VILLISTAS APPROACH BORDER

San Antonio, Texas, May 31.—That a band of Villistas are approaching the international border is the word received at southern department headquarters here today. A message from the Mexican consul at Presidio stated there was "nothing to fear from their activities," since the southern department has sufficient troops along the border to protect all American towns and available troops to care for any trouble that might result.

MAY MEAN A LOAN

Washington, May 30.—The call of Serbian Minister Mihalovitch upon Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo was believed to be the forerunner of an American loan to Serbia.

BRITISH INVESTIGATE

London, May 3.—British authorities are investigating the report from the United States that mine fields were in the path of American warships when they came across the Atlantic to cooperate with the British in the North sea.

CULLING OUT THE UNFIT

San Francisco, May 30.—Elimination of unfit men is in progress at the Presidio's officers reserve camp today. Orders have been issued for all men with physical defects to report at once, while other means of weeding out

WILLAMETTE VALLEY NEWS

Stayton Items

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Stayton, May 30.—There was quite a crowd at the Star Theatre Monday night to hear the scheduled speakers, Jay Bowerman of Portland, S. Benson of Portland, and Walter Tooze of Salem, tell of the need of good roads and the reasons, as they saw them, of the people voting favorably on the big bond issue at the coming election.

Mrs. Lau of Fox Valley, who has been visiting relatives in this city, went to Salem Monday accompanied by her brother A. D. Gardner, Jr. They returned to Stayton Monday night.

Mrs. Townes has been visiting in Salem and points about Brownsville. The family may locate in the Brownsville section although nothing definite has been determined upon. Mrs. Townes went to Salem last Thursday.

W. E. Thomas and Rev. T. L. Jones accompanied by their wives will visit Stayton Wednesday, Decoration Day. The former comes from Salem and the latter, a relative, comes from Brownsville. Mr. Jones has relatives buried in the Stayton cemetery.

The faculty of the high school entertained the graduates this year, in the new gym Monday night in right royal style. Mr. Gauntt, the principal, as teacher and the class as beginners in the art of learning, caused much merriment and some serious thought mingled therein. It was an evening much appreciated by the young students.

Large audiences crowded the high school auditorium Sunday morning and evening when the memorial day service was held with Mr. Daugherty of The Mail as the speaker, in the forenoon, and in the evening when the high school bacchanaluretae sermon was preached by Rev. B. N. Arvason of Salem. Not only were the audiences made up of large numbers, but the order of the addresses and other features of the programs were also of a high grade. Mr. Daugherty gave an excellent address replete with thought and inspiration for the day, while the Salem minister also gave a message of great value to his hearers.

R. L. Steeves, ex-mayor of Salem, was a Sunday visitor to Stayton.

Dr. C. H. Brewer of Stayton was a Salem visitor last Saturday.

Dr. Cartwright, of Salem, passed through this city last week, from Mehama, on route home.

Mrs. Pete Roek visited in Sublimity recently.

Clarence BeBauchamp, Mrs. A. Cain, Mrs. H. Lilly and Mrs. F. Foster were Salem visitors on Saturday.

The E. B. Lockhart family returned from Salem on Monday where Mrs. Lockhart had spent most of the month. Mr. Lockhart and two of the children went to Salem Thursday upon news of the death of the mother of Mrs. Lockhart, Mrs. J. W. Meredith.

Judge Busbey is scheduled to speak in the M. E. church Sunday night on the subject of "The Child and the Juvenile Court." It is expected a large audience will hear the message of the well known jurist.

Those taking part in the Decoration Day exercises at the high school today were Paul Stayton, Henry Allis, William Ryan, Rev. E. B. Lockhart and others including the high school orchestra and quartette.

Prof. and Mrs. Burgess Ford of Jefferson will visit Stayton on Saturday. Mr. Ford is the newly elected superintendent of schools here. The newcomers have little children. They will take up their residence in Stayton about the first of August.

