He was discharged from the National Guard recently on account of dependents. Of course, being in the guard, he did not need to register, but upon his leaving that body, such a course was necessary.

Dr. L. G. Altman, homeopathist, 206 N. Liberty. Phone 47. Seven hundred yards of muslin were received at the supply department of the Red Cross this morning from local merchants. Examinations were held last night in this department, of Dr. Clay's and Dr. W. Carlton Smith's classes in first aid, by Dr. Morse.

All pupils desiring to study singing during the summer months should register immediately with Miss Minnetta Magers, at the Moore Bldg., Court St. Phone 1295.

Recruiting Officer Adams is searching for friends or relatives of Clifford G. Knight, in order that he may give them the card issued by the government which is to be hung in the window. The card says, "A man has gone to the navy from this house." One family, the Grid's, have earned the right to hang four cards in their home, having four boys in the navy.

A special summer term in vocal belting Monday June 25, will be given by Miss Minnetta Magers at her studio in the Moore Bldg., Court St. Phone 1295.

The receipts of the Red Cross for the period ending June 23, are $4,008.80, and the expenditures for the same time are $1,188.82, leaving a balance here of $2,820.98. Of this sum, $1,819 must be remitted to the national headquarters, leaving a working balance of $1,001.98. These figures are gleaned from a report made by David W. Eyre, chairman of the financial committee, to the Willamette chapter.

WANT RATE INCREASE AFTER GOODS ARE IN

Portland Firm Would Grant Railroad Request, If It Misses Them

T. W. Jenkins & Co. of Portland is one of many firms which have written to the public service commission urging the commission to grant the request of the railroads for a 10 per cent increase in freight rates on Oregon business. The company, however, frankly asks the commission to delay action until it has time to pass the added cost on to its customers and relieve the company from having to bear any of the extra expense. The company's letter said: "As grocers and shippers, we are not opposed to the advance in freight rates, and believe that the railroads should be granted the advance. We, however, believe that this advance should be delayed until either November 1 or December 1, as we cannot afford to advance our merchandise already been sold at a fixed price."

An advance in freight rates prior to November or December would have to be stood by ourselves, as the merchandise has already been sold at a fixed price. A. W. Stone, manager of the Apple Growers association of Hood River, urges the commission not to allow the advance in rates on the fruit industry as he says to allow the rates would be a serious injustice, and would threaten its total destruction.

Sunday School to Hold Convention at Chemawa

The Haysville district Sunday school convention will be held at Chemawa Indian school tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The following is the program: 10:30 Devotional services—Life's Keenest Hope, P. H. Reeves, Salem; music by quartet. 11:15—Teachers training—Mrs. Minnie Darst, superintendent Girls' Industrial school. "The Story of Life", Waconda Primary class. 12 Noon—Basket dinner. 1:30—Business session and reports of Sunday schools. Quartet, Highland Friends church. 2:15—Address, Ray L. Smith, Salem. The Sunday school, and "The Ends of the Earth", Rev. Carl H. Elliott. Arrangements have been made to have the 9:45 Oregon Electric limited stop at Chemawa for benefit of Salem people.

Reed Rowland tried his luck fishing yesterday near Silverton, with indifferent success. After 18 years' absence, Andrew Kelly, Jr., is visiting friends in Salem. Mr. Kelly is master mechanic in the Union Iron Works in San Francisco. He states that the growth of the town in the 18 years has been remarkable.

Are you a Canadian or British subject? If so, you will be referred to the army recruiting station if you go to the navy recruiting station to enlist. The navy is composed of American citizens only, and according to an order received by recruiting officer for the navy, A. Adams, all such applications must be turned over to the army.

At the Unitarian church tomorrow, 11 a. m., the last service before the vacation period, which includes July and August, will be held. The subject of the sermon by Pastor James M. Hendy will be, "Where Shall I Spend Eternity?" Mrs. Hallie Parrish Hinges will sing. Don't fail to hear her. At 8 p. m. the pupils of Mrs. Anna Rogers Fish will present their monthly entertainment.

After buying a driving horse and buggy, Lloyd Morley, aged 25, crossed the Puget county side of the river yesterday on the ferry, and disappeared. He had been a patient at the State hospital in time past, and it is believed that he has been afflicted with his former malady. He has relatives in Portland, whether he may be heading. Search is being made for him.

Two young men felt the call of their country yesterday and enlisted in the infantry. They are: William Krebs, of Salem, age 27, and John W. Flannigan, 23, of O. A. C. Mr. Flannigan made the trip from Corvallis to Salem in a canoe, after taking the examination, continued his trip to Portland by the same method. He said that he was overturned once on his trip down from Corvallis, and that the water was cold.

The military display window of the Meyers department store deserves special mention, according to Corporal Toy, of the army recruiting station, for its originality and effectiveness. Pictures of the border, and of the regulars' trucks are shown, along with models of the Salom Rifle club, with the card beneath which says: "Join the Rifle club and learn how to use the army rifle." In another window of the same store is a display of the Red Cross work, showing the various kinds of bandages and supplies needed by the hospitals. It is heard worth the time taken to look at the display.

