By ALINE THOMPSON

As a fitting close to the gayeties of the week will be the "Sardough" dance for which Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer Putnam will be hosts Saturday night at their residence. The invitations for the affair are unusually clever and original, and have been issued only to the men, asking them to bring a partner.

The affair by the bye is for the Red Cross and the guests have been asked to bring 25 pennies, with which to buy their dances, drinks etc. It is to be a fancy dress party and it is intimated that there will be all sorts of grotesque and humorous costumes.

Mr. and Mrs. Putnam's guests will number about 40, and will include the married folk and a sprinkling of the younger contingent.

The C. W. ... of the First Christian church will be ... on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. A. ... of South Commercial street.

Mrs. George ... of Oregon City and Mrs. ... of Portland, who have been visiting in Salem for a few weeks ... returned to their homes ...

Mr. and Mrs. ... of Portland, who have been visiting in Salem for a few weeks ... returned to their homes ...

Mrs. Floy ... of Portland, who have been visiting in Salem for a few weeks ... returned to their homes ...

Miss Ada Miller, soprano, will appear in concert tomorrow night at the Grand theatre.

On this occasion Miss Miller will make her first concert appearance in Salem since her return from the east where she has been devoting the past 3 years to study.

Her program for the evening is delightfully arranged, and her singing is well worth the appreciation of all music lovers.

Mrs. Louis H. Compton, who has been passing several weeks at Vancouver barracks with Lieutenant Compton, has returned to Salem, the latter now being at Camp Withycombe near Clackamas.

Miss Edna Daily who has been a nurse at the Tuberculosis Hospital left today for Spokane, Wash., where she has accepted a position as head nurse in the woman's building at the Edgemoor Sanatorium which has the reputation of being the best equipped hospital on the Pacific coast.

Mrs. Mark McCallister and small daughter, Doris, have gone to Corvallis where they will pass the week visiting the former's parents.

Mrs. Carl Abrams, wife of Lieutenant Colonel Abrams, and small sons have returned from Vancouver barracks where they have been passing several weeks and are with Mrs. Abrams' ...

The above conference is not to be confused with the so-called "international socialist peace conference," delegates for which are now arriving in Stockholm and to which the United States refused passports to Messrs. Berger, Hillquit and Lee. The first Stockholm conference—that for which delegates are arriving now—has been German-inspired and has prospects of being entirely German controlled. When this German scheme to dominate the meeting became apparent, Russian socialists voted to call a true socialist meeting, to which representative socialists of all nations should be invited. Apparently it is to this Russian invitation that the French socialists have sent their acceptance.

To Begin Fifteen Day Series of Meetings

Educators, psychologists and leading clergymen of the East who have been keenly interested in the work of Chas. Forbes Taylor have given up trying to account for this wonderful boy and all they can say is that he is a Biblical and a musical genius. He has a strong logical mind and has what few men possess the art of preaching. He possesses what may be called a spiritual magnetic personality and his great and wonderful gifts are dedicated to the service of God. People who have heard him in various parts of America and Canada say he is a wonder. Accompanied by his father and mother he will arrive Saturday from Pasadena, Cal., and will begin his fifteen day series of meetings at the First Congregational church Sunday at 11 o'clock.

stand that the people were fighting a "czar's war," said Lewis. "Therefore, they cannot now say to the people they must continue to fight for an abstract principle.

"The revolutionists now say that all Russia was fighting for has been granted. This means that the United States will be called upon to take up the burden laid down by Russia, as well as her own share.

"Peace may come within two months."

New York boys will refuse to register June 5 and that branches of the league are being organized in other American cities which expect by tomorrow to have a membership of 50,000.

To Help Fight Law. The American Union Against Militarism opened offices on Fifth avenue. Roger N. Baldwin, secretary, announced that the union's purpose is "to give legal aid to the 15,000 youths who have told us they have conscientious scruples against military service and to urge the war department to make provision for their exemption."

