

All Records Broken

For value giving at the J. C. PENNEY COMPANY'S GOLDEN RULE STORE, where you will find the Lowest Prices All the Time on All the Merchandise.

Our method is not the usual custom of special reductions on some few articles to attract the eye, and which only hold good for a limited time. Don't fail to give us a call and one look at our goods will convince you of our exceptional values. Then it will be a cast of "Once a Customer Always a Customer".

PERSONALS Mrs. Ira Lay left yesterday for Red Lodge, Mont. R. C. Kophart, of Marion, was in the city recently. Mrs. J. H. Hauser left yesterday for Bellingham, Wash. Robert Moir left this morning for Regina, Manitoba. J. E. Scott made a business trip to Aurora yesterday. G. E. Shafer motored to Portland on business this morning. A. E. Young took the Oregon Electric route to Tacoma yesterday. H. H. Munford, of Liberty, had business dealings in Salem Monday. Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Varos, of Silverton, were in the city yesterday on business. The members of the firm of Halvorsen & Burns were in Portland yesterday. Mrs. Mary J. Hubbell went to Calgary, Alberta, Canada, via the Oregon Electric, yesterday. Mrs. Koley Irving and children are on their way to Purple Springs, Alberta, where they will join Mr. Irving, who is employed there. E. A. Pruett, formerly of Salem, is now engaged in the building supply business in Silverton, as a partner with Mr. Laperd, of that city. Mrs. Fred Ward and son, Frederick, are here from Albany today visiting with relatives. She is a sister-in-law of Frank Ward, the druggist. Johnnie Dutton, formerly of the White House restaurant, has returned to Salem after a year's absence in Butte, Mont.; Wallace, Idaho, and Bend, Ore. C. D. Fuhs left for Johnston, Neb., last night, where he goes to complete the sale of a hotel which he owns there. Mr. Fuhs went by way of the Oregon Electric. A. Burkholder and family are here visiting Mr. Burkholder's aunt, Mrs. S. Burkholder, proprietor of the Salem Lodging house. He is from Dunsmuir, Cal., and is on his way to Portland, where he will make his home.

Fugitive Arrested After Fourteen Years

Seattle, Wash., June 27.—John Adam Schmidt, sentenced to serve six years in the penitentiary for fraudulent naturalization of foreigners in Walla Walla in 1905, was traced to San Diego, Calif., and arrested by Sheriff John Stringer. Stringer had suspected that Schmidt was in southern California. Schmidt's cousin, who resides in Walla Walla, made a trip to Mexico last year. He went to San Diego again in May, 1917, and Stringer was led to believe that Schmidt was there.

MANY SPECIALS FOR THIS WEEK We take inventory July 1, and we are going to reduce our stock to your advantage. We have many specials that we can not list here: Spices, all kinds, per can 6c Kellogg's Corn Flakes, per package 10c Post Toasties, per package 9c Shredded Wheat Biscuit, per package 12c Albers' Flap Jack Flour, per package 27c Albers' Oats, large, per package 27c Red Salmon, 30c can 23c Postum, 30c size 26c Postum, 50c size 45c Plain Postum, 25c size 22c Royal Baking Powder, per lb. 39c K. C. Baking Powder, 25c size 20c

"BY THIS SIGN WE BOTH WIN" 12 1/2% J. L. BUSICK & SON The Groceries Plan Stores Three Stores— 118 S. Commercial St. 299 N. Commercial St. 12th and Chemeketa St.

All Around Town

COMING EVENTS

Tonight June 27.—Red Cross banquet, Derby building, 6:30 p. m. June 18-27.—Red Cross campaign to raise $35,000. June 27-30.—Teachers' examinations in Oregon. June 25-30.—National Volunteer Army Recruiting week. June 30.—Shriners' convention in Salem. July 4.—All-state celebration at fair grounds. July 9.—City election. July 15-25.—Salem Chautauqua. July 18.—Willamette Valley tennis association meet in Salem.

Mild onions 10 lbs. for 25c—Ward K. Richardson. Phone 494.

Two great divisions of the church are contending with each other over the question of the Sabbath. "The Christian Sabbath" will be the subject for Mr. Hayward's lecture tonight at the Hayward-Johnson tent in Marion park. Free—A nice dish with each $1.00 purchase, Salem Market Place, grocery department. Only 15 per cent of the men applying for enlistment in the navy are accepted, according to A. S. Adams, local recruiting officer. This is due to the stringent examination given the men. A notable fact about the recruiting for the navy is that a larger per cent of men are accepted in the west than in the east.

