MAY RAISE MILLION

Portland, Ore., June 25.—Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon will exceed its Red Cross $2,500,000 allotment by at least $1,000,000.

Oregon will raise $1,000,000, although asked to raise only $800,000.

This is the belief of Harry W. Stone, campaign manager of the four northwest states, who wired the joyful news to national Red Cross headquarters today.

Portland alone up to soon had subscribed $313,355, and Oregon excluding Portland $164,835, making a total of $778,190.

Postal Men To Meet at Albany Saturday

Albany, Or., June 25.—Annual conventions of postoffice clerks, city letter carrier and rural letter carrier all meet here Saturday, June 30. Each organization will transact annual routine business, elect officers and choose delegates to represent Oregon at the national convention of the respective organizations.

The conventions will be separate, but all three will meet at a banquet Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian church as guests of the employees of the Albany post office. Frank S. Myers, postmaster of Portland, and Rev. James Elvin of Salem, will be the principal speakers. Governor Withycombe has been invited.

C. W. Joehnk, of Oregon City is president of the post office clerks. The other officers are: P. T. Harris, vice president; J. H. Butler secretary-treasurer; E. R. Lemison of The Dalles sergeant at arms; S. W. Dodge, Jr., of Seaside organizer, and W. H. Worrell of Albany, member of the executive board.

John L. Etchison of Oregon City is president of the City Letter Carriers' association and Fred P. Holm of Portland, secretary.

Officers of the Rural Letter Carriers' association are: J. A. Peak of Monroe president; Willis R. Willis of Yamhill secretary; and W. H. Boyd of Beaverfoot, W. H. Brashear of Salem, and E. R. Cornett of Albany members of the executive committee.

WANTS FRENCH SYSTEM

San Francisco, June 25.—Lieutenant Bert Hall, of the Lafayette escadrille American aviation section of the French army, left for Washington today to discuss the aviation situation with war department officials. He will urge the French system of training aviators. This consists in teaching students to drive their own planes on the ground, in "grass cutters" instead of sending them into the sky with instructors in dual control machines.

I have buyers for both city and you have the good to produce in what they are worth, they are capable of earning a reasonable per cent on the investment.

Call and see us if interested if you don't waste your time and mind. We are only selling where we give full value and a square deal. You must have the goods worth the money or they won't sell. We want a ten acre prime tract close, two to three, 50 or 100 acre farms, also buyers for the right priced home, close in Salem. We also have houses to rent, money to loan on gilt edge city and farm property.

Wanted girl or woman to do light house work in country with the option of picking berries during spare time, also man to work on farm $40.00 per month and board, must milk some cows. Man to work in mill, close in town, $2.50 a day Salem Employment Agency, Room 14, Breyman Bldg. Phone 848.

Shriners Caravan to Arrive Saturday

Beginning at 2:45 o'clock Saturday June 30, nobles of the Mystic Shrine will hold forth in Salem and initiate a class of about 30 across the hot and burning sands of the deserts that lead to the temple of hidden secrets. Immediately on arrival there will be a parade throughout the central portion of the city, when the visitors will proceed to Wilson park where a band concert will be given. After this, the band, the patrol, and the Shriners will be taken in automobiles to visit the state institutions. At the penitentiary and at the Oregon state hospital, concerts will be given for the benefit of the inmates. At six o'clock in the evening a banquet will be served, and at seven thirty o'clock at the opera house the fun of conducting the class of initiates over the burning sands will begin.
