ing of the state land board yesterday afternoon the Pacific Livestock company, represented by Attorney A. G. Shaw of Portland, asked that the suits be dismissed.
The question came up in the last session of the legislature when an appropriation of $50,000 was asked to continue the suits and prosecute to a final determination. At that time T. B. Kay, representing the state land board, and I. H. Van Winkle, representing the attorney general, appeared before the legislature.
The state land board averred it was not responsible for the suits and as they had been started by the governor it was up to that office to continue, if action is to be taken. The legislature failed to appropriate any money to finance the prosecution and the matter is halted. No action was taken by the board in the matter.

University Notes

In today's Collegian is published a letter from Paul Homan '14. At present Mr. Homan is engaged in Y. M. C. A. work among the British soldiers in Mesopotamia expedition. His letter dated Jan. 16, reached Salem a few days ago, and was in immediate reply to a letter sent him under date of Oct. 6. He says it had to follow a "pushy winter" course for over three months, which isn't so remarkable, since it had to go to the very last place to find me.
Campaign topics are taboo, and from his description of the country it is anything but a pleasant place to be.

"The principle things to describe are immeasurable deserts, palm trees, and Arabs, with a fauna of asses and camels."
Just now he is at Amara, about a third of the way up the Tigris toward Bagdad. "I have not been able to get up into the fighting line yet, and my adventures have been no more exciting or romantic than having sandflies in my bed at night and tons of sand down my neck by day. But in spite of it all, I acquire a propensity of girth that belies my simple habits."

At the next regular student body meeting two amendments will be considered, one to the constitution and the other to the by-laws of the organization. The one to the constitution is: To make article III, section 2 read: The dues of the organization shall be three ($3.00) dollars per semester, payable upon registration, upon payment of which the student shall be entitled to a ticket admitting him or her to all athletic contests conducted by the student body during that semester, and to a subscription to the Willamette Collegian.
The proposed amendment to the by-laws is to make article II, section 1, read: All moneys received from the student body dues shall go into a general fund, to be expended by order of the executive committee, except that 50 cents per semester for each $3.00 fee collected shall be turned over to the manager of the Willamette Collegian for the support of that paper.
These amendments virtually mean that the student body fee shall be increased $1 per year, and that the Collegian shall receive half of this increase for its support.

Three men have been forced to leave school. Under the doctor's advice Keith Lyman left Friday, for his home in Gresham. Harry Crisp and Floyd Holmes for their homes in Washington.
In addition to their regular program this week the Websterian Literary society will elect officers for the final quarter of this year.
Almost a complete reelection of officers was necessary to fill the vacancies in the varsity Y. M. cabinet. Alpheus Gillette was chosen president to take Ray Attebery's place; Harold Nichols, treasurer; Harold Eakin, devotional meetings; Homer Tasker, extension work; Blaine Bedingfield, Bible study, and Paul Doney, membership. The terms of these officers will expire at the close of the association term. Mr. Gillette is a senior and has always been an active Y. M. worker.

Schumann-Heink Weeps While Singing Anthem

San Diego, Cal., April 11.—With tears streaming down her cheeks, Mine Ernestine Schumann-Heink sang the Star Spangled Banner in a never-to-be-forgotten way to a crowd in the Grant hotel last night when she returned to her home here from Chicago.
The band of the Twenty First infantry, of which regiment the diva is honorary president, serenaded her on her arrival in the Grant lobby the band struck up the national anthem. There was a pause and then Schumann-Heink's voice took up the strain. High above the band her voice sounded and men in the street stopped and stood bareheaded until she had finished, sobbing.

"Oh, it is terrible," she cried. "I have four sons and a son in law ready and waiting to fight for America, while across the water another son fights in the German navy."

Four People Receive $3000 each

In our announcement last fall of the Eveready Contest for a better name than "flashlight," we stated that if "two or more contestants submit the word selected the full amount of the prize will be paid to each."

We have made our selection without regard to the number of duplications. The word chosen was submitted by the four following contestants, to each of whom we are paying $3000.00:

Mrs. F. C. Crow, 1219 2d St., N.E., Watertown, S.D.
Katherine W. Hand, 1501 Mulvane St., Topeka, Kan.
Miss J. M. Schulz, 239 2nd St., Union Hill, N. J.
Bertha A. Wilson, 413 Park Ave., Medina, N. Y.

