

Treat The Body As A Delicate Machine

You would not let a machine built for efficient work, get rusty and full of dust and dirt. Why let the body, the most delicate of all machines, get rusty and run down from inattention? Cleanse the blood; that's the secret; keep it clean. S. S. S., proven for 50 years the best of all blood tonics, will do it. Get a bottle at your druggist's TODAY and take it according to directions. SOCIETY

By ALINE THOMPSON

Complimenting Miss Gertrude Cunningham, bride-elect, Miss Dorothy Pearce, entertained Monday night with a box party at the Oregon theatre followed by a lunch at The Spa.

Miss Pearce's guests numbered about a dozen of the close friends of Miss Cunningham.

Another delightful affair given in honor of this charming girl was the tea for which Miss Barbara Steiner was hostess yesterday at the residence of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner.

About 40 guests called during the tea hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young and daughter, Miss Isabel Young, motored to Salem from Albany today to attend the benefit for the Red Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. James Abbott motored to Salem from Portland yesterday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton.

Salem folk are anticipating the Rose Festival in Portland next week, and many are planning to motor down Thursday for the dinner dance to be given by the Cherrians, at the Hotel Multnomah.

The affair will be given in the attractive gold room, and will be formal, the Cherrians of course appearing in their uniforms.

Miss Vivian Bretherton, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clifford Brown, for a day or so, returned to her home in Portland Sunday night.

Miss Dorothy Pearce has gone to Portland for a short visit, and is the guest of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Weller motored to Portland early in the week for a short stay.

The Aid society of the Woman's Relief Corps will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louisa Forstner, 205 North Commercial street.

The afternoon will be devoted to sewing and the hostesses will be Mrs. Forstner, Mrs. Ronald C. Glover, Mrs. Echo Stanton, Mrs. Susan Salmen, Mrs. Laura McAdams, Mrs. Maria Thompson and Mrs. Jennie Pope.

firmations from Italy, Belgium and other allies will mean a complete answer will have been returned to the recent demand of the Russian soldiers' and workmen's council that all of Russia's allies re-state their war aims and peace ideals.

The British press, without exception, today applauded Premier Ribot's speech of yesterday and the action of the French chamber of deputies in affirming France's intention to continue vigorous prosecution of the war until her lost provinces had been reclaimed and her war aims fully realized.

MURDERER CONFESSES

Oakland, Cal., June 6.—Frank Smith, arrested in St. Louis and charged with the murder of John Markovitch in Oakland 10 years ago, confessed the crime today, according to Police Inspector Hodgkins. Smith said, according to Hodgkins that he killed his employer after a heated quarrel on April 28, 1907.

SOLDIERS SELL THEIR SHOES

Portland, Ore., June 6.—In an effort to stop the practice of soldiers selling shoes issued by the government, Lieutenant Harry Dimbaugh, acting adjutant of the western department today issued a statement that all second hand store proprietors found having army shoes will be vigorously prosecuted. Eighty-four pairs of army shoes were taken from Portland second hand stores yesterday.

Corn Goes Up Ten Cents and Wheat Is Up Four

Chicago, June 6.—Corn shot up 6 1/2 to 10 cents today as the result of the board of trade's action Monday in fixing the maximum price in corn futures at $1.65. Shorts made a general rush to cover at the opening prices and there were small offerings.

July corn opened 7 3/4 over Monday's close, but later lost 1 1/2 to $1.54 1/2. September opened 7 5/8 higher at $1.42 and later gained 2 3/8. December opened 4 1/4 up, later gaining 2 5/8 to $1.62 5/8.

The wheat market was slow and erratic. No July was sold until some time after the opening, when it was quoted at $2.10 up 4 cents. Later it went to $2.18. September opened five cents up at $2 and subsequently lost five.

Oats were influenced by the upward trend in corn. July opened 1 up at 59 and later gained 5 1/2. September opened up 1 1/4 and later added 1 7/8 to 52 3/8. December opened up 1 at 53 and later went to 54 1/4.

CYCLONE IN MICHIGAN

Battle Creek, Mich., June 6.—A cyclone struck this city shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon, cutting a swath about two blocks wide through the center of the city, doing thousands of dollars worth of damage and injuring several persons.

So far as is known, no one was killed.

The twister did its worst work at the plant of the Michigan Carton company on Jefferson street. From there it tore its way to Main street, toppling over houses and barns and lifting the roof from the Stewart laundry.

OLD BUT PATRIOTIC

Marshfield, Ore., June 6.—William J. Smith, aged 93, today is considered Marshfield's most patriotic citizen. Declaring his regret that he was too old to fight, he gave a substantial contribution to the Red Cross. He raises chickens for a livelihood.

THIS, FOR HOME USE

Amsterdam, June 6.—"The German navy does not wish any thing more than a new encounter with the enemy and if the latter can be induced to show themselves again, we will do the rest," declared the Berlin Lokal Anzeiger today, in commenting on a speech delivered at London by Admiral Sims, U. S. N., Sunday.

MAY STOP WRESTLING

San Francisco, June 6.—The wrestling game has two black eyes here today. Promoters will have a tough time trying to stage another match as a result of the Wladik Zlysko-Strangler Lewis fiasco last night.

After wrestling for two hours over a division of the gate receipts, Zlysko and Lewis climbed onto the mat at about 11 p. m.—just about the time the Dutiful Husbands in the audience had promised their wives they would be home.
