By ALICE THOMPSON

MISS RITA STEINER will be missed from the gayeties of the next few weeks, having left this morning for a sojourn in New York.

Miss Steiner plans to be away for a month or more and will visit en route in Chicago, Philadelphia and several other interesting places.

Mrs. W. G. Allen asked several maids to her home for an informal afternoon of sewing on Thursday, her guests being the members of a small Kensington club.

The rooms were charming with an artistic array of wild flowers.

Those gathering for the afternoon were Mrs. John H. Albert, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. E. A. Elliott, Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. William Kirk, and Mrs. Richard N. Avison.

Clarence Bishop of Pendleton came up from Portland the latter part of the week to pass the week end with the C. P. and Chauncey Bishops.

The marriage of Miss V. Rose Pratt to Benjamin J. Werner of Dallas was solemnized Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pratt, 1836 North Commercial street. The couple were unattended, and at the ceremony were only the members of the family and a few close friends.

The bride, who is a very pretty girl, wore a smart tulle of navy blue serge with a gold colored hat and a corsage of sweet peas.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner left for a wedding trip in the north, and upon their return will make their home in Dallas.

Mrs. J. W. Woodruff entertained the members of a "country club" very informally with a few tables of "500" at her home in Keizer Bottom, on Thursday afternoon.

After the card game the hostess was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by Mrs. Seymour Jones.

One of the merriest of the closing festivities of last week was the masquerade party given by Miss Opal McDaniels Friday night at her home on North Winter street.

Games formed the evening's diversion after which the gayeties were closed with refreshments.

Those bidden were Miss Martha Zosel, Miss Nellie Free, Miss Maryanne Miller, Miss Amelia Taylor, Miss Maude Givens, Miss Marguerite Crossan, Miss Mabel Nye, Miss Esther Garde, Miss Mildred Kaylor, Miss Ruth Welborn, Clarke Craig, Clifford Dane, Roy Cleveland, Earl Dane, James Gardner, Floyd McIntire, Malcolm Cooper, Clifford Townsend and Harold Walling.

Honoring Mrs. Theodore Roth on the occasion of her birthday anniversary a group of friends gathered at the Roth home on D street Wednesday night.

The affair was a surprise and the honor guest was showered with attractive gifts.

The evening was devoted to music and progressive games, after which refreshments were served.

Those gathering for the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. John Broer, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jenks, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Reasoner, Mr. and Mrs. William Foster, Mrs. John Winstanley, Miss Ermine Bushnell, Miss Mina Gile and Miss Mollie Pearmine.

Mrs. Edith Franklin and son, Leland, passed the week end in Portland as the guests of Mrs. Maxine Hageborn.

The second of a series of recitals being given this season at Waller hall of the Willamette University will be tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

The following is the programme: Piano solo, Spring Song (Lieding) Miss May Conley.

Violin solo, Adagio, 10th symphony (Hayden); Tripping Measures (Franklin) Ross Harris.

Piano solo, Second Nocturne (Leshetzky) Miss Ethelyn Sybil Hansen.

Soprano solo, My home is where the heather blooms (DeKoven) Poppies

German Attacks Repulsed.

Paris, April 23.—French troops fought back two violent German attacks in the vicinity of Moronvilliers and Mont Haut in fierce fighting, the French official statement today asserted. Three German surprise attacks in the Woivre and the Vosges—evidently designed to create a diversion and relieve pressure of the great French offensive to the north—were likewise beaten back.

Active artillery combat from south of St. Quentin to Rheims was reported. "From south of St. Quentin and Soissons to Rheims, during the night artillery on both sides was most active," the war office declared. "East of Craonne there was a bombardment preceding German attacks. We counter-attacked and the German attacks did not materialize."

"In the Champagne two German attacks on Mont Haut and Moronvilliers were followed by heavy fighting, the attacks being checked by artillery and (DeKoven) Miss Lela Belle McCaddam. Piano solo, Spring Carol (Merkel); sublimating Spring (Rive-King) Miss Irene Cole Eddy.

