

SOCIETY

By ALLEN THOMPSON

Mrs. Milton L. Meyers yesterday entertained with a charming stag dinner in honor of Mr. Meyers, on the occasion of his birthday anniversary.

An artistic arrangement of vivid-hued spring flowers decked the prettily appointed table around which were seated Mr. Meyers and several of his friends including Henry W. Meyers, Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, Charles L. Dick, Frank W. Durbin, Dr. L. P. Griffith, Walter A. Denton, George E. Waters, Dr. W. H. Byrd, S. A. Koser, George G. Brown and Dr. Harry H. Olinger.

Mrs. E. F. Waters left this morning for Portland where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. William C. Knigton, and other relatives for several days.

She was accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Louanna Waters, who returned home after a short visit in Salem.

Mrs. Chas. Gray who has been passing several days in Salem with the George William Grays, returned to Eugene Sunday night.

A group of young girls made merry Thursday night at the delightful birthday party given for Miss Marie Schullerman at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Schullerman.

The table was all done in a pretty lavender and yellow color scheme, with vivid rose buds marking the places.

The evening's gayeties were rounded out with Easter games and Miss Francis Dick captured the prize.

Miss Schullerman's guests were, Miss Ruth Griffith, Miss Frances Dick, Miss Lenta Baumgartner, Miss Margaret Stols, Miss Katherine Hartley and Miss Prudence Patterson.

Mrs. Charles H. Fisher returned Saturday from Portland, where she has been passing several days with her sister, Mrs. E. McBroom and daughter, Miss Nellie McBroom, who have been visiting there from Chehalis.

Mrs. Ralph Glover entertained informally several days ago with an afternoon of bridge.

Guests were asked to make up four tables of the game, the card honors falling to Mrs. George Schaefer.

A golden color scheme was developed in the card rooms by the use of yellow spring flowers. A huge basket of similar blossoms also decked the pretty refreshment table.

Mrs. Glover's guests included the members of a Monday afternoon bridge club and several additional matrons who were, Mrs. John Brophy, Mrs. George P. Fox, Mrs. L. S. Geer, Mrs. Paul Johnson and Mrs. Elma B. Martin of Portland.

Affairs for the Red Cross still are occupying an important place in the daily routine of society, and the next thing is a luncheon to be given Wednesday by the Nurses Auxiliary of the Red Cross at the Derby building on Court and High streets.

During the afternoon tea also will be served. All interested in the work are invited to participate in both affairs.

The members of the Elite Embroidery club gathered at the home of Mrs. Nellie Knox, 1541 North Front street for an informal afternoon several days ago, and the time was passed pleasantly with sewing.

Later a dainty collation was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Ray Clark and Mrs. Fred Prince.

Miss Abbie Davis asked several of her friends to her home for an informal evening on Wednesday. With games and music a delightful evening was enjoyed, and at a late hour the hostess served dainty refreshments.

Those gathering for the evening were Miss Julia Iverson, Miss Mabel Tomple, Miss Emma Moore, Miss Marie Peterson, Miss Pearl Allen, Miss Edna Canning, Miss Elva Austin, Miss Adelaide Chapler and Miss Josephine Gilbert.

At the Y. W. C. A. a board meeting will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. There also will be an executive meeting at 10:15 o'clock.

A large number of folk assembled at St. Joseph's hall Wednesday night to attend the entertainment given by the women of St. Joseph's church for the benefit of the parochial house.

The proceeds were gratifying and those in charge were very elated over the success of the affair.

Mrs. Joseph LeBold had charge of the arrangements and the programme included a short play "His Model Wife," which was preceded by selections from the academy quartet including a mandolin solo, Francis Alley; song, "I See You Little Playmate," children's mandolin quartet, Mr. Alley director; legedemain, A. E. Huckestein; solo, Prof. Dan Langen-

Two German attacks were checked. "Following a tremendous artillery preparation in Lorraine and Alsace French detachments entered German trenches at several places," the war office asserted.

"In Alsace," the report continued, "French detachments reached the second German lines at six different places."

Commander in Chief.

Petrograd, April 16—General Alexieff was today named commander in chief of all Russia's armies. He had been chief staff of the army.

BOND BILL REPORTED

Washington, April 16—With little discussion and no opposition, the senate finance committee today reported favorably the $7,000,000,000 bond bill.

