If you are bothered with any cutaneous blemish, it's a poor plan to use paint, powder or anything else to cover it up. Too often this only emphasizes the defect. Besides, it's much easier to remove the disfigurement with ordinary mercolized wax. Applied nightly, the wax will graduately remove freckles, pimples, moth patches, liver spots, sallowness, red blotches or any surface eruption. The effected cuticle is absorbed, a little each day, until the clear, soft, youthful and beautiful skin beneath is brought wholly to view. Ask the druggist for one ounce of mercolized wax and use this like you use cold cream. Remove in morning with soap and water. Many who have tried this simple, harmless treatment report astonishing results.

If troubled with wrinkles or furrows, a wash lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel, will prove wonderfully effective. There is nothing better for drawing in a baggy skin and improving the facial contour. It acts instantly and will not irritate even the most sensative skin.

Mrs. George Palmer Putnam is receiving the congratulations of her friends today over her victory in the 50 yard swimming race, at the Woman's National Championship meet, Saturday night at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club in Portland.

Mrs. Putnam is an unusually fine swimmer, and won the race easily, using the Australian crawl, which is one of the most difficult strokes known. Although Mrs. Putnam has only been using the crawl for a short time, having been taught a few weeks ago by Oscar Gingrich and John Farrar of this city, she showed excellent form.

There were five other entrants in the race, Mrs. Putnam being the only outside member winning in the championship.

Mrs. Putnam has in years past won many races in distance swimming, but has never before attempted short dash races in a small tank.

HINDENBURG DRAWS FROM RUSSIAN FRONT

Sends Battered Divisions In Exchange---Prepares for Drive On Petrograd

By William Philip Simms
(United Press staff correspondent)

With the British Armies in the Field, May 21.—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg s shunting his shattered and exhausted divisions on the west front to the northern and eastern battle lines, where they are being re-formed preparatory to a drive on Petrograd. In the meanwhile, fresh divisions from the Russian front are being sent to France.

German prisoners revealed the purpose behind such a plan as two fold.

"We expect Hindenburg to try to take Petrograd," said one today, "or at least additional Russian territory. His purpose would be, first, to scare Russia into a separate peace, and, second, to use his gains there as a lever against the allies.

"Just now, however, the east front lines are thin. Exhausted divisions and those whose losses have brought them far below the regular strength, are being transferred from France to Russia. In return, fresh divisions on the Russian front are being switched here. Some from Russia are being hurled against the British and French without waiting for replacement on the Russian front."

German Divisions Smashed

From prisoners and the results of raids, British headquarters estimated today a total of twenty German divisions (about 400,000 men) have been smashed since the start of the offensive. The British have steadily maintained the initiative, despite every effort of the enemy to wrest this from them and in the face of scores of fresh divisions hurled in counter attacks.

The week by week tally of the offensive shows net gains every seven days by the British and the situation today was extremely favorable for continued successes.

Hindenburg is now working to outmaneuver the British, having failed by sheer weight of his counter attacks to stop the advance. Every German attack is being weighed by the British staff for the possibility of some bold Teuton trick of strategy which it may contain. Incessant trench raids by the British serve to check up continuously on the fresh reserves which the Teutons have put into the line, and careful questioning of prisoners aids in the game of ferreting out the enemy's moves.

French Start Offensive.

Paris, May 21.—General Nivelle's troops started another offensive today.

Capture of several lines of German trenches in the Moronvillers sector on the northern slopes of Cornillet, with 800 prisoners taken, was reported in today's official statement as the first net result.

The war office told of resumption of active, bitter fighting on the greater part of the whole front.

Along the Chemin-Des Dames front an artillery struggle continued throughout the night. A strong German attack was made near Froidmont farm and repulsed.

In the Champagne, the statement said: "We brilliantly captured several lines of German trenches in the sector of Moronvillers, imprisoning 800. We found the crumbled German shelters filleds with dead. The enemy's losses were formidable, particularly those inflicted by our forces against counter attacks. All of these were repulsed."

Italians Unchecked.
By John H. Hearley.

(United Press staff correspondent.)

Rome, May 21.—Climbing seemingly inaccessible heights, weathering clouds of enemy shells and singing patriotic songs all the while, Italian troops today were still pushing forward north of Goritz. The fighting is now reaching a climax of intensity, with numerous fresh Austrian divisions, transferred direct from the Russian front, thrown into action.

Men fight from behind rocks and barriers of stones hastily thrown together, or from caves and dugouts cut in the granite ridges. With the ground so ridged and broken, "waves" of the Italian advance generally break into knots of fighters, where small groups must match their individual resources and strength against the enemy. Along the Mount Cuceo sector today General Cadora's singing soldiers captured a whole row of underground barrack spaces. The dugouts had been evidently furnished for Teuton officers. They were luxuriously fitted up and stocked with a huge supply of wines and other comforts.

Torpedo Boats Fight.

London, May 21.—An "outpost engagement" between German and French torpedo boats Sunday morning was reported in Berlin and Paris official statements received here today. One French torpedo boat was slightly damaged, according to the Paris report.

Berlin described the brush as a "short outpost engagement off Flanders." According to the enemy version "French ships were repeatedly hit, but ours were undamaged."

The Paris official statement said the Germans "after a short engagement withdrew at full speed." The extent of the "slight damage" inflicted on one French vessel was not specified.

