A SIMPLE WAY TO REMOVE DANDRUFF There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night while resting, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Cloverdale Notes

The Thimble club met with Mrs. F. H. Garland Thursday afternoon. The Resche girls are at home for the spring vacation. E. M. Bailey and family and W. C. Privott and family visited at Fruitland Sunday.

One of the largest and jolliest crowds of the season gathered at the Hayesville school Friday evening. A splendid program was given in which every pupil in the school participated. Several unique and interesting numbers were the presentation of the "Childhood of Hiawatha" in costume by the third grade; a dialogue between the age old inquisitive child and his mother, overheard in the locality of a circus; the three act play "A Trip to Europe" was enacted by the older pupils.

The Ideal Rebekah lodge held a lively meeting Saturday night at their banquet hall. There were twenty three members present and not an officer missing. Mrs. Baker of the Stayton lodge and Mrs. Small of Vernon lodge Portland, visited there. They initiated four new members into the mysteries of the degree besides receiving one by card. Several candidates for maid and initiation are yet to become members.

At the home of Mrs. M. Fiflet a miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Anna Fiflet when about 45 of her friends and neighbors met there Thursday afternoon. There were parties there from Salem and Turner also, and many could not be there but sent gifts by others more fortunate. The table was piled high with presents and Miss Fiflet was requested to untie them that all might enjoy seeing them.

The girls consisted of sets of dishes nut sets, water sets, set glass pieces, granite and aluminum ware, bed linen, navy work of all description and many other things that only kind and true friends could think of. Duets, solos and choruses were a feature of the afternoon entertainment. A dainty and delicious lunch was served by the hostess at the refreshment hour, she was assisted by the Misses Selma and Julia Olsen and Nell Robertson.

The guests of the afternoon were: Miss Anna Fiflet, Miss Clara Fiflet, Mrs. J. H. Hennes, Mrs. Geo. Weatherill, Mrs. Della Blago, Mrs. Henry Crawford, Mrs. M. O.