WOOL PRICES CLIMB Portland, Ore., June 23.—The wool market continues to boom, with sales being made throughout the west at unheard of figures. Sales in Utah of three-eighths blood at 68 cents a pound, reported by local wool interests today, creates a new high record for such offerings and indicates a general advance from the present high figure for the better grade of fleeces. Recent announcement of the British government that a large amount of Australian wool would be shipped to the United States has not affected the American market.

TWO SUFFRAGETTES ARE UNDER ARREST

Carried Banner to White House and With It Were Taken In Charge

Washington, June 23.—Escaping a line of police outside of suffrage headquarters today, two militant pickets bore a banner to the white house gates and were promptly arrested by two policewomen. The police characterized the affair as a "surprise attack" but the picketers were on hand within a few minutes after the pickets arrived. The two women arrested were Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, of Philadelphia, who was previously attacked during the anti-suffrage demonstrations this week and Miss Gladys Greiner of Baltimore. The banner they bore said: "Mr. President, you say we in the United States are interested only in human liberty"—an extract from Wilson's address on "The New Freedom."

There was arguing between the banner-bearers and the policewomen. The women had no more than unrolled their flag when the two officers pounced on them and took them to headquarters. Few witnessed the arrest. The women chose the west gate as this was the least guarded of the white house portals. The women were charged with violation of sections five and six of the police regulations against unlawful assemblies obstructing traffic. They were permitted to depart, however, on their own recognizance, with the understanding that they will appear later for trial.

PACIFISTS TRYING TO DEFEAT THE LAW

Form Organization Which Has Conscientious Scruples About War

By Webb Miller. (United Press Staff correspondent.) Washington, June 23.—Two "pacifist" organizations have launched a huge campaign that, if carried out, would, officials said today, greatly undermine the selective draft law. These organizations, it is stated, are attempting to open up a channel for escape from military service. More than ten thousand have enrolled in the propaganda. Agents of the department of justice are today fixing their attention upon the activities of representatives of the organizations. So far efforts of the "pacifists" are confined to attempts to have inserted in the exemption regulations which will be published probably Monday, a clause that would specifically permit persons professing "conscientious objections" to war, to escape selective draft and enrollment of members with the implied promise that their membership constitutes them "objectors."

The most active organization is the American Union Against Militarism. Its headquarters are in New York. The other organization, headquarters in Northfield, Minn. In their activities the pacifists appealed to President Wilson and Secretary Baker to provide for "exemption of conscientious objectors" and members of pacifist unions. These would furnish their big membership with exemption. After an appeal to the war department, Secretary Baker pointed out that the draft law fails to provide for "conscientious objectors" and that the department cannot "go behind the law" in administering it.

With two of their avenues shut off the organizations are seeking to obtain a liberal interpretation of a clause in the law that permits the exemption of members of recognized religious sects or organizations.

FORMER SALEM MAN PASSES Portland, Ore., June 23.—Charles L. Keller, who came to Oregon 45 years ago from New Salem, Pa., and who for many years ran a furniture store in Salem, died here last night at the home of his son, Edward P. Keller. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. at Salem, Ore. The funeral will be held here Monday.

OPTOMETRY MEANS EYE SERVICE

SIR WILLIAM CROOKES GLASSES

Tired, strained, irritated eyesight finds welcome relief through lenses ground in the new Sir William Crookes glass. With this remarkable glass the light that enters the eye is neither perceptibly dimmed nor the colors of objects changed. Yet the tissue-destroying rays are not permitted to go through. Let me tell you more about them.

MISS A. McCULLOCH, Optometrist, 208-9 Hubbard Bldg., Phone 109.

YOU NEED

If an hour's reading makes your eyes ache. If printed matter occasionally goes "misty." If you are obliged to stop work periodically to rest your eyes for a few moments. If you cannot recognize people across the street. If vivid light gives you pain in the eyes. If you have any of these difficulties, let me see your eyes. Let me give you the benefit of my 34 years' experience in eye testing and correct fitting of glasses for eyestrain. Glasses will not be prescribed unless necessary. Therein lies my success. The benefit that you receive from my fitting is this: The glasses will be fitted correctly, scientifically and accurately. There is no experimenting on your eyes. I guarantee my work to be satisfactory in every respect.

Market Tone Strong and Prices Advance

New York, June 23.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said. News bearing on stocks today was all of a favorable character particularly the official announcement of the billion dollar over-subscription to the liberty loan. The money situation also seems to be well in hand and apprehension on this score is slowly subsiding. Quiet firmness was displayed by securities prices in an entirely professional market. Equipment and steel issues were in most favor, while the railroad department was all but overlooked. The late trading was featured by heavy buying of Baldwin Locomotive, which advanced in excess of four points. American Car and Foundry ruled about two points higher and other equipment and steel stocks extended their early gains. The market turned dull at its high levels and eased off somewhat, but the closing tone was firm.