Austria Starts Offensive
By John H. Hearley
(United Press staff correspondent)

Rome, May 21. — Austria started a counter offensive movement in the Trentino today, designed to relieve the ever increasing Italian pressure on Trieste, in the Insonzo fighting section.

Dispatches from the Trentino declared the enemy artillery fire had increased to great violence, particularly against the Zugna and Posina valley sections, the Asiago plateau and the Sugana valley positions held by Italian troops. These artillery attacks were followed in some places by infantry assaults. By such an offensive the enemy gained a foothold in the Bosina region, but were driven out with heavy losses in men and supplies.

The fighting was of the hand to hand order, the war office reported. The enemy attack was in dense masses along the whole front of the Pasubio.

"In the Julian Alps section," the war office said, "an enemy attack on the northern slopes of San Marco was repulsed.

"We took a hill between Palliova and Britovo and extended our position further on the Vodice section.

"Hundreds of prisoners have been taken and a considerable amount of material seized."

The German Version

Berlin, via London, May 21.—French forces succeeded in gaining a hold on Mount Cornillet and British troops only success was in occupying a "completely demolished trench, abandoned in accordance with out plans," today's official report stated.

"On both sides of the Arras-Cambrai road on a front of twelve kilometers (more than nine miles) the English attacked yesterday," the statement said. "At those places between the Scarpe and Sensee brook, where the enemy succeeded in penetrating our line east of Croisilles, he was driven back in a sharp counter attack, Oft repeated attacks between Fontaines and Bullecourt met the same fate.

"We maintained our position except at one completely demolished trench which was abandoned in accordance with our plans.

"After bitter fighting, continuing through the night, the enemy obtained a foothold on Mount Cornillet.

"South of Nauroy, on Mount Keil and southwest of Moronvillers the enemy losses yesterday were considerable.

"Around Braye and Cernay and west to Hurtebise farm we captured enemy trenches and maintained them despite attempts at re-conquest."

land towns are blazoned with posters. Women are canvassing the suburbs.

Bethlehem steel will take several million dollars worth for its employes. Harrisburg, Pa., banks expect to buy $1,000,000 in bonds. Two Albany, N. Y., banks purchased $500,000 worth each and subscriptions totaling $1,000,000 through one bank were reported.

Leading Philadelphia bankers are campaigning to have every citizen in that reserve district subscribe. "The liberty bell, ring it again," is the slogan.

Richmond, Va., banks are arranging liberty loan clubs, similar to Christmas and vacation saving schemes. The United Mine Workers of America subscribed $50,000 in Indianapolis. Officers in training at Fort Harrison are preparing to buy. Banks report heavy amounts from farming districts.

Mayor Karb ,of Columbus, Ohio, is handling a committee which will make a one-day drive this week. Badges are being furnished purchasers.

Minneapolis raised over $3,500,000 in three days. St. Paul will raise $6,000,000. Over $2,000,000 worth was sold in Milwaukee, exclusive of big subscriptions. "Make your liberty safe," is the war cry.

On Pacific Coast.

Portland, Ore., bankers are organizing a committee for state-wide campaigns. Seven hundred thousand dollars has been subscribed there. Old men walked into a bank 250 twenty dollar gold pieces, long hoarded, and bought bonds. Tacoma banks are selling bonds on monthly installments.

Liberty loan week starts in Denver Tuesday when Secretary McAdoo arrives. Parades and patriotic demonstrations are scheduled. "Ten thousand subscribers" is the slogan. Bankers believe Colorado should give $10,000,000.

In San Francisco, the California state board of control announced it would invest $500,000. The liberty loan committee believes San Francisco and its district will supply $150,000,000. The city of San Francisco will buy $1,000,000 in bonds. Committees are formed to push the sale in Los Angeles and Pasadena. Kansas City bankers are pleading for subscriptions. A million dollars is expected in the reserve district. Corporations are buying bonds to workers on the payroll, down and monthly payments.

The proposed amendment to the charter simply means that the people shall be given authority to tax property that has already been improved and has the greater value on account of this improvement on which the present assessment shall be paid, on account of a decision of the supreme court. This applies principally to the High street and Trade street cases. It does not mean that every property in town will be reassessed, though certain property values have increased in value by reason of improvements, the owners of said property refused to pay the assessment on their property on the ground that there was some technicality in the proceeding. The supreme court sustained the claim of the technicality. To remedy the amendment to the charter is proposed, which permits the council to re-assess the property again in such a way that the supreme court cannot find any further objections.

If You Suffer From Catarrh

don't make the fatal mistake of regarding it as a trifling matter. Authorities agree that Catarrh is an infection of the blood. Consequently, sprays, salves and lotions can afford only temporary relief, because they do not reach the source of the disease,—the blood. When you depend on these temporary remedies alone your case is likely to grow steadily worse until it becomes chronic and possibly affects the lungs.

But even if the infection does not go this far, the continuous dripping of mucous in the throat, the constant spitting and hawking and snuffing of the breath will not only make misery to you, but will make your presence obnoxious to others. S. S. S., which has been the standard blood medicine for fifty years, will rid your catarrh, because it will purify your blood and relieve it of the accumulated poisons. S. S. S. contains no mineral or habit-forming drugs. S. S. S. is on sale at all druggists, the advice of our medical department is at your disposal, free of charge.
