THE MARKETS

The following prices for fruits and vegetables are those asked by the wholesaler of the retailer, and not what is paid to the producer. All other prices are those paid the producer. Corrections are made daily.

The price of wheat seems to slide up and down with the changes in the general market and also as to the quality of wheat. Hence the quotation of $1.60 and $1.65 is rather indefinite. Asparagus and green peas are cheaper on the wholesale market. The egg market is strong in Portland with a 30 and 32 cent price. It seems that the average hen does not approve of this kind of spring weather, resulting in a falling off of supplies.

Table with columns for Grains, Butter, Eggs and Poultry, Pork, Veal and Mutton, Figs and Dates, Vegetables, Fruits, and Retail Prices.

Monmouth News

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Monmouth, Ore., April 17.—The Monmouth grange met in regular session last Saturday, April 14, in the I. O. O. F. hall, the topic of the day being "Good Roads." Two sessions were held during the day, a morning session beginning at 10:30, also one in the afternoon at 1:30. Both were open to the public. A number of men prominent in the fight to secure the road measure were present and each discussed the topic thoroughly from his own individual viewpoint. The principal speakers were: Senator C. L. Hawley, I. L. Patterson, of Eola, who is president of the Polk County Good Roads association. Others who also spoke on the program were: Mr. Benjamin Worsley, of Astoria; Mr. Barber, of Douglas county, and two prominent local men, Mr. J. H. Ackerman, president of the Oregon Normal school, and Mr. Thomas H. Gentile, who spoke very favorably of the bill. In fact there seemed to be no opposition whatever to the bill. Practically all of the afternoon was spent in discussion of the topic, the only two numbers of entertainment being a reading by Mr. E. R. Ostrom and a vocal solo by Mr. Harold Haley. One feature of the meeting was a collection taken for the benefit of Company L, 40th Infantry. With part of the money, a case of butter was purchased, the remainder sent as cash. All those present at the meeting declared it to have been most interesting and profitable.

Girls Form Honor Guard During the past week Monmouth girls have made known their patriotism by organizing a National Honor Guard. The organization was formed in the normal school with a membership of nearly 200 girls, the majority of them being students in the normal school. Two classes were formed to take up the work, one for the purpose of giving instruction in first aid work and the other in the care and repair of automobiles. Each class will meet every Saturday for two hours and each member is required to become proficient in some one thing which does not hinder any normal school work. The girls are given instruction in first aid work, which many of them take advantage of. Out of the 43 boys who were enrolled in the state normal school, eight have already enlisted. Two others who tried to enlist were rejected because of some physical disability. One more from the normal is planning to enlist soon, making a total of 11 who would readily defend their country at first call. Those normal school students are: Birchard VanLone, Edwin Brown, Stanley Evans, Chad Newhouse, Douglas Parks, Cyril Richardson and Carlton Shaanks. Clarence Soderstrom has joined the coast artillery.

Last Tuesday the city council of Monmouth held a short business session for a discussion of asking for bids to continue the paving of streets in Monmouth. There is much agitation of late for the paving of Monmouth streets, but as this improvement will be much more expensive than the paving of Main street, it will no doubt be some little time before this is accomplished. An account of the war situation the students of the Oregon Normal school have voted to abandon for this year their annual May day festivities and to substitute a patriotic program to be held publicly on April 19. It is thought that the citizens of Monmouth will join with the normal students in celebrating this patriotic day in the most appropriate manner of the occasion. Two programs are being planned for the day, both entirely separate. One will be presented by the normal students in chapel next Thursday forenoon and one by the public at large in the afternoon out of doors near the band stand. Attorney General Brown will be in Monmouth that day and has consented to address both gatherings.

The normal students who recently presented to the public "The Flower Shop," are planning to give the same production in one of the Dallas theatres on next Friday night. The "Golden Rule" class of the local Christian church had a very pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. R. B. Swenson Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Simpson, of Salem, is now conducting revival meetings in the Evangelical church. Miss Ruth B. Parrot represented the normal faculty in chapel last Friday morning, her topic being "Some of the Lessons I Have Gleaned From Reading."

