Bethel News Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Bethel, April 3.—The basket social last Saturday night was a great success. The play "A White Mountain Boy" was well chosen and well presented.

Cass Nichols acted the part of the hero, "Salem Town." Miss Lucy Nichols was the heroine "Daisy" and Harleigh King was her wealthy father "Mr. Beckwith."

Arthur Seifuz represented the villain and Mrs. A. J. Schultz acted the part of the villain's wife "Madeline." Others taking part in the play were John Hale, Frank Kunciter, Roy Marehand, Mike Battalione, Chris Battalione and the Misses Rose and Christine Battalione.

The villain plans the death of his wife and by treachery he contrives a situation such that the heroine promises to marry him to save her father's good name and fortune. But "Salem Town" spoils all the evil plots and brings the play to a happy conclusion.

The capacity of the house was not sufficient to properly accommodate half of those who attended. There were representatives from all of the neighboring districts including Shaw, Aunsville, Mackay, Station, Pratum, Riekey, Auburn, Fruitland, Oak Ridge and doubtless others. All of the standing room on the floor was taken and part of the audience climbed on top of benches in the back of the house.

A number were unable to get inside and had to look in at the windows. Those up next to the ceiling were too hot and those down front were cold.

Considering the amount of discomfort they had to suffer, the audience was quiet and attentive.

Besides the play there was music by the orchestra, vocal solos by Miss Davis, and vocal duets by Carroll and Lucille Robinson.

The baskets were sold by H. R. Curtis. Marjory Miller's basket sold for the highest price, Cass Nichols paid $3.50 for it. There were twenty six baskets and they sold for $39.30 and an average of $1.51. This included the children's baskets one of which sold for twenty five cents. Considering the range of prices the average is something to be proud of.

Mrs. A. J. Sundberg was hostess to the Bethel Thimble club last Thursday afternoon. The weather was fine, those who were there enjoyed the fine weather and good time which they always have at the meetings. The time was passed in quilting accompanied by merry talk of current events.

Mrs. J. M. Nichols assisted the hostess in serving lunch. Those present were Mrs. J. E. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. C. M. Robinson, Mrs. O. H. Heinke, Mrs. L. A. Rautenburg, Mrs. T. Bahusen, Mrs. J. M. Nichols, Mrs. H. B. Hoffman, Mrs. A. H. Neumann and Mrs. Ida S. Baker. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. H. B. Hoffman Thursday afternoon April 12.

There will be a special school meeting Thursday evening April 12 at 8 o'clock for the purpose of electing a clerk to fill out the unexpired term of G. O. Swales.

L. A. Rautenburg has sold his farm to W. P. Brinkley who recently arrived from Texas. Mr. Brinkley bought all of the stock and equipment on the place. Mr. and Mrs. Rautenburg will go to California in the near future.

Mrs. S. B. Clark of Dallas is visiting old friends in Bethel. She is at the home of L. A. Rautenburg home today.

It is reported that C. M. Robinson has just received a shipment of about 600 baby chicks.

G. O. Swales will have a public sale Wednesday April 11, beginning at one o'clock sharp. He will leave for Washington on the evening of the following Friday.

Stock Market Quiet Waiting On Congress

New York, April 4.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said:

Today's stock market reflected little more than bear pressure exerted by the professional traders on the floor of the exchange and to some extent liquidation on the part of those holders who are opposed to war.

Early trading was fairly active with intervals of strength and weakness in the general list. By midday business fell away and thereafter a gradual decline took place, which emphasized the lack of public participation rather than bear initiative.

All eyes were on Washington. It became evident early in the day that the war resolution would not be acted upon in either the house or senate before this evening at the earliest and more likely tomorrow, due both to change in phraseology and to the number of speeches scheduled in the debate.

The most striking price movement was in the shipping shares, which were strong throughout, with gains of 2 to 3 points or so; the motor shares, which were distinctly weak, with losses of 2 to 4 points; and United States Industrial Alcohol which receded over 4

GERMANY DENIES VIOLATING TREATY

Says Americans Are Free to Depart—Now or at Any Time They Choose

Washington, April 4.—Germany in a communication addressed to the United States through the Swiss minister, has challenged the assertion that the German government has violated the treaties of 1785, 1799 and 1828.

American citizens, said the note, may freely leave Germany and for the most part have already done so.

The note, replying to this government's refusal to reaffirm the treaties declares the Uboat warfare does not contravene the provision of article twelve of the treaty of 1785, and article 13 of the treaty of 1799, since they do not oppose blockade or obstructions similar for the blockade.

The communication, dated March 30 1917, says:

The German government challenges the assertion that it has violated the treaties of 1785, 1799 and 1828. American citizens may freely leave Germany and for the most part have already done so," the note says.

Delayed by Conditions. "That departure from the country is delayed under certain circumstances is to be ascribed to necessary precautionary measures.

"Since the provisions of article 12 of the treaty of 1785 and article 13 of the treaty of 1799 do not oppose blockade or obstructions similar to blockade, the U-boat warfare does not contravene them. In turn Germany has a violation of those treaties in that without justification on the ground of neutrality that prevented the departure on and after the beginning of the war of various German merchant vessels, contrary to the treaty of 1828, contrary to article 19 of the treaty of 1799.

