

ARE you reading the history now running serially in advertisement form in Collier's, Saturday Evening Post and other national magazines of the building of the Union Pacific?

Union Pacific is a national achievement upon which depended the safety of the Union and the holding of the Pacific States.

The stories are rich in intimate facts of United States history. When you read them you will realize what a great part Union Pacific played in the growth and welfare of our Nation; and how truly serviceable Union Pacific is and will be—in peace or war—to the people of our United States, as individual travelers, or shippers, and as a Nation.

UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM

SOCIETY

Miss Helen Edes Jordan, the charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Jordan, of Seattle, is the house guest of Mrs. Henry W. Meyers.

Mrs. John J. Roberts and small daughter, Helen and Mildred Roberts, are being welcomed home after a several weeks sojourn in Berkeley, California.

The La Arca club entertained last night with a delightful informal dinner party. It was a progressive affair, and the guests gathered at the homes of the various members for the different courses.

The festivities opened with the soup course, at the home of the Misses Bertha and Emma Waldorf, followed by the fish or second course, at Miss Estelle Wilson's; Mrs. H. D. St. Helens was hostess for the meat course, and the salad was served at Miss Mabel Brassfield's.

The hostesses all planned artistic table decorations of spring flowers, and were assisted by various members of the club.

Those enjoying the affair were: Mrs. Elmer Armstrong, Mrs. George Hibbard, Mrs. Henry D. St. Helen, Mrs. Carey N. Matlock, Mrs. Fay H. Collins, Mrs. Leona Peterson, Miss Estella Wilson, Miss Marie Hovedebo, Miss Stannis Anderson, Miss Ruby Baker, Miss Echo Hunt, Miss Audrey Hicks, Miss Doris Anderson, Miss Bertha Waldorf.

Mrs. Robert C. Paulus left this morning for a visit in Portland and will be away for several days.

The S. T. K. club composed of Clifford Townsend, Reed Rowland, Robin Fisher, Warren Brasher, Loren Simpson and Armin Berger entertained with a delightful evening party several days ago at the home of the latter.

A coterie of young folk were asked to participate in the festivity, which was the first party given by the club this winter.

A color scheme of red and green prevailed in the decorations throughout the house, the various rooms being adorned with crimson flowers and ivy combined with red and green streamers. The refreshments also were carried out in the same color scheme.

The evening was happily spent playing games. Guests of the club were the Misses Gretchen Brown, Amelia Babcock, Annabelle Golden, Edna Ackerman, Alice McClellan, Mary Bayne, Esther Paroungian, Edna Magers, Isabelle George and Roland Reinhardt, Andrew Vincent and George Doust.

the very serious hardships and evils which would likely arise out of the inflation which would be produced by vast loans.

All will be made to share in the sacrifice necessitated by the war, but it is evident that the administration has in mind a plan of taxing heavily enormous incomes of the rich.

President Wilson's suggestion for "a tax as you go war" will meet opposition in the house.

This was clearly indicated today when Minority Leader Mann announced his belief that "we must immediately borrow money" and issue bonds. He pointed out that the nation still is paying its civil war, Spanish-American and Panama canal debts. More-

CURTAIN AT 8:15 FOR ELKS GREAT PLAY

The Inimitable Wallingford Blackie Daw and All, Will Be There

The curtain will rise on the first act of the Elks play, "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" promptly at 8:15 this evening. Everything is ready for the big production. The training season for the crack cast of twenty-one stars is over. They have had their final rehearsal, and director James Mott has pronounced them prepared to put over the best amateur performance ever staged in Salem.

Everyone is expecting to have the time of their lives at the Grand to-night. A jammed house will greet the Elks actors both tonight and tomorrow night. The ticket sellers have been handing out the paste boards in a continuous stream ever since the seat sale opened yesterday morning, and the indications are that the S. R. O. sign will go up long before the curtain does.

Following are the actors who will shine at the Grand this evening, and the parts they will play in "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford":

J. Rufus Wallingford, a "get-rich-quick man," Charles V. Galloway.

Harvey G. Daw ("Blackie") his chief lieutenant, James Mott.

