

FATHER AND SON MEET IN MILITARY CAMP

SAY FATHER YOU'LL GET A WARRANT WELCOME IF YOU OFFER. THE BOYS W-B CUT INSTEAD OF ORDINARY CHEWING SWEET STUFF DON'T GO THESE DAYS.

I'LL GO YOU, BOY. I'VE BEEN WAITING A GROW THAT'S HOT AS FLAVORING AND I'VE BEEN HEARING ABOUT THE SICK, SAPPY LEAF THAT W-B IS MADE OF.

YOU find men who are proud of themselves are mighty ready to learn about the little nibble of W-B CUT that does away with so much grinding and spitting. As soon as they learn to tuck away a little of the shreds in their cheeks and to let it alone, they find out the difference there is between rich tobacco and the excess-flavored stuff. The touch of salt in W-B helps to bring out the tobacco satisfaction.

SAY MIKE GIBBONS IS WORLD'S BEST BOXER

Al Sommers Himself Good—Hardly Made a Plaything for the Champion

Portland, Ore., May 8.—Seventeen hundred fans today pronounced Mike Gibbons the world's greatest boxer. Last night they saw their idol, Al Sommers, go up against the world's middle-weight champion and—great gasps of grief—it was pathetic.

Sommers didn't have a look in, from one end to the six round affair to the other. Although he kept swinging in the general direction of Mike all the time, he was not able to land one lone solid punch. Sommers finished with a pair of blackened eyes, and his nose bled almost continuously from the second round to the end. Mike did not even have a fair chance to show his ability for fear of stopping Sommers, altogether.

In the preliminaries Muff Bronson beat Harry Casey, of Seattle, boxed a draw, as did also Joe Gorman, of Oakland, and Shel McCool.

Doctors and Eye Specialists Agree That Bon-Opto Strengthens Eyesight 50% In a Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Boston, Mass.—Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses, and those who wear glasses, will be glad to know that Doctors and Eye Specialists now agree there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored and many who once wore glasses say they have thrown them away. One man says, after using it: "I was almost blind. Could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without my glasses, and my eyes do not hurt any more. At night they would burn dreadfully. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me."

A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed heavy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can read even fine print without glasses." Another who used it says: "I was bothered with eye strain caused by overworked, tired eyes which induced fierce headaches. I have worn glasses for several years, both for distance and work, and without them I could not read my own name on an envelope or the typewriting on the machine. Now, which for several years I have discarded my long distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years I have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me."

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time, and multitudes more so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses.

Dr. Beck, an eye specialist of nearly twenty years practice, says: "A patient came to me who was suffering from Blepharitis Marginalis with all the concomitant symptoms, as morning agglutination of the lids, chronic conjunctivitis and epiphora. Her eyes when not congested had the dull, sufficed expression common to such cases. Having run out of her medicine, a friend suggested Bon-Opto. She used her distressing condition, but strange strengthening as it may seem, she was able to dispense with her distance glasses and her headache and neuralgia left her. In this instance I should say have since verified the efficacy of this treatment in a number of cases, and 25 to 75 per cent in a remarkably short time. I can say it works more quickly than any other remedy I have prescribed for the eye."

Dr. Smith, an oculist of wide experience, says: "I have treated in private practice a number of serious ophthalmic diseases with Bon-Opto and am able to report ultimate recovery in both acute and chronic cases. Mr. B. came to my office suffering with an infected eye operation for amputation of the eye. The operative treatment seemed to have failed. In 24 hours I prescribed Bon-Opto, and in seven days the eye was cured and retained its normal vision. Another case of extreme convergent strabismus (cross eyes) escaped the surgeon's knife by the timely use of your collyrium. The tightened external muscles yielded to the soothing and anodyne effects of Bon-Opto. My patients with Bon-Opto apply it locally to all burns, ulcers and hot spots on the eyeball or the lids for its soothing effect. By cleansing as a tonic for the eyeball itself, the number of cases of discarded glasses."

Dr. Conner says: "My eyes were in bad condition owing to the severe strain arising from professional work. According to my own observation, in a few days my eyes were restored to normal. I was able to read and write without glasses. I have since verified the efficacy of this treatment in a number of cases, and 25 to 75 per cent in a remarkably short time. I can say it works more quickly than any other remedy I have prescribed for the eye."

Note: A city physician who has written an article was asked to write a testimonial for Bon-Opto. He writes: "I have used Bon-Opto in many cases of eye trouble, and have seen it work in a number of instances. It is a most valuable remedy for eye trouble, and I have seen it work in a number of instances. It is a most valuable remedy for eye trouble, and I have seen it work in a number of instances."