The American government in the Appam case also contested the right of the prize to stay in American ports and permitted judicial proceedings against the prize. Until further notice the German government will adhere to the maintenance of article 23 of the treaty of 1799, inasmuch as it assumes from the declaration heretofore made by the state department that the American government holds the same view of the present situation as well as for a possible state of war; in the same supposition it will place a liberal construction upon the article, that is to say will not prevent money remittances to the United States and also in particular honor imperial treasury certificates and continue to allow Americans to depart."

about 500 feet running from the landing constructed by Polk county, but the farmers have not been able to use this road was built of planks taken from this road was built of planks taken from the bridge no one excepting those using the charge ferry could pass on it. Just to straighten matters out about 150 farmers from Polk county proceeded to the plank road and tore down the railing that prevented its use. The guard posted to protect the railing, sat by and did not interfere. Today those who have been crossing on the free ferry have been using the plank road.

POLK COUNTY FARMERS OPENED WAY TO BRIDGE

Tore Down Railing Fencing Them Off From Approach to Free Ferry

About 150 indignant citizens of Polk county, as a protest against the actions of the Polk county officials in working against a free ferry, took the law in their own hands about 10 o'clock this morning. There is a plank road of points as a result of the movement for nation-wide prohibition.

The steel and copper shares were weak at intervals, but net changes were not considerable. The munitions, equipment and other specialties ruled fractionally lower. The railroad list was dull and narrow, with here and there a weak spot.

Doctors Stand Amazed at Power of Bon-Opto to Make Weak Eyes Strong—According to Dr. Lewis

Guaranteed to Strengthen Eyesight 50% In One Week's Time in Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home

Philadelphia, Pa. Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses, and those who wear glasses, will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored by this remarkable prescription and many who once wore glasses say they have thrown them away. One man says, after using it: "I was almost blind. Could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without my glasses and my eyes do not hurt any more. At night they would pain dreadfully. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "I was bothered with eye strain caused by overworked, tired eyes which induced fierce headaches. I have worn glasses for several years both for distance and work and without them I could not read my own name on an envelope or the type-writing on the machine before me. I can do both now and have discarded my long distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me."

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by the use of this prescription. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and let it dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation and redness will quickly disappear. If your eyes bother you even a little it is your duty to take steps to cure them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind had saved their sight if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "The Bon-Opto prescription is truly a wonderful eye remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. I have used it very successfully in my own practice on patients whose eyes were strained through overwork or mild cases of cataract. In cases of eye weakness, watery, aching, soreness, burning eyes, red lids, blurred vision or eye itches induced from exposure to smoke, gas, dust or wind. It is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for repair use in almost every family." Bon-Opto, referred to above, is not a patent medicine or secret remedy. It is an ethical preparation. The formulae being printed on the wrapper. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is sold in this city by D. J. Try and other druggists.

CALIFORNIA RANCHER SHOOT'S DOWN THREE

Worried by Litigation, Kills Justice of Peace, Lawyer and One Other

Hanford, Cal., April 4.—The lives of four men were claimed here today when L. T. Denny, aged 43, prominent rancher, in a quarrel with three men amuck in the downtown district and after murdering three men and threatening the life of another, was himself shot down by City Marshal W. J. Hines.

In rapid succession Denny shot down E. T. Cosper, prominent attorney, W. G. Wiley, agent of the Yuba Traction company of Los Angeles, and Justice of the Peace G. L. Meadows, and was about to shoot L. Whitley, who accompanied him in the court house, when Superior Judge Short intervened and saved Whitley's life.

Dementia brought on by worry over a suit brought against him by the traction company is believed to have impelled Denny to the deed. Recently Denny purchased a tractor from the Yuba company and later expressed dissatisfaction with it and refused to pay the bill when presented to him.

The shooting began in the office of Cosper, where Cosper, Wiley and John G. Covert, Denny's attorney, were in conference. While the discussion was in progress Denny suddenly entered, carrying a revolver. Without a word of parley, Denny opened fire. The first bullet killed Cosper and the second ended Wiley's life. While the shooting was in progress, Covert and a girl stenographer attempted to escape and the girl in her excitement fell down stairs and broke her leg.

Emerging from Cosper's office, Denny ran to the courthouse, in the same block, and into the court room of Justice Meadows. Before Meadows could utter a word Denny shot him down. Meadows had not been involved in any way in the litigation over Denny's tractor and the madman's reason for killing him is not known.

Denny has had a reputation as a "bad man" and on several occasions in the past has threatened to "get a gun and use it" against attorneys who crossed him.

This road was built of planks taken from the bridge no one excepting those using the charge ferry could pass on it. Just to straighten matters out about 150 farmers from Polk county proceeded to the plank road and tore down the railing that prevented its use. The guard posted to protect the railing, sat by and did not interfere. Today those who have been crossing on the free ferry have been using the plank road.