"Andy" Dempsey, proprietor of the Palace hotel, Battlesburg Ernest R. Ringo.

Eddie Lamb, the head clerk, Robin D. Day.

Willie, the bell hop, Oliver Myers. G. W. Battles, the richest man in town, Wilson Howard.

Timothy Battles, the mayor of Battlesburg, Walter Keyes.

Henry Quig, the coal and ice magnate, Paul Stege.

Richard Welles, the read estate man, L. S. Geer.

Judge Kenneth E. Lampton, a lawyer, F. H. DeVore.

"Doc" Gunther, the bus driver, E. Cooke Patton.

Yosi, Wallingford's valet, William Perlich.

Charlie, the bartender, Bud Welch. Clint Harkins, reporter on the Battlesburg "Blade", Buany Meiring.

E. B. Lott of the Midland Valley Traction line, George C. L. Snyder.

POLK COUNTY COURT MAKES STRONG DENIAL

Says It Never Received Plans or Specifications for Proposed Bridge

Denial of every allegation made in the complaint in the Oregon supreme court in the mandamus suit brought to compel the construction of a bridge across the Willamette river here was made this morning by the Polk county court, when the case came up for issue.

This means that the Polk county people deny they ever made application to the highway department for plans for a bridge, deny they ever received any plans or specifications from the highway department, deny the Marion county court had made offers concerning the bridge; in fact the Polk county court denied having had anything to do with the bridge affair.

This places them in a pretty bad light, according to those who are acquainted with the situation.

As a result of the session this morning in the supreme court, the matter was referred so that further testimony could be taken. Miss Barrett, of Dallas, a court reporter, was designated as the one to take the testimony.

It is believed that the matter will finally come to an issue not later than next Monday, by which time all the testimony is expected to be taken. This testimony is to prove that what the Polk county officials say is not true.

County Judge Bushley, after the session, was in the office of the highway commission, and secured a copy of the following letter, which goes to disprove the denial of the Polk county officials:

"County Court, Polk County, Dallas, Ore. We transmit herewith our report up on site, type, and estimate of cost for the proposed new bridge at Salem. If we can be of further service to you in explaining any of its contents we will be pleased to do so."

THIRD BEING MUSTERED Vancouver, Wash., April 3.—Foster of the Third Regiment, Oregon Infantry, into federal service is on today by Colonel U. G. Alexander, federal mustering officer. The men spend many hours daily drilling, and many new recruits are arriving, bringing the regiment near to war strength.

9,900 TON STEAMER SUNK New York, April 3.—The Wilson steamship Carniarro was sunk Friday by a torpedo, it was announced here today by officials of the Wilson company. News was received through a cable from the home office at Hull.

The Carniarro was a 9,900 ton vessel.

Laugh When People Step On Your Feet Try this yourself then pass it along to others. It works!

Ouch ! ! ! ! ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right off without pain.

He says freezezone is an ether compound which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue of skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezezone will cost very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR, DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY

Try This! Hair Gets Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful at Once

Immediate?—Yes! Certain!—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.

SUGGESTS CHANGE FORM OF GOVERNMENT

German Editor Says Fear of Enemies Prevents Change at This Time

New York, April 3.—In President Wilson's war message to congress the New York German Herald today saw a suggestion which may result in governmental change in Germany from monarchy to republic. The Herald says: "In respect to Mr. Wilson's declaration that the war is not aimed at the German people, we think he has a lurking suspicion that they would quickly cast off their kings and princes if they saw a strong democratic power ready to shield them against their enemies while they put their house in order. Many of them (the Germans) would prefer a republican form of government, but feel, if they follow their inclinations at this time, the resulting internal disturbance would permit the enemy to enter the gates and devastate Germany. Germany will remain a monarchy until after the war." A signed editorial by Bernard Ridder in the New York Staats Zeitung, says: "The address of the president will come as a tremendous shock to millions of Americans of German ancestry. We are one of the allies in fact, as well as in name. The president need have no concern as to the loyalty of Americans of German ancestry."