Dr. D. X. Beecher, who has been practicing dentistry at his residence on the Pacific Highway, announces the opening of his office, at 362 U. S. Bank Bldg.

The river is at the 4.4 foot stage this morning, which is a drop of .3 foot during the night.

J. Ray Pemberton, physician and surgeon, room 212 Masonic Bldg. Phone 440. 7-9

After shipping a carload of copper ore to Tacoma for smelting, Otis Grinnell left the city for the Black Eagle Mine near Gates yesterday.

Miss Lucile Barton announces change of address to 695 N. 17th St. (1/2 block N. of Center). Classes are now being formed for summer work in singing and correct placing of the voice. Phone 1588. 7-13

At a meeting of the Foresters of America last night, a committee was appointed to plan for a picnic to be given soon. The next meeting will be installation of officers.

Lena Belle Tartar, contralto, graduate American Conservatory, Chicago. Studio Durbin Bldg. Phone 336. 6-29

Coroner A. M. Clough was at work this morning after a two weeks' siege of pneumonia which has kept him at home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger, graduate morticians and funeral directors, 770 Chemeketa St. Phone 724

Irvin Elliott, age 21, left this morning to join the navy. Others who are intending to go are Floyd C. Crowley, age 21, of Airlie; Jerry J. Sylvester, age 21, of Ada; and J. A. Kelly, of Salem.

Terwilliger Funeral Home (home of the lungmotor), residence parlors, home like. Lady embalmer, Phone 724.

Who changed the Sabbath from the seventh to the first day of the week? If you will hear Mr. Hayward tonight in the tent in Marion park you will know exactly what the Bible says about the Christian Sabbath.

S. H. Snyder, rentals, successor to L. Bechtel & Co. 341 State St. Phone 452.

Marriage licenses issued by the county clerk yesterday afternoon were as follows: William Walter Curtis, a clerk of this city, and Bessie Eva Wade, also a clerk of this city; and Prince W. Byrd, a Salem physician, and Veda Mae Cross, of Salem.

Notice to American Yeomen—All those desiring to go to Silverton Friday evening report at lodge tomorrow evening, cost will be reasonable. Order committee.

Dr. Chace will resume his practice in music June 30, College of Music, 8, Winter St. 6-30

J. C. Perry will leave this evening to attend the annual Rexall druggists' meeting to be held in the Imperial hotel, Portland. The convention will be in session two days, the 25th and 26th of June. This is known as a sectional meeting, and includes three states, Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Canning strawberries $1.20 a crate—Ward K. Richardson, 2365 Front.

Frederick S. Lamport, attorney at law, has moved to 511-12 U. S. Nat'l bank building.

Those who miss Mr. Hayward's popular lecture on "The Christian Sabbath" tonight will miss hearing the broadest and most satisfying setting forth of this question which they have ever heard. The Hayward-Johnson meetings in the big tent in Marion park.

BURN MENDOTA COAL BEST IN SALEM $8 A TON OUT DOWN YOUR FUEL BILL Big 1 One Fuel Co. C. W. NIEMEYER PHONES 1921; 946-M

Do you know the scriptural authority for the change of the Sabbath from the seventh to the first day of the week? There is an offer of $1,000, made by the Catholic church, for every one such text. Will they have to back down? Hear Mr. Hayward tonight in his popular lecture, "The Christian Sabbath."

Dr. Stone makes no charge for consultation, examination or prescription.

County School Superintendent Smith and J. W. L. Smith, school supervisor, were in Silverton yesterday looking over the records of the high school there. They recently completed looking over the records of the Woodburn high school. All the standard high schools of the county will be investigated within a short time.

The Sunny-side literary society will give an ice cream social Friday evening June 29, at the Sunny-side school house, the proceeds to go to the Red Cross work.

The steel cage for the interior of the city jail has arrived and Chief Cooper is getting it ready to set up. The cage is to be set in concrete and will be a strong box in which to put unruly prisoners. The old wooden box formerly used for that purpose was hot and close and decidedly unhealthy and recently the council ordered the new cage, which is sanitary and clean. The cost was about $175. It has double banks and is 12 feet long, 9 1/2 feet high and five feet wide.

