SOCIETY

By ALICE THOMPSON

HONORING her house guest Mrs. Herbert Scott, of Portland, Mrs. Edward J. Smyth was hostess Friday for a charming informal luncheon.

Greens and yellow tulips adorned the prettily appointed table around which covers were placed for the honor guest, Mrs. Clyde C. Graham, Mrs. William Connell Dyer, Mrs. F. Stinson Gannett, Miss Florence Cleveland and the hostess.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Smyth motored to Portland and were accompanied by Mrs. Scott, who returned home after a week's delightful visit in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Zadore J. Riggs motored to Portland Sunday for the day and were accompanied by Miss Ida Simmons and Mrs. William H. Burghardt Jr., who will visit in Portland until the latter part of the week.

NO DECISION TODAY

Washington, March 12.—The supreme court decision in the Adamson eight hour law case again failed to materialize today.

The rooms were aglow with crimson carnations and potted plants, and the hostess was assisted by Mrs. F. E. Shaffer and Miss Dorothy Buckner.

Those playing were: Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Goodin, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas C. Minto, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wain, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Corey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoffnell, Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Capper, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Benjamin and Master Keith Brown.

Miss Marjorie Kay who is attending the University of Oregon, came home the latter part of the week to pass a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Bevier were the recipients of a pleasant surprise party Wednesday night, when a group of their friends gathered at their home for dancing and cards. Four tables were arranged for "500" which was followed later by dancing. Calvin F. Patton and Mrs. Roma Hunter won the card honors.

At a late hour a lunch was served by the guests who were for the most part members of the T. A. N. O. club of which the hosts also are members.

Mrs. Lizzie Smith left this morning for Portland where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Brock. Mrs. Smith will remain in Portland for about three weeks.

The following from the Eugene Daily Guard will interest many Salem folk:

Eugene was most fortunate in having for her guests this week end many members of the Daughters of the American Revolution who came here for the fourth annual state conference Friday and Saturday. Headquarters for the convention were at the Osburn hotel, which was adorned with American flags and streamers in honor of the patriotic guests. Elaborate plans have been formulated for weeks to make this a most successful occasion.

Mrs. Elizabeth Prescott Dutton, regent of the Lewis and Clark chapter in Eugene, opened the meeting Friday afternoon with an address of welcome. Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, state regent, presided over this first assemblage which was in the nature of a business meeting. Colonel C. C. Hammond was the chief speaker of the afternoon.

The reception Friday evening at the Osburn was probably one of the largest social affairs ever held in Eugene. Women from many Oregon cities were present and the Eugene hostesses arranged everything for their pleasure. In the receiving line were all the members of the Lewis and Clark chapter, the state officers and the state regents. Others than the Eugene chapter who were in line were: Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, state regent, Salem; Mrs. P. M. Wilkins, state vice regent, Eugene; Mrs. Hubert Ferris, recording secretary, Tigard; Mrs. Anna Flinn Hunt, treasurer, Albany; Miss Amy Dunn, auditor, Eugene; Mrs. James K. Weatherford, consulting registrar, Albany; Mrs. John E. Beaumont, honorary state regent, Portland; Mrs. Mary Barlow Wilkins, Multnomah chapter; Mrs. Edna A. Beale, Willamette chapter; Mrs. Levi E. Tracy, Linn chapter; Mrs. Edna P. Dutton, Oregon Lewis and Clark chapter; Mrs. J. G. Heltzel, Chemeketa chapter; Mrs. Joseph E. Silby, Sacchar Childress Polk chapter; Mrs. C. J. Crandall, Clatsop chapter.

BOTH MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

Relieved From Pain and Suffering by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"For three or four years I suffered a great deal of pain periodically, so I would have to lie down. My back would ache and I would feel very weak and miserable. I remembered how my mother had found relief from pain by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I decided to try it, and thanks to it I am free from pain, headache and that general weakness that was so hard to bear. I am able to do my work during such times and am recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to my friends who suffer as I did."—Miss META TIEDEMANN, 1622 Jefferson Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Saturday noon those attending the conference dedicated a marker on the Oregon trail at Coryell Pass on the Pacific highway, a mile south of Springfield Junction. Other states have provided similar markers along the great highway traversed by the early pioneers from the middle west. Immediately after this ceremony a luncheon was served at the Osburn for the members of the Daughters of the American Revolution and their specially invited guests.

Members of the D. A. R. of Chemeketa chapter, Salem, attending the conference were: Mrs. O. P. Hoff; Mrs. P. G. Miller, Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. La Moine Clark and Mrs. J. G. Heltzel.

The O. E. S. social club will meet Tuesday (tomorrow) afternoon at the Masonic Temple club rooms from 2 until 5 o'clock. The entertainers for the afternoon will be Mesdames Sarah Stinson, Elizabeth Shater, Maude Campbell and Ida Goffrey.

GERARD TO REACH

impression he has formed as to Germany's purposes, her present situation and her future aims, he will remain silent.

