BOOTLEGGERS ARE PRESENTING CASE

Defense Introducing Testimony—Some of It Pretty Convincing

Seattle, Wash., March 19.—(City Detectives Meyer Peyer, Jack Poolman, Dan McLennan and James Doon are scheduled to start presenting their defense against the government bootleg conspiracy charges this morning, while Chief Beckingham and Mayor Gill will follow with their defense evidence probably Tuesday afternoon.

Logan Billingsley, bootlegger king, has testified for the government that he was required to pay $10 a barrel to the quartet of detectives for all his liquor they let pass their watch on the waterfront.

A general denial of charges and specific denial that he ever received money from any of the Billingsley's or protected their liquor ships were made by Detective James E. Doon in the federal booze graft conspiracy trial when the defense opened its case this morning.

The smallest crowd since testimony began to be taken, was on hand. Denials of guilt by the four city detectives were made by Attorneys Tennant and Farber, as soon as court opened.

It was then announced that the defense of Mayor Gill and Chief Beckingham would be presented after that of City Detectives Poolman, Peyer, Doon and McLennan had been completed.

Chief Beckingham personally ordered seized and later destroyed the truckload of Margett liquor for which Fred Billingsley testified he paid the chief $600 at the Star Canning Works, September 20, was the testimony of William Tierney, driver for the truck.

The government tried to show in its direct testimony that the reason that the Billingsley's didn't get the truck was that the chief became frightened at the appearance, or reported appearance of ex-Patrolman E. J. Margett, a squad officer arrived before it could bootlegger, on the scene and a dry be taken away.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION GOVERNOR SEES JAP WARSHIPS AT PORTLAND

Says We Are "Living In a Fools Paradise" and Should Get Out of It

Governor Withycombe told a few plain facts and expressed some pretty positive opinions at the patriotic meeting held last evening at the First Congregational church.

The governor, when he talks about our unprepared condition and general lack of patriotism, ascribes this condition of mind to the false teachings of school histories.

"Why cannot we recruit our army?" exclaimed the governor. "It is because our histories are written by pacifists and mollycoddlers."

"There is bound to be a wonderful transformation soon. I fear Germany only from a commercial standpoint," he said.

"Germany cannot war with us as she is exhausted. There are millions of yellow people in Asia. If we do anything distasteful to their pride, we will have to reckon with them."

When a bill was about to be introduced into the Oregon legislature that affected the Japanese, the national government got interested and had the bill withdrawn.

"I was at Ft. Stevens this summer and saw the big guns shoot eight miles. That amounts to nothing as Japan has ships with guns that carry shot 12 miles. A Japanese fleet could enter the Columbia and levy $100,000,000 on Portland and the city could not help itself."

"We are living in a fool's paradise and we do not realize our terrible and helpless condition. The only way to prevent trouble is to be prepared, not for war but to protect our country."

We should have protested when Germany invaded Belgium, but we had nothing with which to protest."

Mayor Walter E. Keyes spoke in favor of preparedness and told of the present condition of Company M and of the efforts now being made to bring the number of recruits up to 100.

Murguia Gets Ready to Flee From Villa

El Paso, Texas, Mar. 19.—Villa continues his steady advance against Chihuahua City today, while General Murguia, in command of the Carranzista garrison, is reported by arrivals here today from the interior to be preparing to evacuate the city.

The Carranzista commander, according to reports, has dispatched a division of cavalry northward to Terraza, midway between Chihuahua City and Juarez, which, it is said, is fortifying in anticipation of his intended evacuation of Chihuahua City.

Present indications are that Murguia will not make a stand at Chihuahua City as was believed, but will destroy fortifications he has erected there and not attempt to halt the Villa advance at that point.

ORDERS FLAG REMOVED

Fort Wayne, Ind., Mar. 19.—County Commissioner Schweig today ordered the American flag removed from the window of the Allen county court house for fear its presence there could offend somebody.

Recorder Bookwalter in whose office it was displayed, protested, but two janitors under Schweig's direction entered the office and tore the flag down. This county has a very large German-American vote.

Later Recorder Bookwalter defied Schweig and replaced the flag in the window.

INTERNED SAILORS REMOVED.

Washington, March 19.—The 700 interned German officers and sailors from the German commerce raiders Kronprinz Wilhelm and Prinz Eitel Friedrich, now interned in the Philadelphia navy yard, will leave Philadelphia under heavy armed escort of United States marines for Georgia Tuesday or Wednesday for Forts Oglethorpe and McPherson, Ga., where they will be held until the end of the war, the navy department announced today.

PRESS GERMAN HARD

London, March 19.—All night long our troops pressed the retreating Germans hard," declared a dispatch from the press camp of the British headquarters on the western front today.

full force, in the policy it was agreed that the defendant should pay for the loss of the vision of the eye if the sight was irrevocably gone.

It is a sticky ether compound which dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels the corn without inflammation or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. It is claimed that a quarter of an ounce of freezeone will cost very little at any of the drug stores but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

RUSSIA'S POLITICAL PRISONERS SET FREE

Jews Given Citizenship—Capital Enthusiastic Over New Conditions

Petrograd, Mar. 19.—Full right citizenship to Jews and abolition of the tax was the further progressive step which democratic Russia took today.