Al Kader temple A. A. O. N. M. S.—ceremonial session at the Grand Opera house, Salem, on Saturday June 30, at 7:30 p. m. Business session at Masonic Temple at 4 p. m. Petitions will be received by the recorder with the board of the business session. Visiting Shriners cordially invited. Admission by 1917 membership card only. Wear your fez. By order of the Potentate, Hugh J. Boyd, recorder. 6-30

Stayton reported to Postmaster August Huestein this morning that it had raised $3,080 for the Red Cross fund. The money was secured from Stayton and vicinity. It might have been about $250 more, but Turner and Aunsville got in ahead and secured that amount out of their territory. However, Stayton feels quite proud of turning in this large sum for humanity and mercy. Efforts were made yesterday to raise headquarters here by telephone but without success and so the letter was sent.

Lecturer J. W. Erwin delighted a fair sized audience at the First Christian church last night with his travelogue, "From the Golden Gate to the Puget Sound," given under the direction of the Southern Pacific company. Call the Southern Oregon series were shown both in still and moving pictures in a very capable and beautiful manner, and this was accompanied by an entertaining lecture on the localities shown.

THE SALE OF GROCERIES AT DAMON'S CONTINUES Sugar sale prices 12 pounds for $1.00 Crisco, small, sale price 40c Crisco, medium 80c Crisco, large, sale price $1.60 Creamery Butter, sale price 42c Dairy Butter, sale price 35c Lemons, sale price, 2 dozen for 35c 35c steel cut Coffee 30c 30c steel cut Coffee 35c 25c steel cut Coffee 30c 7 boxes of matches for 25c with $1.00 orders of other groceries. If you need groceries, it will pay you to lay in a supply now during the sale. Sale prices prevail throughout the store.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST WAR Capital Journal War Atlas Profusely illustrated in several colors. Pictures of Armies, guns, battle scenes, etc. Statistics regarding comparative war strength of nations. Photographs of presidents, rulers, generals, admirals, soldiers and statesmen. Free to all subscribers Pay $3.00 for one year in advance by mail and you get the Atlas free; or if you are a city subscriber getting the paper by carrier, pay 6 months ($2.50) and the atlas will cost you nothing. Phone 68 855 N. Commercial Street. We Deliver

The board of directors of the Commercial club will meet tonight in the Commercial club rooms for their regular meeting.

W. M. Savage, father of Mrs. L. S. Guer, of this city, was operated upon this morning at the Salem hospital. Mr. Savage lives near Silverton.

Fred Lamport has recovered sufficiently from his recent operation for appendicitis to be removed to his home, which was done this morning.

Fire Marshal Stevens is expected to lecture on fire prevention before the United Artisans Thursday evening in the Artisan hall unless Mr. Stevens' dates conflict. A musical program has been provided.

Lewis Hunter, who has been playing with the Salem band, left today for Monte Ray, Cal., where he will take a course in line work, in which he is interested, being in the employ of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company. Mr. Hunter will be gone three or four months.

On and after July 1 the minimum age for enlistment in navy will be 18 years. Such is the wire received at the navy recruiting station this morning by J. E. Adams. The minimum age until the present has been 17.

Miss Anna Arms, who had charge of the registration of voters in the county clerk's office, is now doing the work of the bookkeeper, Mrs. Emma Hinz, who is taking a rest from her duties. Miss Arms has been in the clerk's office some time.

Attention, comrades of Sedgwick Post, No. 10, G. A. R.: You are requested to assemble at the undertaking parlors of E. T. Rigdon Thursday afternoon, 2 p. m., for the funeral of Comrade Tilman H. Harryman. Be sure and wear your badges, W. C. Faulkner, commander; Daniel Webster, adjutant.

As a reminder to the young men of the city, this is Volunteer Recruiting week for the army. Seventy thousand men must be enrolled, and if this is not done, the government will draft enough to fill up the deficiencies. This draft will not count toward the 625,000 first unit of the national army. The army recruiting station is open until 9 o'clock every evening.

An appreciative audience listened to the second band concert held in Willson park last night. They especially enjoyed the selection from Robin Hood. The Jazz band selection also took well. Heavier numbers will be put on soon, after the band is somewhat limbered up. The band has lost one member in the departure of Lewis Hunter, and has probably gained another in the recent arrival of Mr. Reese from Marshfield.

Warren Hunt, local follower of Isaac Walton, was casting his line in the slough just south of the city recently when he got hold of something that seldom happens to the best of fishermen in these fisheries. He drew out of the water two bass at one time. One of the bass weighed four pounds and the other three-fourths of a pound. They are on an exhibition in Hauser Brothers.

Members of the Olive Homestead, No. 973, B. A. Y., will motor to Silverton Friday evening to exemplify the ritualistic work of the order. It is expected that the party going will number 100 people.