LINER WAS JUSTIFIED TEACHERS GET MORE

Washington, May 7.—The giant German liner Kronprinzessin Cecilie was justified in returning from sea to New York at the outbreak of the war, to avoid capture, despite contracts to deliver her cargo, the supreme court held today.

Astoria, Ore., May 8.—Notwithstanding the fact that city school teachers have signed contracts for the coming year at a stated salary, increases will be given them because of the H. C. of L., school board officials said today.

A Suit Is Different

Lots of things you buy will answer the purpose if they are "pretty good." Not so a suit.

A suit that isn't right--right in every particular of style, fit and wear, is wrong all the way through. There's no hiding a collar that "sags"---a shoulder that "droops," a back that "hitches."

Of course you can't study the clothes question the way we have done. But you can come to us and benefit by our years of clothes experience. Our advice is free and we stand back of what we say.

SOME FACTS ABOUT SALEM RIFLE CLUB

Interest Was Awakened In Target Practice After Spanish War Ended

Now that the Salem Rifle club is the only organization that possesses rifles and government ammunition and also the fact that Salem has the largest membership in the state, the following information may be of interest:

The National Rifle association was organized in 1871, modeled after an English association of the same name. The purposes of the two were the same—the training in marksmanship of the men of the nation.

Very little interest was shown in the work until the close of the Spanish-American war. The returning veterans wanted to keep up their skill as marksmen. Congress soon passed some liberal laws and the members began astonishing the world with their marksmanship.

The rifle clubs are the only irregulars that the war department recognizes or aids in any way with supplies. The government furnishes a rifle for every five men and 120 rounds of ammunition per man each year. Targets are furnished, medals are given for high scores and prizes given each year. The national matches are held annually at the government range at Jacksonville, Florida.

The rifles are Krag-Jorgensen, formerly used by the army and now superseded by the Springfield. The government offers to sell the Krag-Jorgensen at a nominal cost to members of the Rifle club.

The Salem Rifle club was organized about a year ago with 39 members. Now it has 175 and the chances are good for doubling this number. A contest has been inaugurated with two teams soliciting members. It is understood that the losing team will have an opportunity to pay for a banquet to the winners.

The Rifle club drills Friday evenings and shoots Wednesday evenings. Instructions in pistol and revolver practice will be given later. In-door shooting has been going on all winter and the Salem club has been among the high ones in its score.

Out door shooting is done at 200, 300, 500 and 600 yards, in both rapid and slow fire.

The cost of membership is $1 initiation dues. After that, $1 a year. Application blanks may be had of A. B. Poole at the Central pharmacy.

There is no military obligation for service in joining the Rifle club. Any one can quit at any time. Married men are in the majority, although there is no age limit. The Salem Rifle club is for men who enjoy rifle practice and drilling.

Two Bond mill companies have given their employees a raise in wages of 25 cents a day. About 900 men are on the pay rolls.

their plans. Front dispatches related the strengthening of the German line here with prodigious massing of German reserves. The German artillery is pouring a flood of shells over the British positions.

The British artillery is endlessly battering away at the enemy. The fighting is for the most part in waves of small sections of troops, who dash forward, are met by German detachments and who clinch in hand to hand fighting. Positions are advanced and pushed back as the tide swings from side to side.

While the Germans were thus endeavoring to prevent realization of the British scheme of crumbling the northern pivot point of their line, they were staging another tremendous counter offensive movement against a similar menace on the southern pivot, in the French hold on Chemin Des Dames.

The French official statement reveals a huge general offensive attack by the enemy in this sector. This movement was beaten back with terrible losses to the Germans. The war office statement mentioned a "field strewn

A Medicine for Women

For Forty Years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Relieved the Sufferings of Women.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

Mrs. Kieso Cured After Seven Months' Illness.

Aurora, Ill.—"For seven long months I suffered from a female trouble, with severe pains in my back and sides until I became so weak I could hardly walk from chair to chair, and got so nervous I would jump at the slightest noise. I was unable to do my house work, I was giving up hope of ever being well, when my sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and today I am a healthy woman and do my own housework. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find out for herself how good it is."—Mrs. KARL A. KIESO, 598 North Ave., Aurora, Ill.

Could Hardly Get Off Her Bed.

Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I want you to know the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was in such health from female troubles that I could hardly get off my bed. I had been doctoring for a long time and my mother said, 'I did not want to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.' So I did not. I am so happy as I never expected to go around the way I do now, and I want others to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. JOSIE COOPER, 1058 Harrison St., Cincinnati, Ohio.
