MAY GO TO STOCKHOLM

Stockholm, June 22.—Reports that the American mission to Pilsograd would journey to Stockholm for a conference with certain elements of the socialist groups now here for the German-called "peace conference" were circulated today. American Minister Morris declined to confirm them. He admitted, however, he had invited the mission to visit him if they returned to America via Sweden.

day a number of Italian parties were preparing to center their fire upon Sonnino and it had been expected he would have great difficulty in gathering sufficient support to weather the storm of criticism.

Belgium Musicians On the Hippodrome

Van Perre & Van Perre, a man and his sister, who present an offering consisting of singing, dancing and music, come to us from war-ridden Belgium having made a famous escape from Antwerp during its bombardment by the Germans and were successful in finding temporary safety in Holland until they could get transportation from the American consul to New York. While the big siege guns were firing on the outer forts of the Belgium city, the brother took a secret leave with his sister, but was unable to take with him their musical instruments. The American Belgium relief society supplied them with new ones and now they are touring this country with a wonderful musical act. Their xylophone and mirlapophone harmony is the product of years of training and effort. They do some native folk songs that are decidedly pleasing and dance in their wooden shoes, which is intensely interesting. The sweet voice of Miss Van Perre is exceptional.

As the instrumental numbers performed by both brother and sister are excellent, it is a good act which with the additional flavor of being Belgium refugees, who experienced being under fire adds interest to the offering. This act in addition to two others including "The Rambler Sisters" and "Leon and Adeline sisters" will be at the Bligh today on the Hippodrome show.

WAS NOT A SLACKER

A young man named Peterson, who resides in the vicinity of Silver Creek Falls and whom Chief of Police Yates thought to be a slacker, was picked up Friday evening. Mr. Yates asked the man if he had registered under the conscription law, and he said that he did. When asked for his card he told the officer that it was at his home. Mr. Yates volunteered to accompany Peterson to his room and the young man then informed the officer that he lied—that he was not old enough to register. He appeared to be a man of about 25 years and the officer thought since he admitted telling one falsehood that he might be telling another, so he was taken before Judge Paulson. Peterson informed the judge that he was not yet 21, and he made an affidavit to that effect before Mayor Adams. He was then released, and the officer will get busy to ascertain the facts in the case. It is thought that he is 21 it will mean a long term for him. People who are acquainted with Peterson, however, say he is not of age.—Silverton Tribune.

WILL HAVE BASKET MEETING

At the Rock Creek church next Sunday an all day meeting will be held. It is the purpose to have a young people's program in the morning, a basket dinner at noon and a number of live wire speakers in the afternoon. A general invitation is extended to take your lunch and enjoy the day with the Rock Creek people. Rev. T. B. Ford, district superintendent of the Salem district of the Methodist church, is considered one of the youngest spirited men in the state of Oregon. He is one of the speakers. Rev. Paranoogian, the Sunday school missionary, is another; Dr. J. Lynn of Canby, and Rev. Fred Snyder of Molalla are the other speakers.—Hubbard Enterprise.

FOURTH OF JULY PICNIC

Ladd Hill people will observe Independence day, Wednesday, July 4, 1917, at Ladd Hill Grove, with an old-time basket picnic. There will be speaking, music and athletic sports. Napoleon Davis, of Butteville, will deliver the address of the day, along the patriotic lines that is especially relevant this year.

Everyone is urged to bring well-filled lunch baskets, and enjoy the day. There will be a 100-yard free-for-all dash, fat man's race, ladies' race, sack race and various other athletic sports. The speaking will take place in the forenoon, the sports in the afternoon, with band music all day long. In the evening there will be a big dinner at the Ladd Hill club hall, across the Willamette from Butteville.—Aurora Observer.

CONTRACTS ALL LET

Washington, June 23.—The war department today awarded the three remaining contracts of cantonment camps. The Annapolis Junction cantonment went to Smith Hauer and M. P. McIsaac, New York City; Little Rock, Ark., to James Stewart & Co., Chicago; Yaphank, L. I., to Thompson Starratt company, New York.

ALL BIDS WERE REJECTED

Ben Hofstetter was the lowest bidder for the contract of building a new school house at Brooks, his bid being $8,500. His closest competitor was a man from Albany, who bid $158 over him. Despite this, however, none of the bids were accepted as all of the bids submitted ranged around $3,000 above the estimated cost of the building.—Silverton Appeal.

Permanence of Italian Cabinet Is Assured

By John H. Hazley.
(United Press staff correspondent.)
Rome, June 22.—All doubt of the permanence of the Boselli cabinet appeared to have been swept away today by the enthusiastic reception accorded in Italian newspapers and by the people to the war aims expressed in Premier Boselli's and Foreign Minister Sonnino's speeches to the chamber. Sonnino was hailed as Italy's "man