Contralto solo, Love's Coronation (Aylward) Miss Esther Pauline Cox. Violin obligato by Miss Lucile McCully.

Piano solo, Elfin Dance (Jensen); Alpine Horn (Schirner) Miss Evangeline Ora Hall.

Soprano The Nightingale and the Rose (Hayley); Norman Cradle Song (DeKoven); With You (Nutting) Miss Lucile Dunbar McCully.

Piano solo, Romance (Grunfeld); Valse de Concert (Wieniawski) Miss Venita McKinney.

Violin solo, Valse Joyeuse (Kern) Floyd Siegmund.

Baritone solo, On the Road to Mandalay (Speaks) Paul Stirling.

Mezzo-soprano solo, Angel's Serenade (Braga); violin obligato by Frank Frickey; Coult I (Tosti) Mrs. Vera Schaupt Frickey.

Piano solo, Prelude in A No. 7, (Chopin); prelude in E minor No. 4 (Chopin); nocturne in E flat (Chopin); prelude in F minor No. 18 (Chopin) Miss Nellie Myrtle Beaver.

Accompanists, Miss Esther Pauline Cox, Miss Joy Turner and Dr. Chace.

Pupils of Mrs. Chace, Misch Cox and Mrs. Frickey.

Pupils of Miss Turner, Miss May Conley, Ross Harris and Floyd Siegmund.

Pupils of Dr. Chace, Miss Hansen, McCaddam, Miss Eddy, Miss Hall, Miss McCully, Miss McKinney, Mr. Stirling, Miss Beaver.

The public is cordially invited to attend all recitals given by the department of music, Willamette University. Recitals begin promptly at eight o'clock and there are no encores.

WALLINGFORD WILL

AID THE RED CROSS

Splendid Play To Be Presented Friday and Entire Proceeds Go To Society

The Elks' play, "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," which was staged at the Grand on April 3 and 4, will be repeated on Friday evening of this week for the benefit of the local chapter of the American Red Cross society.

Maybe you already know this. But there are probably some things about the forthcoming revival of the big show that you don't know, and for your own good and for the good of the country you ought to know them. So kindly listen while we hand out a paragraph or two of new dope on the subject, and then help spread it.

The Red Cross society needs money. It needs a lot of it. It needs it badly, and it needs it right now. They have a chance to take in five or six hundred dollars with "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," and they want you to help them do it. They want to junk the Grand jammed full Friday night. Every dollar taken in at the box office will be given directly to the Red Cross. There will not be a single penny of expense taken out of the receipts, and one hundred per cent of the price of your ticket will go into the coffers of the Salem chapter.

"Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" you have the biggest opportunity you ever had to help this greatest of all humanitarian organizations, and, at the same time to help yourself to the merriest evening of your life. You kill two birds with one stone. You help your country and help yourself for the price of one ticket. You make the Red Cross a little present of six bits or a dollar and see the show for nothing, or you pay six bits or a dollar to see the show and thereby automatically contribute that sum to the Red Cross. Take it either way you like—you can't beat it.

Kick in, Patriots, kick in! If you have already seen "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" you can do the Red Cross a lot of good by telling your friends what a whale of a play it is—and seeing that they don't miss it this time. If you want to see it again yourself you'll be as welcome as a Roosevelt army in France. The show will be just as good, or better, than ever, and the price will be no higher.

If you haven't seen "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," then by all means see it. For your special benefit opportunity has side-stepped its time-honored rule, and is knocking at your door again. If you miss "Wallingford" this time you'll be sorry all the rest of your life. Ask any of the twelve hundred people who saw it three weeks ago when it smashed all local theatrical records, both artistic and financial. They'll advise you to see it for your own good, and we strongly suggest that for the good of the Red Cross you take their advice.

