

SOCIETY and CLUBS

BY ALINE THOMPSON

ENTERING into the month of June society has but few diversions so far offered. The advent of the wonderful summer weather has brought a scarcity of festivities and it will be practically impossible to plan and live up to a routine of social duties while it calls the motorists and all to frolic in the great out of doors.

So that, for the time being, social obligations will not be assumed, but the impromptu functions arranged on a few minutes notice, the informal dropping in for a cup of tea late in the afternoon, or the motor picnic will continue to hold full sway for some time to come.

Soon the annual pilgrimage to the summer resorts will begin, and the town folk will flock to the sea shore and mountain places to open their cottages or camps for the season.

The Rose Festival in Portland has taken up considerable attention this week and scores of Salem folk paid a visit to Portland, sharing in the medley of festivities that made the week notable.

Considerable time, in fact the entire time of many prominent folk next week will be devoted to the "big drive" to be made for the Red Cross.

Delightful in every way was the charming Kensington for which Mrs. John H. Albert, Mrs. John D. Sutherland and Mrs. Charles A. Park were hostesses Thursday afternoon at the attractive residence of the former on South Winter street.

The guests included a number of prominent matrons, and were for the most part members of the Thursday Kensington club, who gathered together for the last time this season.

The Albert residence situated in a house of shrubs and flowers, was aglow with quantities of vivid hued blossoms artistically arranged in huge baskets and jars. White Madam Carrier roses and iris decked the drawing room, and crimson roses, yellow iris and maiden hair ferns were used in the library.

Tea-tables were arranged on the broad glass enclosed verandas, and at the tea hour the guests gathered here or delightful refreshments.

The porch was attractive with hanging baskets of red peonies and the tables were adorned with tall vases of red rose buds. Mrs. John H. Scott assisted the hostesses.

The matrons making up this club are Mrs. William H. Eldridge, Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Mrs. Henry B. Thielson, Mrs. John H. Albert, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. John D. Sutherland, Mrs. Robert J. Hendricks, Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. Russell Cattin, Mrs. Frederick S. Stewart, Mrs. Charles A. Parks, Mrs. M. N. Chapman, Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mrs. W. H. Cusick, Mrs. William Dopp, Mrs. Henry J. Bean, Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. George H. Barnett, Mrs. Perry Raymond and Mrs. B. C. Miles.

Accompanying her son, "Mack" Hofer, Mrs. Ernest Hofer and daughter, Miss Florence Hofer, left last night for a motor trip to San Francisco, California.

They will be joined in San Francisco by Mrs. "Mack" Hofer, who with her two young sons, has been in Alameda for several weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Hollister McGuire (Tessa Dent).

Mrs. Hofer and Miss Hofer will remain in the south only for a short time, while the "Mack" Hofers plan to pass several weeks there, returning home late in the summer.

During their sojourn in California, the Hofers will motor to Santa Rosa, and other places of interest.

A simple but exceptionally pretty and dainty ceremony characterized the wedding of Miss Gertrude Cunningham, who became the bride of Lloyd Wendall Shisler of Harrisburg, Thursday night at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. George G. Brown.

Rev. James Elvin of the First Congregational church officiated and the ceremony was attended only by relatives and a few close friends of the couple.

The bride, who is an unusually pretty girl, wore a frock of sheer white or gaudie, made on the newest lines, simple and charming. Her tulle veil was fastened with sprays of orange blossoms and also carried a shower of Cecil Brunner roses.

The residence was attractive with lovely roses and palms. In the living room where the ceremony was performed there was a canopy of feathery ferns and white syringa, centered with a cluster of Easter lilies, tied with white tulle bows.

The bride's cousin, Master Harold Olinger, acted as ring bearer and Miss Dorothy Pearce, a schoolmate of the bride, played the wedding march. Preceding the ceremony Robert Walsh sang "O' Tull".

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served. The table which was unusually artistic was all done in a pink and white color scheme. A huge basket of pink gladioli, blue delphiniums, and maiden hair ferns was suspended over the table, and from the corners to the centerpieces were festoons of pink gladioli and sweet peas.

of the bride's girl friends including, Miss Barbara Steiner, Miss Carolyn Dick and the Misses Ada and Laura Ross.

Mr. and Mrs. Shisler have gone to Eugene to pass the summer and upon their return will make their home in St. Helens, Oregon, where Mr. Shisler has a position as teacher.

The out of town guests attending the wedding were Mrs. Shisler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Cunningham and children, and Mr. and Mrs. John Krause and son Paul, Krause, of Portland, and Mr. Shisler's parents and relatives, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shisler, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney were hosts, and Mrs. Ralph E. Shisler of Harrisburg.

It is with much regret that Salem friends of the Charles L. Dick family have learned of their intended departure for Portland.

The Mason E. Dick and Company with whom Mr. Dick has long been associated has transferred him to Portland, and it is for this reason that they are leaving Salem.

Although their plans are as yet indefinite, Mrs. Dick and the girls do not expect to be back in Portland until fall, much to the delight of their friends.