Jews throughout Russia hailed the new order with great rejoicing.

Petrograd is astir with enthusiasm; its streets are packed with orderly crowds. Public utilities are now running as of old. Today all newspapers were re-publishing—and with entire freedom of editorial power.

Many of the newspapers who resumed yesterday commemorated the event by special editions full of eulogies of the new "free Russia"—including poems and long analytical articles.

All public buildings in the capital have been draped with the red flag of the revolutionists.

Prince Yusupoff and the Grand Duke Dmitri Pavlovitch, who were banished by the old imperial government because of suspicion that they were connected with the removal of the Monk Rasputin, were permitted to return to Petrograd today by special order of the minister of justice.

Dispatches from Moscow today said all workmen had resumed their occupations. The deposed Czar Nicholas was on route to one of his imperial palaces in Crimea today. Meanwhile his children were all, except the Grand Duchess Marie, the young grand duke Alexis, who was heir to the throne, was reported in a critical condition.

He is not only suffering from the measles, like the other four children of the royal family, but is reported to have suffered a re-opening of an old wound on his foot.

The Grand Duke Nicholas, now commander in chief of Russia's war forces, at Tiflis today ordered the release of all political prisoners at Baku and exhorted his soldiers to continue to obey their lawful chiefs. He urged they "defend their country and support Russia's allies in this unprecedented struggle."

RUSSIA IS QUIET.

Washington, March 19.—Petrograd is quiet and a similar condition is apparent in other parts of Russia, according to the first cablegram received from Ambassador of Francis at Petrograd since early last week to the state department today.

YARROWDALE PRISONERS.

Washington, March 19.—All the American Yarrowdale prisoners are now out of Germany and 59 of them are proceeding through France to Barcelona, Spain, said state department messages this afternoon.

Market Is Livlier and Stocks Advance

New York, March 19.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said:

A revival of public interest in the securities market was manifest today when stocks advanced several points in trading that was brisk indeed in comparison with recent apathetic sessions.

Wall Street professed to see in the forward movement the beginning of a real bull market. For one thing, the menace of a railroad strike has been eliminated almost simultaneously with the decision of a divided supreme court holding the Adamson eight hour law constitutional.

There was further clearing of the atmosphere in the sinking of three American vessels by German submarines. War with Germany has been discounted and war is here in all but the formality.

The market bore many of the aspects of a bull movement of no mean proportions. Trading continued active throughout and for the first time in weeks the turn over exceeded one million shares. The steel, copper, munitions and equipment shares were in active demand and gained 2 to 4 points or so.

There was a brief lull after mid-day, during which there were recessions to some extent, but in the afternoon the buying was resumed, representing both outside buying and considerable hurried short covering.

Following the Adamson law decision the railroad began to climb, proving the feature of the late trading. Gains of two to three points were made in that department under the leadership of Reading and Union Pacific.

Germany Has Hopes Government May Fail

By John Grandens. (United Press Staff Correspondent). Berlin, March 19.—(By wireless to the United Press.)—Germany is not sure the Russian revolution will be able to survive in the face of the Russian people's demand for bread.

High circles today were frank in stating their opinion that the revolution was distinctly an aid to England and the entente. The old government had been suspected of a desire to make a separate peace, but the new foreign minister, Milukoff, is known here as England's friend.

These German officials suggested to

To Form Chapter of Girls' National Honor Guard in Salem

Salem is to be given a chance Wednesday to form a chapter of the Girls' National Honor Guard when Miss Lucille Danforth of Portland comes to this city to begin organization.

The first meeting will be held Wednesday afternoon in the Salem high school when Miss Danforth will meet the girls of the high school. Then in the evening at 7:30 o'clock there will be a mass meeting in the Y. W. C. A. for the girls.

The institution is nation-wide and is organized for the purpose of creating a spirit of patriotism and duty among the girls of America. Article three of the constitution reads as follows:

"The duties of the Girls' National Honor Guard shall be to inculcate the spirit of unity and learning to do one thing well, which shall prove of helpfulness and value both in duration of peace as well as times of war. Hence it shall be the duty of each girl of The Girls' National Honor Guard to maintain the honor of the country, the principles of the government of the United States, and the respect and honor of its flag."

Article four of the constitution says: "Any young woman between the ages of fourteen and 30 years, with a knowledge of the working of her government, and a recognition of the needs of her country and an appreciation of the sacredness of her obligation, is eligible for admission."

The constitution goes on to say that any girl may have the liberty of full freedom to express her views respecting any policy, action, or conduct on the part of those holding executive office in the United States but she shall respect the position of the same.

Governor Withycombe is honorary vice-president of the organization in the state of Oregon.

A large number of prominent Salem girls have signified their intention of assisting in the formation of the chapter and will be present Wednesday.

day that in view of the fact that the Russian socialists favor an immediate peace, there is likely to be another revolution against the revolutionists—started by the workmen.
