VOLUNTEER SYSTEM

MAY BE RECOMMENDED

Washington, April 16.-The vote of the committee against selective draft indicated that unless sentiment in the committee will recommend the volunteer system be given a tryout before conscription is resorted to to raise an army of 500,000 for service in Europe. Two important amendments to the general stuff bill were introduced in the committee today. They will be one amendment, by Chairman Dent, would give the volunteer system a trial but would give President Wilson power at any time to declare the volunteer system a failure and order conscription.

Another amendment by Representa tive Anthony of Kansas, provides for raising the army by a volunteer system. However, a military census of military, eligibles will be started at once. It, within five months, the number of troops required have not volunteered, conscription will be begun immediate

The selective draft was defended to-day by Representative Borland, Mis-souri, as the "fairest, safest and most
