29 Corporations and 18 Operators Indicted

New York, April 10. — Twenty-nine corporations and 18 individual coal operators were indicted by a federal grand jury here late yesterday on a charge of having violated the Sherman anti-trust law. The indictment charges a combination to fix prices for bunker coal, pointing out that the companies supply coal for approximately three thousand ocean-going steamships a year.

The more important firms and individuals indicted are Justice Collins, president of the Smokeless Fuel company; William C. Atwater, president of the William A. Water company; John E. Berwin, head of the Berwind Coal Mining company, and Robert H. Burroughs, of the New York & Philadelphia Coal & Coke company.

APPLICANTS FOR OFFICE EXAMINED TOMORROW

Class Asking Commissions As Second Lieutenants To Get "Once Over"

Wednesday, unless something unforeseen prevents, the examining board that is to pass on the class of applicants for second lieutenants of the officers reserve corps will be in Salem for an all day session. The class here numbers about forty and it is expected a large number of these will pass. Lieutenant R. D. Johnson, of the Oregon Agricultural college, is president of the examining board. The examination will principally be physical. Questions that will determine the candidates fitness for command will be asked of the officer as determine whether the applicant is eligible for a commission.

There was no preliminary examination last evening as Lieutenant Johnson was unable to get here. He was required to be in Corvallis this morning at seven o'clock and could not make connections if he came down last evening.

Just as soon as a candidate passes the examination and receives his commission, he will in all probability be sent directly to a training camp for a period of three or four months. There is preparation being made in Texas for a training camp that will accommodate ten thousand second lieutenants, first lieutenants and captains. Training camps are contemplated in other parts of the coast.

Arrangements have been made where by Lieutenant Johnson will come to Salem probably twice a week to give instruction to the class preparing for the grades above second lieutenant. Other officers have promised to help give instructions and it is expected the class will meet more frequently during the next three weeks. There is considerable interest expressed in the class by the army men and every effort is being made to facilitate its advance.

SOCIETY

By ALICE THOMPSON

Society matrons and maids are devoting a great deal of time this week to the annual Y. W. C. A. financial campaign, which began yesterday and will continue throughout the week.

Following its usual custom the association will give a series of teas during the campaign and various matrons who are members of the Y. W. C. A. will act as hostesses.

Each afternoon during the tea hours, a report of the work accomplished by the different teams will be read by the captains, and all interested are invited to attend.

Today Mrs. Fred S. Stewart acted as hostess, and again a number of women gathered in the association rooms for tea and to hear the results of the day's work.

Mrs. James Withycombe and Mrs. Frank G. Deckebach presided over the prettily appointed tea table and the matrons and maids assisting were Mrs. Hen W. Olett, Mrs. George E. Waters, Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton, Miss Mabel Withycombe, Miss Helen Deckebach and Miss Grace Bean.

Mrs. Charles Gray who came home from Eugene, Friday to pass the Easter vacation with the George William Grays, has gone to Portland for a few days visit and is at the Hotel Portland.

Miss Vesta Bretherton, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clifford Brown, for a few days, has returned to her home in Portland.

Miss Leonide Fleury of Portland is the house guest of the Misses Helen and Dorothy Pearce and will be here for about a week.

Yesterday the Misses Pearce and their guest went to Albany to attend the dancing party for which Miss Flora Mason was hostess last night.

Salem friends of Miss Evolene Calbreath, who is in New York this winter will be interested in the following from the Oregonian's New York column:

Miss Evolene Calbreath, who is studying voice culture with Frank X. Arens, is living at No. 61 West Seventy-fourth street. Miss Calbreath sang a very beautiful solo on Sunday at the Holy Trinity church, on Eighty-second street. Miss Calbreath expects to return to Portland this summer.

Mrs. Sherrill Fleming of Chehalis, Wash., who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Fleming and other relatives for several days, left Saturday, for a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Yergen near Hubbard.

The members of the aid society of the Woman's Relief Corps will meet Thursday for their regular afternoon of sewing at the home of Mrs. Norman Terwilliger, 770 Chemeketa street.

Miss Mignon Oliver arrived in Salem from Seattle Saturday night to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver, on South Winter street and will be here for about three weeks.

Miss Madge Nelson of Pendleton, who is attending St. Mary's Academy in Portland, passed the week end in Salem as the guest of her cousin, Miss Thelma Salisbury, of North Liberty street.

SALEM PEOPLE URGED TO JOIN RED CROSS

Willamette Chapter Recently Organized Here Needs Your Assistance

More Salem people are urged to join the Willamette chapter of the American National Red Cross society, which has recently been formed in this city. Chapters of the society are now being formed in every part of the United States, and it is urged that Salem wake up and do her part in the movement of mercy which is world wide in its scope, which knows no race or creed, and which works on the battlefield and in times of calamity, or wherever there is human misery.

To meet temporary crises temporary local organizations may be formed for the purpose of doing one or more specific kinds of work. This work is such as making hospital garments, surgical dressings, organizing classes in first aid, and home care of the sick.

Members of a church, Sunday school, students of schools, women's clubs or people in adjacent towns or villages can form such auxiliaries but, of course must join the American Red Cross. Blank application forms to be used in forming an auxiliary will be furnished in due course, upon request. An auxiliary will be furnished in due course, upon request. An auxiliary must be composed of at least ten members.

Every one should join the Red Cross. It is not for war only but if there is any terrible calamity, the Red Cross sends its doctors and nurses and money. Since 1905 the American Red Cross has been in over eighty relief operations, received and expended over $10,000,000 including over $3,000,000 for San Francisco earthquake and fire, over $2,400,000 for Ohio storm and flood relief, $1,600,000 European war relief, and smaller sums for mine disasters, fires, famine and helped nearly all countries and all peoples. Pay in your dollar and join. Mr. Eyre of the Unit-

AN INVITATION TO WOMEN

Women are invited to visit the laboratory of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. at Lynn, Mass., and see for themselves with what accuracy, skill and cleanliness this wonderful remedy for women's ailments is prepared. Over 350,000 pounds of roots and herbs are used annually in making this famous medicine. The great bins of herbs, the huge tanks filled with the medicine ready to be bottled, and the bottling room where it is put up and labeled for the market, cannot help but impress them with the reliability of this good, old fashioned root and herb remedy, which for the past forty years has been so successful in the home treatment of female ills.

ROOSEVELT CALLS ON

der a decision on the question "in his own due time." After talking with the president thirty minutes, Roosevelt came out and dictated the following statement to newspapermen:

"I came on desiring to see the president personally to reiterate what I have said about his message and to lay before him in detail and explain just what I desired in the case of the division and why it was my earnest hope and belief that it would be well that I should have the authorization to raise such a division to be sent as part of an expeditionary force to France and at an early moment.

"The division and myself, of course, would be put under the command of whoever was at the head of the expeditionary force. As I have said, I wish to lay the plans for the division somewhat in detail before the president.

"The president received me with utmost courtesy and consideration and doubtless in his own due time will come to a decision.

"I am heart and soul for the proposal of the administration for universal obligatory military training and service. You can call it conscription if you like. I am not afraid. I would favor it if it were for three million men.

"The division that I ask permission to raise, would be raised exclusively among the men who wouldn't be taken under the conscription system."

The car shortage affecting shipments of lumber to eastern markets is more severe than it has been, with no prospect for improvement, according to A. C. Dixon, manager of the Booth-Kelly Lumber company.