Men who would not make good army officers may be resorted to. Today was a holiday at the camp, as far as drill and the usual program is concerned.

Heals Skin Diseases

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with eczema, blotches, ringworm, rashes and similar skin troubles. A little Zemo, obtained at any drug store for 25c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases. Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. It is not greasy, is easily applied and costs little. Get it today and save all further distress. The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.

DALLAS ITEMS

(Capital Journal Special Service.)

Dallas, Ore., May 31.—The last sad rites over the remains of the late Sergeant Elton Blake, of Company L, O. N. G., who died at Vancouver last Friday evening, were held Tuesday afternoon from the undertaking parlors of R. L. Chapman on Main street. The services were conducted by Rev. D. A. MacKenzie of the Presbyterian church. The casket which was borne by six former comrades of the deceased in the old company of National Guard: John E. Sibley, Harold Rich, Ed Campbell, Frank E. Kersey, Roy Finseth and Lynn Matheny, was interred in the Dallas I. O. O. F. cemetery. The military services were held in the armory Sunday afternoon and were conducted by Chaplain Willard Elkins of the Oregon Coast Artillery. After the services Sunday the body was taken to the Chapman parlors to await the arrival of a sister of the deceased who lives in Salt Lake City. Sergeant Blake leaves to mourn his death, a mother, Mrs. Belle Blake, of this city; a sister, Mrs. Fay Willy, of Salt Lake City, Utah; a brother, Oscar Blake, of St. Maries, Idaho; besides a large circle of friends.

Big Program for Today. The big Memorial day program that has claimed the attention of a committee of the local G. A. R. post for the past several weeks, started this morning at 8 o'clock with the decorating of the graves of the dead members of the G. A. R. by members of the post. At 9:30 o'clock the big parade formed near the armory and at 10 marched through the business streets of the city and returned to the armory where appropriate patriotic exercises were held. The speaker of the day, Rev. C. P. Gates, of Corvallis, delivered his address at 11 o'clock. The parade which was headed by the Dallas band and the G. A. R. post was composed of almost every organization in the city and was the largest parade of its kind ever held in Dallas.

Attended Senator Lane's Funeral. Attorney Oscar Hoyer was in Portland Tuesday attending the funeral of the late Senator Harry Lane. Mr. Hoyer and Senator Lane were close personal friends.

Mrs. Braden Speaks in Salem. Mrs. Winnie Braden, of this city, secretary of the Dallas Commercial club, the Polk County Fair association and the Polk County Better Roads association, was in Salem Tuesday night and made an address at a big meeting held in that city. Mrs. Braden, who is one of the biggest good roads boosters in the state, has received invitations to address meetings in all parts of the state this week but on account of local work will be unable to accept the invitations.

County Judge Improving. County Judge E. C. Kirkpatrick, who has been confined to his home for several days with a severe cold, is able to be at his office in the court house again.

Miss Blanch Barrett has returned from a short visit in Portland. Broeze Gibson returned Tuesday from a several days' visit with relatives in Portland and Spokane.

Mrs. E. A. Dunkel has returned to her home in Salem after a short visit

Negroes Still Fleeing From East St. Louis
East St. Louis, Ill., May 31.—The exodus of negroes continued today following the third night of rioting here. One negro was shot and two others beat on so severely last night that they were removed to hospitals and a number of others received minor injuries at the hands of mobs which paraded the streets despite extra policemen and deputies and state guardsmen. Early today three shots were fired at a detachment of militiamen from a dark building. The soldiers returned the fire and ran into the building. As they entered a man ran through the rear and escaped under fire. It is not known whether the man that fired the shots was black or white.

LINDA VISTA SELECTED
Washington, May 31.—Selection of Linda Vista, Cal., as the site for a civilian guard camp for training national guard and the new army, was approved by Secretary of War Baker today. The site is 14 miles north of San Diego.