Sheep receipts 405; market firm; best east of mountain lambs $11.25; valley lambs $11@11.15; wethers $10; ewes $9; spring lambs $15.

Three men and two women were taken to the hospital and others may be in the wrecked portion of the building.

Austin, Mr. Barrick's brother-in-law. Troy Bogard spent last week with his parents. He is a student of the Oregon Agricultural college. Mr. and Mrs. Skiller, of Monitor, visited Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Hendricks Saturday. Mrs. Harry Price, of Dallas, is a guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Eason. Mr. Verne Hoskins, of Donald, was in town Saturday. Mr. Hicks made a business trip to Silverton Thursday. Miss Iva Feller spent the latter part of last week in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Mahoney, of Fairfield, were Woodburn visitors Monday. Miss Estella Mosherberger spent last week-end with relatives in Mt. Angel.

Mr. Dorroughy expects to plant an acre of beans this season. If a few more of the neighbors would do likewise we could get a bean thrasher to visit Liberty next fall. The "Ready to Serve" Sunday school class will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Weaver home Saturday evening, April 21. Every member is requested to be present as there is some very important business to be transacted. Quite a large number of the younger set went to Salem Heights Friday evening to attend the dance at the hall. They are private dances and a merry time is always assured. Mr. Frickey has secured a piano for the Liberty hall and next Thursday night will be the next dance. Clarence Holder will soon leave for Alaska where his brother is working in the mines. Clarence has a good job awaiting him as janitor in a large building. It is reported that a swim will soon be in operation a short distance south of Liberty. It is the mill that was previously operated on Puddin' river. Mr. T. C. Chestnut sold one of his horses last week.

Perry's Drug store, 115 S. Com' T.

Liberty News Notes (Capital Journal Special Service.) Liberty, Ore., April 17.—The Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. E. E. Roberts Thursday afternoon. There was a large attendance and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. Mrs. Bertha Dorman has been visiting with relatives and friends. Mrs. Dorman is a daughter of Mr. Weaver and spent her girlhood at Liberty. Her home is now at Falls City. Mrs. Sugar entertained company from Eugene Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Elgin have returned to their home in Salem and Mrs. Cleveland expects to move to the ranch to spend the summer. Little Billy Rieckhaug is reported quite ill with measles. Geo. Elgin's new Maxwell caused quite a commotion on the Pacific highway Sunday when passing Mr. Bates with three horses. The horses pulled Mr. Bates from the buggy and injured his knee very badly, although no bones were broken. Two of the horses were colts which accounts for their being afraid of a Maxwell. Mr. W. Westonhouse decided a Ford, neither a team of mules could successfully do his farm work, so purchased a fine span of horses Saturday and will soon be ready to begin steady work on the road. Several of the ladies from Liberty have been attending Dr. Elliott's lectures on health and found them interesting and beneficial. If we should follow his instructions it would help to solve the high cost of living in a very material way for some of us. Why don't Liberty get busy for a high school? There will be one around here some place and why not at Liberty? Mr. R. D. Gibson and Mr. McDonald were around contracting loganberries for the coming season. Mr. Gibson expects to run his dryer. The berries will be contracted through the union. Miss Maybelle Wagner spent the week-end in McMinnville.

My poor lady's foot is again beautiful! What a joy and comfort to be able to wear those nice, new shoes without one toe bit of pain. A trim, neat foot is a joy forever—an aching, aching foot is an annoyance. Why continue to suffer foot tortures and the discomfort of ill-shaped shoes when "Bunion Relief" is guaranteed to give you instant relief. Her foot used to look like this, but she now wears small shoes again and is happy without pain in or about her bunions.

