first of next week. The new company also bought the building erected a few years ago by the bank for its home and will continue the business at that location.

It is said that it requires "a vocabulary of at least 2,000 words to read the average newspaper intelligently." But it requires a lot more than 2,000 words to express one's opinion of what some of them are saying in these critical days.

BLAME KITCHENER FOR DARDANELLES FIASCO

Unnecessary Delay On His Part Responsible for Failure

London, March 9.—Upon the late Lord Kitchener, England's idol and the early war counsel was fixed the blame yesterday for England's Dardanelles expedition. A special investigation commission, appointed in response to parliamentary inquiries and complaints, as to the costly experiment against Turkey, made this report today.

"Although the main object of the expedition was not attained," the report concluded, "certain important political advantages were secured by the expedition. Whether these were worth the loss of life and treasure involved must always remain a matter of opinion."
Dismissing the responsibility for the step, the report adjudged Lord Kitchener responsible for three weeks delay in despatching troops to the Dardanelles, thereby "gravely compromising the probability of success."

The commission held also that Kitchener did not "sufficiently utilize the services of the general staff, resulting in confusion and lack of efficiency."
Censure was expressed at the war council's failure to hold a meeting between March 19 and May 11, 1915, and discussed Winston Churchill's advocacy, as first lord of the admiralty, for purely naval expeditionary forces.

"Lord Kitchener," the report continued, "favored a purely naval attack. The commissioners think the first lord of the admiralty (then Churchill) the premier (then Asquith) and other councillors, should have required the naval advisers to submit clearly expressed views regarding the practicability of the plan."
The report concludes they were not justified in reaching a decision on the Dardanelles plan "without much fuller investigation."

Likes the Barbadoes Will Be Sent There

Portland, Ore., Mar. 9.—Ordered deported for "washing" young women on Broadway, Louis Martinez, a British negro, habit Barbadoes Islands, today denounced the United States as a nation in which the white people are too high handed.

"In the Barbadoes," he said, "our courts, our law makers, our police and our best families are black. It's much pleasanter there."
When a policeman stopped Martinez on the stand told him to stop flirting with pretty girls, he referred the officer to the British consul. It took four men to subdue him. At headquarters he admitted having entered the United States illegally.

Best sort of good roads bonst, in Lantz Herald. "The large auto truck stuck in the mud on Woodstock avenue and Eighty-fifth street, on Monday evening presented a sorry appearance. It is safe to assume that any one of the dozen men wading around in the 'soup' up to their knees endeavoring to extricate the machine will be ardent supporters of any road improvement movement that may be launched."