A window on State street and are fine specimens at which to gaze. There is a picture in a sportsman's magazine posted near-by to show that the catch has been duplicated before, and that such a catch is not "fishy."

Charles Schulte, of Mt. Angel, aged 40 years, has such a passion for going to mass and saying his prayers and confessing to the priest that he was brought to Salem today to appear before Judge Bushy to be examined as to his sanity. Schulte wanted to go to church all the time and nothing seemed to dissuade him that he had enough religion to any one man's good. He will be held by Sheriff Needham until Judge Bushy returns from Portland. Schulte has been committed to the asylum before.

Three more boys have answered the call to the colors and Oliver Coryell, age 20, of Lyle, Wash., has joined the medical department of the army. Elmer C. Lehn, who also chose the medical department, is from Eddyville, and is but 20 years of age. Charles T. Curtis, the third boy, has had a most difficult time trying to enlist, having applied the first of March. At that time he was suffering with catarrh of both eyes, and at his own expense, had an operation performed which has at last rendered him physically able to go. He enlists in the Third Oregon. Mr. Curtis is a Salem boy, 24 years of age.

Defective brake lining probably caused the death of Francis Hammer, of Silverton, Monday evening. Mr. Hammer, in company with three others, was motoring east of Scotts Mills, when the brake refused to work, with the result that the car was tipped over a bank, and rolled for some six feet. The young man was clear in the leg with a piece of broken windshield, an important artery being severed. He was taken to the hospital in Silverton about 10 p. m., and died there Tuesday morning. He was only 20 years old. The other three men were but slightly injured.

DIED HARRYMAN—In the city Wednesday morning, June 27, 1917, Tilman H. Harryman, age 70 years. The funeral will be held from the W. T. Rigdon Co. parlors tomorrow afternoon at 2 p. m. Mr. Harryman was an old soldier, and the G. A. R. will attend the funeral. He will be in the Old Soldier's circle at the City View cemetery. Rev. E. T. Porter will preach the funeral service.

Pamphlets containing the three proposed charter amendments to be voted on at the special city election on July 9 are being mailed to the voters of the city by the city recorder. The pamphlet also contains arguments for and against the measures. The argument against the measures is signed by the

SALEM TAXI CO. PHONE 700 DAY AND NIGHT CARS OF ANY KIND ANY PLACE ANY TIME Autos to Rent with or without drivers. Office Bligh Hotel

SALEM TAXI CO. PHONE 700 DAY AND NIGHT CARS OF ANY KIND ANY PLACE ANY TIME Autos to Rent with or without drivers. Office Bligh Hotel

Wide Spread German Plots May Be Uncovered St. Louis, Mo., June 27.—Department of Justice Agent Edward Brennan today began an investigation, which it is intimated, may lead to the uncovering of widespread operations of German plotters through the middle west. Francis E. Millet, former employe of the Commercial Acid company of East St. Louis is believed to hold the key to the plot. Millet was arrested yesterday after he had reportedly called up the plant on the telephone asking "if the explosion had occurred."

Committee of those opposed to amendments. A large number of prominent business men have signed the arguments in favor of the measures, as the amendment is necessary to the further growth and stability of the city. About 4000 pamphlets had been mailed out last evening.

WANTED Household Furniture I pay the Highest Cash Price or will sell on commission. F. N. WOODRY, the Auctioneer Phone 511 or 424

For Rheumatism General Debility and Nervousness their is nothing better than massage or electric treatments. DR. EVA MURPHY 854 State St. Phone 756J

Used Furniture Wanted Highest cash prices paid for used furniture. E. L. STIFF & SON, Phone 641 or 608.

OREGON TAXI CO. 13th and Commercial SAFETY FIRST Office Hubbard Building Night phone, Marion Hotel, 2010 5 and 7 passenger enclosed and open cars. Special rates for commercial and country trips.

Oregon Hide & Metal Co. We want all the top wire and iron. Highest prices paid for same. Call 399. Address 197 S. Commercial.

Pleasure in every puff Hygrade Cigar

The Capital Junk Co. Pays the Highest Price for all kinds of junk. PHONE 296 271 CHEMEKETA ST.

DR. C. H. SCHENK Drugless Physician Superintendent Hydro-Electro Therapeutic Institute 282 to 206 Masonic Temple Phone 1182. Hours 9 to 5-7 to 9

SALEM TAXI CO. PHONE 700 DAY AND NIGHT CARS OF ANY KIND ANY PLACE ANY TIME Autos to Rent with or without drivers. Office Bligh Hotel