Among the active organizers of this union are L. Hollingsworth Wood of the Society of Friends; Rev. John Haynes, Rev. Norman M. Thomas, Professor Harry Ward, of Boston, Scott Nearing, of Toledo, and Edmond C. Evans, of Philadelphia.

Hundreds of conscientious youths today sought employment in navy yards, munitions plants and other places where the laborers will not be taken for trench fighters.

The no-conscription league will put most of its efforts, Emma Goldman said today, "on Chicago, San Francisco, Cleveland, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Detroit and Buffalo." The league claims 4,000 members in Chicago.

SUPERWOMAN TELLS OF VICTORY IN OREGON

Miss Fern Hobbs, Once Secretary to Governor, Visits Salt Lake

Under the above heading the Salt May 27, has the following alleged interview with Miss Fern Hobbs, which if correct shows the little lady has become fully awake to her abilities and importance. The Telegram story follows:

"What the state of Oregon has been trying to accomplish for the past twenty five years and failed, one frail little woman has brought about in less than nine months.

"And to this woman belongs the credit of taking from the railroad octopuses 5,000,000 acres of land, valued at more than $20,000,000, and placing it in reach of the homesteader.

"The little person who was responsible for this reversal of form is Miss Fern Hobbs, attorney at law, and one time secretary to former Governor Oswald West of Oregon.

Miss Hobbs is a guest at her sister's home in Midvale and of friends in Salt Lake, where she attended school for a number of years. She is one of the many noted women of the West who have been 'written up' and 'pictured' in the national magazines as one who does things.

"It was Miss Hobbs who, as Governor West's secretary, closed the notorious gambling houses and saloons which were operating in violation of the law at Copperfield, Ore., after the sheriff of Baker county and all his deputies, to say nothing of the town constables, had failed, being afraid to enforce the law.

Was Acting Governor. During the governor's absence and because of the death of the secretary of state, Miss Hobbs was for three days acting governor of Oregon.

"Since Governor West's retirement to private life Miss Hobbs has been admitted to the bar and in the capacity of attorney she has been employed by the state on some of its most intricate cases.

After the attorney generals of Oregon for years past, any suit to bring about a satisfactory settlement in the famous Oregon land grant controversy, in which the Southern Pacific refused to return to the government millions of acres of valuable farming land which had been granted it when the country was just being opened to settlement, Miss Hobbs was asked to take the case.

She has been working incessantly for the past nine months and she is now on her way home from Washington, D. C., carrying the glad news that she has successfully combated that proposition and the state of Oregon will be greatly enriched therefrom.

"It was just hard work—that's all," said Miss Hobbs, modestly, at her sister's home yesterday.

"When I took the position as secretary to Governor West, and I made up my mind to do any and everything that is required in such a position," continued Miss Hobbs, "I was determined that if I must visit penitentiaries, insane asylums, or, in fact, anywhere that a man would be asked to do, I would do it.

Beating Gamblers Easy. "I always felt that since I was backed by the laws and the state of Oregon, I could do anything I set out to do. That is why I experienced no great difficulty in closing gambling dens in the town of Copperfield. It was not I, but the governor's secretary and the state of Oregon."

Miss Hobbs, who has spent several weeks in Washington, says that in the East people are making plans in anticipation that the war will last indefinitely. She says the West does not take the entrance of the United States into the European conflict nearly so seriously as the East.

"Around the capitol, she says, the air is surcharged with secrecy. The senate gallery is no longer open to the public, except by pass, and those are scarce. They are issued for only one day.

"She states that employees in the capitol, who have been there for fifty years, must have a pass to go from one department to another.

"I suspect that I will receive a warm welcome when I reach Salem," she said, "because of the winning of this case and I would be foolish to say that I am not elated at the outcome. Of course, I started out to win, but, you know, there always are plenty of chances to fail."