Bethel Notes (Capital Journal Special Service.) Bethel, Ore., April 16.—Mrs. B. B. Hoffman and Mrs. Ida S. Baker joined in entertaining the Bethel Thimble club on April 12. The time was passed with fancy work. Each guest was asked to tell some funny story while partaking of the lunch as laughter causes one to eat slower and this helps digestion. One of the features of the meeting was the baby picture contest. It had been announced at the last meeting that there would be a contest and each guest was asked to bring her baby picture. Ten guests brought pictures. One brought the picture of a grandchild since she had none of her own. Another brought a baby picture of her child. Three of the guests guessed all of the pictures correctly so there must have been quite a resemblance in the case of the child and of the grandchild. The three who guessed correctly cast lots to see which should have first prize. Mrs. Banteburg was awarded first prize and Mrs. Curtis second. Mrs. Ida S. Baker read, "If All Who Hate Would Love Us." The verses were clipped from the Capital Journal of March 29. Those present were Mrs. M. R. Curtis, Mrs. E. E. Matten, Mrs. Lena Landerback, Mrs. J. E. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. C. M. Robinson, Mrs. O. H. Heinke, Mrs. D. M. Perry, D. J. Fry, Opera House Pharmacy, Mrs. A. H. Baestman, Miss

Come on Over, See My Corn Fall Off! "I Put 2 Drops of 'Gets-It' on Last Night—Now Watch—" "See—all you have to do is to use your foot and lift the corn right off. That's the way "Gets-It" always works. You just put on about 2 drops. Then the corn not only shrivels, it loosens from the toe, without affecting the surrounding flesh in the least. Why, it's almost a pleasure to have corns and see how "Gets-It" gets them off in a hurry and without the least pain. I can wear tight shoes, dance and walk as though I never had corns." "Gets-It" makes the use of irritating salves, bandaging, tape, plasters and other things not only foolish, but unnecessary. This wonderful discovery, "Gets-It" for any soft or hard corn or callus. It is the new, simple, easy, quick way, and it never fails. You'll never have to cut a corn again with knives or scissors, nor run chances of blood poisoning. Try "Gets-It" tonight. "Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Salem and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry, Opera House Pharmacy, Brooker, Mrs. A. H. Baestman, Miss

One of the features of the meeting was the baby picture contest. It had been announced at the last meeting that there would be a contest and each guest was asked to bring her baby picture. Ten guests brought pictures. One brought the picture of a grandchild since she had none of her own. Another brought a baby picture of her child. Three of the guests guessed all of the pictures correctly so there must have been quite a resemblance in the case of the child and of the grandchild. The three who guessed correctly cast lots to see which should have first prize. Mrs. Banteburg was awarded first prize and Mrs. Curtis second. Mrs. Ida S. Baker read, "If All Who Hate Would Love Us." The verses were clipped from the Capital Journal of March 29. Those present were Mrs. M. R. Curtis, Mrs. E. E. Matten, Mrs. Lena Landerback, Mrs. J. E. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. C. M. Robinson, Mrs. O. H. Heinke, Mrs. D. M. Perry, D. J. Fry, Opera House Pharmacy, Brooker, Mrs. A. H. Baestman, Miss

Come on Over, See My Corn Fall Off! "I Put 2 Drops of 'Gets-It' on Last Night—Now Watch—" "See—all you have to do is to use your foot and lift the corn right off. That's the way "Gets-It" always works. You just put on about 2 drops. Then the corn not only shrivels, it loosens from the toe, without affecting the surrounding flesh in the least. Why, it's almost a pleasure to have corns and see how "Gets-It" gets them off in a hurry and without the least pain. I can wear tight shoes, dance and walk as though I never had corns." "Gets-It" makes the use of irritating salves, bandaging, tape, plasters and other things not only foolish, but unnecessary. This wonderful discovery, "Gets-It" for any soft or hard corn or callus. It is the new, simple, easy, quick way, and it never fails. You'll never have to cut a corn again with knives or scissors, nor run chances of blood poisoning. Try "Gets-It" tonight. "Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Salem and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry, Opera House Pharmacy, Brooker, Mrs. A. H. Baestman, Miss
