MURGIA TRAPPED BY VILLA; BATTLE IS ON

Ten Thousand Villistas Said To Be Engaged—Villa Has Railroads

El Paso, Texas, April 25.—Two Carranza military trains were entrapped in a railway cut and many Carranzistas en route to reinforce Murguia, killed by Villistas near Moctezuma, it was reported here late this afternoon. Soriano Bravo, Mexican consul, received an official message from Murguia, detailing fighting now in progress with Murguia and Villista forces engaged, at Moctezuma, Gallego and Carmen. Murguia's report said that the Villista leaders, Manuel Ochoa and Francisco Boltran, have been killed. Government agents here have received advices which indicate that a general engagement of the ten thousand Villistas in the northern district with the Murguia forces has developed. Villa has the railroad line north and south of Moctezuma, preventing movement of Murguia's trains from Moctezuma.

BROKE ALL RECORDS

Portland, Ore., April 25.—Probably the highest cash price paid for wheat in the history of the United States was paid here today. Actual cash sales of wheat at interior points at $2.50 a bushel was reported. The market is expected to go still higher.

Members of the Girls National Honor

Guard who are taking up the work of military drill and signaling met last night in the old armory for their first work. A. A. Hall, a corporal in Company M on the Mexican border, directed the military drill and William Chittick, who served with the Seventh Fusiliers in the Canadian army for three years and who is an expert signaller with flag, semaphore, or other device, began the lessons in signaling. About fifteen girls were present. The next meeting will be Tuesday night.