Bethel Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service)

Bethel, May 31.—The Bethel Thimble club met at the D. M. Evans home on the twenty fourth. The house was beautifully decorated with white lilies. A very interesting meeting was had. Roll call brought forth miscellaneous responses. Lucille Robinson sang a solo entitled "Memories," and gave a recitation entitled "Little Boy Blue." As a number were present who were not at the meeting of April 29, Mrs. Hoffman was requested to again recite "Elder Lamb's Donation," which she kindly did. Mrs. Baker recited Longfellow's poem "The Children's Hour." She wishes so much that all the wives in our beautiful land would think seriously about what the poet says, "What would the world be to us if the children were no more." Those present were Mrs. Montgomery of Salem, Mrs. Chas. McPeck and little daughter of Fruitland, Mrs. H. R. Curtis, Mrs. E. E. Matten, Mrs. J. E. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. C. M. Robinson and Lucille Robinson, Mrs. O. H. Heineke and sons, Mrs. W. P. Brinkley, Mrs. J. M. Nichols, Mrs. A. H. Fuestman, Miss Hazel Fuestman, Mrs. H. B. Hoffman, Mrs. Ida S. Baker, Mrs. D. M. Evans and Mrs. A. L. Schulz. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. A. H. Fuestman on the twenty first of June.

There was a dance at the Garden Road Cheese factory Saturday night. There was a big crowd, and a big time. Among those present from here were Roy Marchand, John, Henry and Walter Hain, Walter Vanderbeck, Frank Kunciter, Chris and Christine Battalion, Misses Rose and Christine Battalion, Cass Nichols, Gustave Bahnsen and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Johnston.

Members of the Bethel Thimble club met at the W. P. Brinkley home Sunday afternoon and packed some boxes to send to three Bethel boys who are now with Company M. Emil Sundborg, George Matten and John Clark are doing military duty "somewhere in Oregon."

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Schrunck and the Misses Alice and Bessie Schrunck of Aumsville called at the W. P. Brinkley home Sunday afternoon.

The Geer baseball team played Pratum at Geer Sunday afternoon. Mike Battalion and Cass Nichols were the Geer battery and the score was 8 to 7 in favor of the home team.

J. D. Clark is having gravel spread on the road near Geer station. The gravel is shipped to Geer making a short haul for the teams.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zak and family moved to Liberty Saturday. Mr. Zak has employment there making cord wood and grubbing.

Miss Verna Hasemann of Mill City spent the week end at the D. M. Evans home visiting with her former teacher, Mrs. A. L. Schulz.

The Bethel industrial club had a party at the A. L. Sundborg home last Friday night.

The following lead their grades in the spelling contests for the past year, Chester Sundborg fourth grade, Elmer Vanderbeck fifth grade, Ivy Roth sixth grade, Minnie Battalion seventh grade, and Elmer Roth eighth grade.

A. L. Schulz, C. D. Page and O. L. Brubaker went fishing Sunday. They report fair luck.

Henry Bahnsen has been quite sick with the measles but is recovering.

Mrs. Montgomery of Salem spent the week end at the J. M. Zoehler of the Evergreen Cheese factory, visited the Garden Road Cheese factory recently and bought a quantity of brick cheese. The Evergreen factory is running two vats now. They are getting a large quantity of milk as many farmers are finding that it pays better to sell milk for cheese than to sell cream or make butter.

Ed Schulz, Henry Hain and Miss Clara Kirscher motored to Mt. Angel a week ago last Sunday. They went via Scotts Mills and found good rock roads most of the way.

Next week is the bond election. There are several other measures to be voted on and all of them should be voted down except perhaps the one providing that city elections shall be held at the same time as state elections. Even this does not interest us very much. As for increased pay for legislators and unequal taxation, the people can be trusted to vote for equality and honesty.

It seems that our friends at Yeoman station have had a lot to say about the condition of the road over there. For the love of Mike, what do they expect? Don't they realize that here in Oregon the cross roads are not supposed to be improved? The logical remedy is to open up more cross roads. When the majority of the people live on cross roads we may look for some improvement in conditions but in the mean time—well, the majority rules.