THINGS PROPOSED OR DONE BY CONGRESS

Universal Compulsory Training One—Senate to Hold Long Session

Washington, April 3.—A universal compulsory military training bill providing for immediate raising of an army of five hundred thousand men was introduced by Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the military affairs committee today.

Under the provision of the bill the president would be empowered to call out all physically fit men of the age of 20 at once. As the necessity arises men of 21, 22 and 23 would be called.

House Met at Noon Washington, April 3.—The house met at noon with scarcely more than one hundred members in their seats. Important conferences delayed most of them.

Blind Chaplain Couden in a prayer, ringing with patriotism, invoked divine assistance "in the momentous days that are to follow."

A Continuous Session Washington, April 3.—At the meeting of the senate steering committee it was decided to hold a continuous session of the senate from ten o'clock tomorrow until the "war bill" is acted upon. It is the purpose of the committee to prevent any filibustering or delay to the war resolution, such as was caused today by Senator LaFollette.

Would Fit the Crime Washington, April 3.—Representative LaGuardia of New York today introduced a resolution to punish by imprisonment in time of peace and by death during a war, anyone selling inferior food, clothing, ammunition or arms to the army or navy. The bill, which would be effective sixty days after its passage, was referred to the judiciary committee.

House Adjourns Washington, April 3.—The house adjourned today after having passed with out objection the $62,500,000 general deficiency bill which failed in the senate last session.

The bill, making important appropriations for the army and navy, was practically unchanged from its former phraseology.

ENGLISH PAPERS

(Continued from page one.) There remains but one course for any loyal American to take and that is to conquer a peace that will be lasting.

Asks Nothing for Himself. Detroit Free Press: "The president's recommendations are inclusive and to a large degree fundamental. They call for a war of defense and offense for a fight to the finish."

Detroit News: "We are in for war to the bitter end, and it is at its close that we must stand forth. Let us so conduct ourselves that when the war ceases and a council of nations is called to bring about a settlement, we can say as Woodrow Wilson said a little while ago: 'America asks nothing for herself that she does not ask for humanity.'"

Chicago Herald: "His (the president's) is the most momentous presidential message of our generation. Its consequences we cannot venture to predict. But national honor must be maintained at any cost—and the democracies of the world have yet to claim on the aid and sympathy of a land dedicated to freedom and peace. Whatever the consequences, they cannot equal the catastrophe of standing humbly aside while a war-mad militarism runs amuck and, violating alike the principles of law and humanity, attempts to fasten its chains more firmly on its own people, to impose its will by force upon the neutral world and to perpetuate its power for evil to the latest generation."

Entire Battalion Wiped Out With the British Armies Afield. April 3.—An entire German battalion, missing for attack against the advancing British forces east of Tempeaux, was mangled by British artillery today.

The British forces continued their progress in the neighborhood of St. Quentin, despite a sudden "flare back" into wintry weather.

Dawn today saw eight inches of snow and a high wind, which piled drifts five feet deep in some places. Fair weather succeeded about noon, with such a sudden rise in the temperature that the thaw was immediate. The resulting mud and ooze made progress difficult.

Painless Parker---Outlaw His Confessions

CHAPTER XVIII. This perfect will-igness of the "ethical" Dental Trust to murder a man in cold blood in order to make it hot for me opened my eyes.

It caused me to settle the question for myself once and for all. I decided to remain an "outlaw" for the rest of my professional career.

I am proud of the fact that I am "unethical." It places me apart from a class of men who have shown a hostility toward progress that is nothing short of astounding. It distinguishes me from the Medicine Men who fight educating the public because it would interfere with their entrenched graft; because it would let the daylight into their bluff methods; because it would end the time-honored fee graft; because it would put their profession on an honest basis.

I consider it a privilege to be able to address the great, fair-play loving American public through these columns, and show up a class of men who, living a thousand years in the past, still struggle for the right to hoodwink the ignorant, practice the black arts, begot simple professional principles, bolster up an absurd claim to superiority, tax the gullible all they can stand—and fight like wildcats to keep their graft intact.

They have been trying for 25 years to stifle my work—but they haven't done it yet. They can't.—Adv. (To be Continued.)