The seat sale for "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" will open at the opera house pharmacy Thursday morning, April 26, at 9 o'clock. The prices are 50, 75 and $1—same as they were before. There will be one performance, and no more.

machine gun fire. "East of St. Mihiel, in the Woivre and in the Vosges three German surprise attacks were beaten back."

The German Version. Berlin, via London, April 23.—Fighting on a wide front, with repulse of English attacks by counter thrusts, was announced in today's official report.

"Yesterday to the northwest of Lens the English penetrated into our first line on a distance of about 500 meters," the statement said. "They were driven back by a counter attack."

"Early this morning, after drum fire, fighting recommenced on a wide front."

Turks Badly Whipped. London, April 23.—British forces north of Baghdad have achieved another brilliant victory over the Turks, an official statement announced today.

"On Saturday night the enemy evacuated the remainder of its Istabul position which we stormed and consolidated on Saturday," the statement said.

"On Sunday at daybreak we pursued the Turks from Istabul, capturing prisoners and one 5.9 howitzer," the statement continued. "The enemy was found occupying a position to the right of the Tigris, six miles nearer Samarra, which is being attacked."

Margaret Garrison Wins Probi Contest Will Represent State

Margaret Garrison, representing Willamette University, won first place in the State Intercollegiate Prohibition association oratorical contest at McMinnville, Saturday night.

A "new reconstruction" was the title of the winning oration. In this Miss Garrison assumed the triumph of prohibition, but told of the evils inherent in the period of reconstruction. In support of her contention she reminded one of the troublesome times after the close of the Civil war. The speaker contended that it was the prohibitionists duty to provide adequate substitutions for the saloon as a social center and the liquor industry as a means of livelihood for the thousands of citizens.

The victory was a decisive one, Miss Garrison was awarded five firsts out of a possible six; three in composition and two in delivery. As a prize the winner was presented with $50, furnished by the associated student body of McMinnville College. This victory gives Miss Garrison the honor of representing Oregon at the Inter-state contest in Los Angeles, May 20. Great credit is also reflected upon the public speaking department of the university.

Second place was awarded to Pacific University, represented by Erwin Barandrick, his oration was "Substitution vs. the saloon."

McMinnville college won third, represented by Walter Elsfelder; oration entitled "A nation impregnable." There were five contestants.

Istabul is 60 miles northwest of Bagdad, on the Bagdad railway and the Tigris river. It is 10 miles south of Samarra, so that the Turkish forces, according to the official statement are now entrenched and are under attack from the British at a point only four miles from Samarra.

TELL SOLDIERS GOOD BYE

Wednesday night twenty two friends of Clair Brock and Hubert Crane gathered at the home of George Brock to bid good bye to two more of Uncle Sam's boys.

The evening was spent in merry making and laughter. The guests left about eleven o'clock wishing Clair and Hubert good luck and a speedy return.

The boys left Aumsville Thursday morning going to Salem where they passed examinations all O. K. They were shipped to Vancouver, Wn., at 1:30 p. m. After they receive their uniforms they will go to San Diego where they will train in the aviation corps preparing for service.—Aumsville Record.

The Boils Of Lazarus

were eased by the dogs who licked the infected places, but they were not cured. Many modern people employ the same method in their treatment of boils, pimples, rashes, carbuncles, eczema and other skin diseases. They apply a salve or lotion to the sore places and fondly imagine they have cured them. The important fact which they fail to recognize is, that these skin diseases are diseases of the blood, and that no external treatment can permanently cure them, because they are essentially internal ailments.

S. S. S. is the only proper remedy for this breaking out of the skin, because it acts upon the blood, cleansing and revitalizing it, and removing the cause of infection. It should be borne in mind that S. S. S. is purely vegetable, made from native roots, herbs and barks, and that it contains no habit-forming drugs or other injurious ingredients. Obtain a bottle of S. S. S. from your druggist and if you need the advice of a physician, write to the Medical Department, Swift Specific Co., 301 Swift Building, Atlanta, Ga.