One of the most delightful and interesting functions of the week was the large reception for which President and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney were hosts, Monday night, in honor of the seniors of the Willamette University.

Receiving with President and Mrs. Doney were Mrs. M. C. Findley who introduced the guests, Dr. and Mrs. Henry J. Talbot, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves and Miss Julia Todd.

The residence, decked with baskets of fragrant roses and greens effectively arranged in the various rooms and halls, was thronged with prettily gowned women and their escorts.

Over 200 guests including the alumni, seniors, trustees, faculty, students and friends attended the affair.

The floral decorations throughout the entire house were most artistic, and were arranged by the members of the sophomore class.

In the dining room the artistically appointed table was festooned with a crystal bowl of La France roses, and pink shaded candles. Smilax was arranged about the chandelier, which was tied with bows of pink tulle.

Presiding over the table were Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. E. S. Wallace.

The young women assisting in the serving included the members of the junior class.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. Frank W. Chase, Mrs. Gustave Elsen, Mrs. William E. Kirk, Mrs. Allen Richards, Mrs. E. A. Hancock and Mrs. Staffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Bishop went to Portland Thursday, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Percy Young of Albany, who motored down for the Rose Festival and the Cherrin dinner dance at the Hotel Multnomah.

They returned late last night, stopping on their way home at the Tualatin Country club for a few games of golf and dinner.

Miss Helene Schober, the charming little Seattle girl, who has been the house guest of her sister, Mrs. David W. Eyre, for several months, returned home Thursday.

She was accompanied as far as Portland by the Eyres who motored down for the Rose Festival.

During her visit in Salem Miss Schober made many friends, all of whom regret her departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley and children motored to Portland early in the week, returning yesterday.

Mrs. M. E. Breyman and her daughter, Mrs. Charles L. McNary, left Thursday for a few days sojourn at their summer cottage in Seal Rocks. They will return Monday or Tuesday.

Miss Margaret Rodgers, who has been spending the past week in Portland as the guest of several of her school friends, will return Monday.

A party of Salem matrons including Mrs. Oliver C. Locke, Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. Harry H. Olinger and Mrs. A. Hussey, went to Independence yesterday to attend the round up. Mrs. William Walton took the party over in her car, and in the evening they were dinner guests of Mrs. Locke's mother, Mrs. Lyman Damon.

Miss Jennie Fry, whose wedding will be an event of Thursday was the motif of a delightful motor picnic given Wednesday by a group of friends.

The party motored to attractive picnic grounds on the other side of Corvallis, and passed the day there.

Those making up the party were, Mrs. Fry, Mrs. S. S. East, the Misses Mae and Dorothea Stenloff, Miss Grace Holt, Mrs. William Stenloff, Miss Edith Campbell, the Misses Gertrude and Carolyn East and Miss Priscilla Fry.

Complimenting Mrs. Frank Newberry, Jr. of Portland, who has been visiting in Salem en route to California, her mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank Newberry, Sr., and Mrs. Frederick S. Stewart entertained informally on Wednesday evening with a delightful a la fresco supper at the residence of the latter.

Supper was served at a long table arranged under the trees, and the guests included Mrs. Newberry and small daughter, Pauline, Mrs. E. E. Waters, Mrs. William C. Knighton, Mr. and Mrs. Purdy, Miss Purdy, Miss Mary Pollich, Miss Gertrude Savage, Clarence Newberry and Al Pollich.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Schmidt and small daughter, Helen Claire, will leave tomorrow for a trip to the Sound cities.

They will be away for about two weeks and will visit in Olympia and Seattle.

Miss Jessie Miller who has been spending her winters in Salem for the past few years left several days ago for her home in Lincoln, Nebraska.

En route east Miss Miller will visit friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Miller will not return to Salem again next winter and her departure, therefore, is the source of much regret to her many friends.

Miss Ellen Thielson has gone to Portland for a few days visit and is the guest of friends.

The Misses Fielda and Eleanor McClaine of Silverton, who have been sojourning in Southern California, will return home the latter part of the month.

The girls have been passing the greater part of the winter in the south and have been much missed by their Salem friends as they frequently visit here and share in many of the social gayeties.

Miss Mildred Wiggins who has been attending the Willamette University, left Wednesday for her home in Toppenish, Washington.

During her stay in Salem Miss Wiggins has been making her home at the residence of her grandfather, John H. Albert.

To welcome Carl Bibal who arrived in Salem a few weeks ago from Pittsburgh, Penn., a merry surprise party was given recently at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fabry.

Games formed the evening's entertainment, and at a late hour the gayeties were closed with a supper.

Those gathering to meet the newcomer were the Misses Ellen Grabenower, Florence McLeary, Della Hilliker, Esther Clark, Sadie Smith, Ruth McLeary, Laura Barnjost, Ida Hilliker, Alta McLeary, Martha Barnjost, Edith McLeary, Adaline Bordner, Elizabeth Scophi, Emma Ramsdell, Emma
