Kindness Week Is Here Teaching Humaneness

This week is great on the calendar of kindness. It is humane week during which petition is made for kindness to all living creatures. Launched under the auspices of the Oregon Humane Society, it is set apart for the practice of mercy and consideration for the voiceless.

Teachers in the schools over the state have been asked to give instructions this week on the humane treatment of animals and many have declared their happy co-operation in the work. Motion picture theatres in Salem have responded to the plea for aid in spreading the gospel of kindness by arranging to flash appropriate slogans on the screens.

Human Sunday is April 22 and many churches over the state have responded to the request to devote at least part of the service to pleas for kindness to animals. Members of the Oregon Humane Society have worked tirelessly everywhere asking that Humane Week be observed in order that its lessons may be of the broadest circulation and lasting value.

SEATTLE HAS PLAN TO STOP FOOD GAMBLING

Seattle, Wash., April 16.—To eliminate the middleman's profit and to reduce to a minimum the possibility of food speculation, the port commission of Seattle will utilize its enormous facilities in warehouse and storage plants in a plan which will actually bring the producer and consumer together.

Wou'd Receive Products and Sell Them to Grocers, Also to the Public

Details of this powerful campaign against food speculation has not yet been worked out, but in general, President Robert Bridges, of the port commission, has mapped out the following program: The port commission, through its traffic department, to act in the same manner as the commission houses, to receive food products and then to sell them direct to grocers, butchers, fish markets, dealers of all kinds and to individuals.

WITNESS TESTIFIES HE ACTED AS DUMMY

Was Paid $500 for Land Worth a Million—How Companies Got Oil Land

New York, April 16.—The first witness in the government suit to recover valuable oil lands from fourteen California oil companies before United States Commissioner Hitchcock today revealed that he, as a dummy owner, turned over a tract worth millions for the sum of $500.

By use of "dummies," men who conformed with government regulations in taking up the land under homestead laws, the government alleges, the companies secured 22,000 acres of San Joaquin valley oil land worth $35,000,000 for a few thousand dollars.

Frank B. Chapman, salesman of Elizabeth, N. J., testified he received $500 for the use of his name from L. B. McMurtry, a Pomona, Cal., oil agent. The defendant companies are: The Consolidated Mutual Oil company; May Consolidated company, 32 oil company; Standard Oil of California; Union Oil; Associated Oil company of California; Midway Gas company; J. M. McLead company, Southern California Gas company, United Oil company; California Midway, Columbus Midway, and General Petroleum Oil company.

URGES BETTER FARMING METHODS

Here are four pertinent suggestions from the Food Conference held by Governor Capper, of Kansas, a few days ago. One hundred and fifty farmers met and discussed means of speeding up production and growing more per acre on their farms. Resolutions adopted by the conference stated that "in view of the pressing need for attention to maintaining and increasing soil fertility and crop production."

PRESIDENT WARNS AGAINST TREASON

Points Out What Constitutes It and Character of Penalty

Washington, April 16.—President Wilson this afternoon issued a proclamation through the state department pointing out what treason is and the penalty as provided by the constitution, the criminal code and court decisions.

The constitution provides that treason consists in levying war against the United States or in adhering to our enemies. The criminal code provides the death penalty as the maximum and not less than $10,000 fine as the minimum.

The use or attempt to use violence against the government or its military or naval forces; use of any property with knowledge or intent that it shall aid the enemy; performance of any act or publication of any statement or information which will give in any way "aid and comfort to the enemies of the United States"; directing, aiding, counseling or countenancing of any of the foregoing acts; such acts are treasonable, whether done in the United States or elsewhere and whether committed by a United States citizen or an alien domiciled here.