The bill will be rushed through the senate tomorrow to make available the flood of gold, Senator Simmons said.

Only three minor amendments were added to the bill as it came from the house.

BALFOUR AND PARTY

democracy against autocracy will then be definitely determined. Not only the question of co-operation on the fighting field, but problems of feeding and furnishing the European nations with provisions and money. Foreign Minister Balfour will reach New York at 5:30 this afternoon. He is expected to continue on to Washington after a brief stay in New York. The exact time the French commissioners are expected to arrive is not known but it is expected they will be here some time Wednesday.

When Itching Stops

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and skin irritation almost instantly and that cleanses and soothes the skin. Ask any druggist for a 25c or $1 bottle of zemo and apply it as directed. Soon you will find that irritations, pimples, black heads, eczema, blotches, ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear. A little zemo, the penetrating, satisfying liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes all skin eruptions and makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy. The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

The conference with the president will be the first of the series of joint meetings devising aid which America will render the allies and the extent of the United States co-operation in military and naval affairs.

One of the first questions to be taken up with the United States government by Balfour will be arrangements to be subject British residents in the United States to conscription in the American army, or the option of volunteering in the British army, it became known today on unquestioned authority.

The mere fact that British subjects resident in America for a number of years have failed to take naturalization papers, it is intended, shall not exempt them from service either here or abroad. Arrangements also will be discussed whereby Great Britain may be allowed to recruit British subjects in this country for her armies.

PEACE ADVOCATES

LaPrensa, editorially demanded punishment of everybody connected with the use of the Argentine flag on the steamer Monte Protogido, the torpedoing of which aroused the latest storm of anti-German feeling here. La Prensa insisted that the Monte Protogido was illegally flying the Argentine colors, not being registered as an Argentine vessel.

ROCKEFELLER FEUD

had left the Standard Oil company never to return; and that he had taken a vow never again to speak to his brother. The quarrel was said to have been over business affairs.

Both men spent part of each year in Cleveland, John coming from New York and Frank from his ranch in Kansas. They lived not far apart, but they studiously avoided seeing or hearing of each other.

Even when he knew he was going to die, Frank prohibited those about him informing his brother John.

Nothing vexed Frank Rockefeller more than to be referred to as "John D.'s brother."

He was Frank Rockefeller, stockman, he said, and John D. was no concern of his.

Not long ago William Rockefeller made an unsuccessful attempt to reconcile his two brothers.

Frank, although he made a large fortune in stocks, did not begin to equal his brother John's fortune, but he lavished as much care and affection on his seven-mile square farm in Kansas as John D. has on his Pocomtio Hills estate.

Two Hundred Attend Odd Fellows Convention

The Marion county district Odd Fellows convention held in Salem last Saturday was attended by about 200. Many of the Rebekahs of the Salem and subordinate lodges were present for the open afternoon session and the banquet in the evening.

Grand lodge degrees were conferred on a number of candidates and the Chemeketa lodge No. 1 team put on the model team work.

Following is a list of those who took the grand lodge degree: J. W. L. Smith, A. A. Corb, C. C. Engstrom, C. C. Clark, J. W. Roberts and B. F. West of Salem; U. B. Teats and J. D. Marshall of Dallas; F. W. Allen, Miles Adanson and Henry Schroeder of Silverton; J. G. Whiteman of Buena Vista; H. M. Barnett and J. M. Hamilton of Turner; W. A. Weddle and B. A. AN OPERATION AVERTED

Philadelphia, Pa.—"One year ago I was very sick and I suffered with pains in my side and back until I nearly went crazy. I went to different doctors and they all said I had female trouble and would not get any relief until I would be operated on. I had suffered for four years before this time, but I kept getting worse the more medicine I took. Every month since I was a young girl I had suffered with cramps in my sides and periods and was never regular. I saw your advertisement in the newspaper and the picture of a woman who had been saved from an operation and this picture was impressed on my mind. The doctor had given me only two more days to make up my mind so I sent my husband to the drug store at once for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and believe me, I soon noticed a change and when I had finished the third bottle I was cured and never felt better. I grant you the privilege to publish my letter and am only too glad to let other women know of my cure."—Mrs. THOS. MCGONIGAL, 3432 Hartville Street, Phila., Pa.