The prize-winning word is DAYLO. It fulfills in a masterly way the requirements specified, viz: a coined word that we can register as a trade-mark and a name easy to remember and entirely simple to pronounce. "DAY" suggests perfect light, and "LO" means "Behold!"—"See!"

The true significance, the living ideal of the reliability and service characteristic of our product will hereafter find its expression in the new name, Eveready DAYLO.

I wish I might personally thank each of the half million contestants and the millions of Eveready friends and users who have contributed so earnestly to the success of our search for a new name.

Sincerely,

BUSINESSMEN ARE AGAINST "CONTESTS"

Portland Paper's Scheme Condemned—Character of Credit Suggested

The Salem Business Men's league at their monthly meeting held last evening went on record very positively on two propositions. One was that the league most heartily endorsed the action of the Patriotic league of the city in its endeavors to raise funds and the other was that its members as a body as well as individually were opposed to being solicited in any newspaper subscription contest wherein the merchants are to be asked to subscribe for a Portland paper.
Any person who attempts to hold up any merchant for a subscription to the Portland paper in this automobile giving away contest will be asked to see the secretary of the league and get a card. The league most positively frowns down on subscription contests of all kinds, whether put on by a Portland or Salem paper, and incidentally the Capital Journal was commended for standing against such contests.

The trading stamps bugaboo came in for its share of discussion and the efforts that had been made to defeat any legislation whereby the big companies dealing in trading stamps could come into the state. The sum of $50 was voted by the league to pay part of the expenses incurred in this work during the sessions of the late legislature.

Editor Duncan Talks.
Robert G. Duncan, managing editor of the Oregon Merchants' Magazine and secretary of the Portland Grocers' association, made a talk on "Organization." The burden of his song was that the local grocers or the business men of any city could not go through the world without being organized and he had the figures to show what well organized business could accomplish. As a shining example, he referred to the big mail order houses which had things so well organized that now almost every farmer had a mail order catalog occupying the main place on the center table.

As a means of fighting the big mail order houses, he suggested that a merchant should have in his store goods from the mail order houses and his own goods displayed together as an object lesson as to whether he could not sell as cheap, taking into consideration transportation charges.
Concerning Credits.
In discussing credit ratings, Mr. Duncan thought that not only those who were of doubtful pay should be rated, but even those who are regarded as good for anything they want. He thought a man might possibly be rated as all right for his grocery bill but not rated quite so prompt pay for millinery and drygoods; and that every merchant was entitled to know of both ratings.
Anyhow, Mr. Duncan claimed the two great enemies to the retail merchant were the mail order houses and those who forget to pay for merchandise and that if the retail men of Salem or any other city were to fight these two evils, it could not be done by individual efforts but by close organization.
To arrange for an interesting program at the next monthly meeting a committee of nine will be appointed by Fred W. Steusloff, director of the Business Men's league. Five of the committee were appointed last night, W. D. Evans, E. T. Barnes, O. J. Wilson, L. Westcott and William Foster. The other four will be appointed within a few days.
The business men who are members of this department turned out to the number of about 35 last evening and the general discussions rather indicated that the members of this department are interested in the problems before them, and know what they want.

Campi Got Decision.
Portland, Ore., April 11.—Eddie Campi, of San Francisco, won a clean cut decision over Lee Johnson, of Oakland, in six rounds here last night. Another Oakland boy, Joe Gorman, lost to Bill Mascott.

Extra! Walter McCredie and First Eater Stovall met on the battlefield and no fight resulted.

George has been telling how he was going to hit Walt as soon as the two met, but the only hit he got was a single in the sixth which scored two of Vernon's three runs.

Walt wasn't hit but his heart was busted, at that.

The Beavers were helpless before Art Fromme's shoots and could elc out only four hits. Two of them were for extra bases and scored Portland's only run.

The Seals now occupy the top of the league all alone.

They certainly did land on old Bill Burns in the first inning.

Bill lasted long enough to put the ball up to five batters, each one of whom got a hit.

One of these was a scorching triple by Phil Koerner and when Bill retired from the fray there were four runs in and none out.

"Pop" Arlett took up the cudgel at this stage and the first crack out of the box wild pitched another run in. He wobbled badly in the second when the Seals grabbed three more hits and two runs, but "Pop" succeeded in retaining his goat and thereafter pitched nicely.

Final score: Seals, 7; Oaks, 1.

Rain postponed the scheduled opener of the Bees and Angels at Salt Lake.