The only public expression which the former ambassador permitted himself to make on his arrival here was that he had no knowledge of Foreign Secretary Zimmerman's plot to align Germany with Mexico and Japan until word of that conspiracy reached the Infanta Isabel by wireless as she was en route from Corunna, Spain to Havana.

Gave Warning of Intrigue.

From others of the ambassadorial party, however, it was learned that the ambassador months ago advised the United States government of Germany's intrigues in Mexico.

It rests with President Wilson whether or the full story of Gerard's life in Berlin be his impressions of Germany shall be given to the American public. The envoy is known to have ready for submission to his chief a narrative of amazing details. It is possible these details may be the basis of further revelations of Germany's machinations against America — if the government sees fit.

But because of the unbearable, ceaseless activity of spies in Germany, not a paper of the American embassy's archives in Berlin now remains. The ambassador himself burned every bit of paper in the building.

Germany's food situation is serious, in the belief of all the returning Americans. The Teutons greatly lack potatoes, fats sugar and other basic food staples. But everyone who had lived in Berlin agreed that Germany would probably be able to eke out an existence through this summer on her present supplies of food. Then she will have to depend on this year's crops. And those crops have now only a fair promise of sufficiency.

Germany Short of Metals.

Shortage of metals and nitrates is now interfering with Germany's manufacture of munitions, according to members of the Gerard party. Germany is being raked with a fine tooth comb for metals and more metals. The latest requisitioning determined upon by the government was to lead Every ounce is being taken. The pewter tops from beer steins have gone. So have the leaden pipes of church organs.

It is in the big German cities that the food shortage is most serious. In the smaller cities the lack is not quite so apparent. For instance, Dr. W. A. Haddy, a Cleveland Ohio, physician, who was stationed with a Red Cross unit in a hospital located in a town of 10,000, insisted he had no trouble in getting plenty to eat.

The annoyances to which Gerard was forced to submit before he obtained permission of German officials to leave Berlin were not only anticipated, in part, by Gerard himself, but by Washington.

Passports Were Withheld.

It was learned that the ambassador was specially instructed by the state department to exercise great care and not to let petty personal insults complicate the already delicate situation aroused by the diplomatic break. Full confirmation of how passports were withheld from Americans pending the exercise of pressure on Gerard to sign a new treaty guaranteeing safety of German ships in American harbors, was given by the returning Americans.

They retold with admiration Gerard's firm stand and his refusal to be quiescent in Germany's scheme.

Those were trying days and when at last the German government suddenly changed front and issued passports, permitting departure of Gerard and his party.

There is a section near Brothers, Oregon, that has been having summer, winter and spring all at one time. As an evidence of summer, threshing operations are going on; as an evidence of spring, some of the farmers are sowing their grain and as an evidence of winter it snowed for three days. All this took place within the scope of one township.

BATHE INTERNALLY

OVER 500,000 PEOPLE ARE NOW DOING SO

For many years physicians have agreed that the vast majority of human life were caused by accumulated waste in the lower intestine; that in our present way of living nature could not remove all this waste without assistance, no matter how regular we might be; and that the poison from this waste circulated through the blood pulled us away down below par and was responsible for many diseases of a serious nature.

During this time the "J. B. L. Cascade" for internal bathing has, because of their recommendation and those of its users, been steadily growing in favor.

Recently, however, the startling news which has been covering this country that great surgeons and specialists have been operating on the lower intestine for the most chronic and serious diseases has caused Americans to become thoroughly awake to the importance of keeping this lower intestine free from all poisonous waste matter, and over 500,000 are now using internal baths.

If you try the "J. B. L. Cascade" you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable—the poisonous waste makes us bilious, blue, dull and nervous. Internal baths are nature's own cure for constipation—just warm water properly applied. Drugs force nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her.

Call and see it at Daniel J. Fry's Drug Store in Salem, Oregon, or ask them for "Why Man of Today is Only 50 per cent Efficient," a booklet of great interest, which is given free on request.—Adv.

party, everyone in that party looked forward anxiously to setting foot on some soil other than German. But when the time came for embarkation from Corunna fears and anxieties again assailed the party.

Warned Against Attack.

It became known that Gerard had been warned by a German friend before he left Berlin not to take passage for America. He was told a German submarine would surely torpedo the boat carrying him. That warning gave passengers of the Infanta Isabel days and nights of something approaching terror.

Two days out from Corunna with passengers and crew panicky and nervous, there began to be wild rumors of periscopes sighted near the Infanta. There wasn't a moment that was not filled with vague dread of unwarred attack. But the "periscopes" turned out not to be periscopes. No submarines were sighted. The party relaxed its tension again.

Then just two days before Havana was reached panic reigned again for a moment when a strange vessel was sighted. The stranger steamed rapidly toward the Infanta. It circled about the vessel cautiously and then finally changed her course and soon was lost on the horizon line. The vessel apparently was a British patrol boat.

Gerard is still tired and worn by his experiences. His first word on reaching Havana was a request for further information as to the German plot revealed in Foreign Secretary Zimmerman's letter. The wireless has told him only the briefest outline. Gerard said he had no plans for the future aside from looking out for his personal affairs.
