LUCKY STRIKE

cigarette

WHEN your breakfast toast is just right—buttered piping hot; brown, crisp, delicious—you'll admit that it's a little bit of Heaven on a dark morning.

Keep this agreeable thought in mind as you read about the new Lucky Strike cigarette. Because the tobacco—it's toasted; and what that toasting does to the delicious Burley flavor! My!

There's been a big demand for a cigarette ready-made from Burley tobacco. Last year you had to pour the Burley out of those green, red and blue tins—enough for 35 billion cigarettes.

But until we made this toasting discovery a ready-made Burley cigarette wasn't possible—we couldn't hold the flavor. But now! Well, just try it—Lucky Strike—the real Burley cigarette; the tobacco—it's toasted.

Mrs. Booth and Branson Told of Riggins' Confession

When the news that William Riggins, an inmate of the penitentiary, had confessed to the killing of William Booth at William about two years ago was broken to Mrs. Anna Booth, who is serving a term of from one to 15 years imprisonment on account of the killing, she collapsed. William Branson, who is serving a life sentence for murder in the second degree, received the news in a more stoical manner.

Mrs. Booth was unaware that Riggins had confessed to the murder of Booth until it was told her at the penitentiary Saturday afternoon.

"I certainly am glad to hear it," she said, and her eyes opened wide at the good news. She said she was not acquainted with Riggins, although she admitted having heard of him.

The climax came suddenly when she threw her arms in the air and fell back in a chair unconscious and limp.

Branson said he first knew Riggins when he was incarcerated in the Yamhill county jail. He said he did not pay much attention to him because he had troubles of his own.

NURSES KILLED BY

two nurses, Mrs. E. F. Ayers, aged 35, of Attica, Ohio, and Miss Helen B. Woods, aged 32, of Evanston, Ill., Miss Eva Matzan, aged 34, of Columbus, Neb., was seriously but not dangerously injured.

No other member of the unit was injured. The morale of the personnel was splendid. The nurses were sitting on the upper deck aft on the port side, 200 feet from the stern gun during target practice. Only one shot was fired from the stern gun. At this time judgment must be suspended, as there is no accurate evidence to warrant making a positive statement as to the exact cause of the accident. The first officer of the ship was standing within 10 feet of the nurses when they were killed.

Major Besley was standing within three feet of the nurses who died, and, relating his personal story of the accident, said:

Details of Accident.

"In the target practice, which occurred at 2 p. m. Sunday, when we were 24 hours out, the two forward guns were fired first. Then the stern guns. The nurses were sitting in deck chairs watching the target, which was a long distance away. The shell struck the water at a great distance from ship. Immediately afterward Miss Matzan, who was injured, touched me on the shoulder and said: 'These girls are hurt. I looked around and saw one of the dead girls sliding from her chair to the deck. We do not know how the accident occurred. I sat up until 1 o'clock in the morning hearing evidence, but we could get nothing definite. We found bits of the detonating cap which is placed in the shell behind the powder, scattered around the deck. There was a line of lifeboats hanging between us and the gun. We had to stoop to look under the lifeboats to see the firing. The gun was not shattered. Its breach remained intact and none of the gun crew knew what had happened until we had conveyed word to the officer in charge.

It was the gun crew of the Mongolia which several weeks ago reported firing at a submarine in English waters, the same stern gun having been used in that incident.

Major Besley expects to sail again immediately. There will be no official investigation he believes other than the inquiry conducted aboard ship last

While the Seals were tightening their hold on first place, the Angels went over the top by climbing out of the cellar.

Wolverton's outfit took both Sunday games from Portland, giving them six out of the seven games of last week's series.

Spider Baum and Red Oldham officiated for the Seals in their two games. The Spider allowed 10 safeties and the Beavers tied the count in the ninth inning of the morning game.

After Maisel had doubled and two men were out, Boss Wolverton grabbed his trusty willow and, pinch hitting for Baum, drove out the single that won the game.

Every Angel got at least one hit in the morning game, the club aggregating 18 for the contest.

In the afternoon the Chance men put the game in the clear early with three runs in the third and a couple in the fourth.

Rain at Salt Lake kept the Bees from challenging the Seals for the league leadership.

Johnny Bassler of the Angels, is the real slugging leader of the Coast league, his percentage so far being .418. Buddy Dyan of the Bees, is second with .390.

Six hits was the Athletics' total for two games. The Indians won both.

Boland's double in a pinch, combined with his pitching, troubled the Yankees to the extent of one to nothing.

Bob Groom held off his former team mates for the Browns.

Game at the Prison.

The Honeyman Hardware company's baseball team of Portland came to Salem yesterday and played the team of the Oregon penitentiary with the result that the penitentiary boys carried off the honors by the score of 2 to 1. It was a close and exciting contest, and although the Portland men had men on first and second bases in the ninth inning they were unable to score on account of Devitt's excellent pitching.

Thompson, the Honeyman pitcher, struck out 12 men and Devitt 10. The Honeyman team secured three hits while the penitentiary boys made their runs on two hits.

Among the men on the prison team who showed up well were Hunt, the negro catcher, and Johnson, the Indian, at first base.

War Brides at Grand Theatre

Herbert Brenon's first production since becoming a producer for Selznick Pictures is "War Brides," with Nazimova as the star, and it will be seen at the Grand theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday. The scenario is from Marion Craig Wentworth's play, in which Nazimova scored her greatest success. The story deals with the war brides incidents which took place in certain European countries at the outset of the present war, but the play deals less with war than with the effects of war upon the homes and the loved ones left behind. Mr. Brenon, who is the only man besides D. W. Griffith who has achieved a national reputation as a director, says that this is unquestionably an advance over any of his previous work.

Under the sponsorship of Lewis J. Selznick and director, Herbert Brenon, the eminent Russian tragedienne, Nazimova, has made her debut in moving pictures. Her first and only appearance this year will be "War Brides" which will be shown at the Grand theatre starting tomorrow. When she had completed this photo-drama, Nazimova resumed her plans for her winter season on the stage, so this will be the only opportunity of seeing her in the movies for at least a year.
