CONDITIONS PLEASE FIRE CHIEF HUTTON

Finds But Few Fire Traps and Meets Hearty Co-operation

Fire Chief Harry Hutton has made a general inspection of the business buildings of the city of Salem and finds that the city is in good shape as far as fire risks are concerned.

Next week he says he will make another inspection and if the warnings he gave this week are not heeded and the fire hazards not removed he will report the matter to the state fire marshal and have him take care of the case.

State House News

According to the statement of the Southern Pacific railroad company, filed yesterday with the public service commission, for the year 1916, the operating revenues of that corporation amounted to $121,481,980.74.

The charges have been preferred against Dr. Wilson by Harry McCain, of Salem, a fellow Methodist and co-worker with him along temperance lines.

These letters are understood to have been written in Kansas City a year ago, when Dr. Wilson and Mr. McCain were working there in a prohibition campaign.

While leaders in the church declined to comment last night on the investigation and the charges against Dr. Wilson, it is known that they have caused a profound sensation within the church.

The sum of $1,382,190.00 is given as the operating revenue of the Pacific Power & Light company of Portland, which filed its annual report with the public service commission yesterday.

The report of the Portland and Southwestern railroad showed that the operating revenues for 1916 were $55,445.54 and the operating expenses $44,662.48.

Announcement of the official vote cast at the special election held June 4 when the people passed on the measures referred to them by the 1917 legislature, was made yesterday by Secretary of State Olefit.

PLENTY OF BOOZE ON STEAMER

Portland, Or., July 4.—The steamer Rose City was raided by a squad of police and harbor patrolmen soon after her arrival here from San Francisco.

FOURTH OF JULY HAS A DEEPER MEANING

Celebration Less Noisy But Marked by Under Current of Deep Patriotism

A quiet Fourth of July for Salem. Yet, a significant Fourth, with the world war in the near background.

There was a deep undercurrent of feeling apparent, and the usual shattering of the air with bombs and giant crackers, was absent.

It was a safe and a sane celebration. At the State Fairgrounds.

"Somewhere in France Our Boys are in the land of fighting, and somewhere in France, the American flag is being carried to ultimate victory." With a voice which was full of emotion, Walter L. Tooze, orator of the day at the Fairgrounds, spoke these words and brought forth round after round of cheers.

"Liberty means more today than it has ever meant since the Declaration of Independence. We are face to face with a great crisis, such as the country has never known.

"In the Revolutionary war, the French consecrated American soil with their blood, and today, we have the privilege of repaying them for the service they so timely rendered.

The program of the day was commenced shortly after 10 o'clock this morning by two selections by the Salem Military Band, at 7:30 which August Hucklestein, as chairman of the day, made preliminary remarks relative to the program.

The National Anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner" was then played by the band, the entire assemblage rising to its feet and remaining there through the piece.

The band of the morning began, and then the assembled along the street leading to the grand stand where arranged the Direction of William McElchrist, Jr., Oscar Gingrich, and W. I. Staley, the foot races were pulled off.

The events and winners were: Boys 100 yards, ages under 13, 1st, M. Sproed; 2nd, Ralph Maez.

Boys 200 yards, ages 13 to 16, 1st, Ralph Tracy; 2nd, Herbert Socolofsky.

Boys 100 yards, ages 16 to 20, 1st, G. R. Jennings; 2nd, B. H. Frial.

Girls 100 yards, under 13, 1st, Bessie Humm; 2nd, Hilis Sproed.

All-fours race, free for all, 1st, Morris Wagner; 2nd, Joe Sproed.

STRUCK BY AUTO BOY'S SKULL IS CRUSHED

Struck by a speeding automobile whose owner is as yet unknown, Willie Ector, who lives near Quinaby, lies unconscious at the Salem Hospital with the top of his head crushed and his body badly bruised.

Ector was brought to the Salem Hospital suffering from the crushed skull which caused convulsions. This morning Dr. W. H. Byrd operated on him and took out a piece of the skull.

OPEN FORUM

OPPOSED TO AMENDMENTS

Salem, Ore., July 4th, 1917. To the voters of Salem: I have before me the Daily Capital Journal of last night, and the Oregon Statesman of this morning, and wish to call the attention of the voters to an error in the first and a very evident misconception of the issue presented in the first proposed amendment in both of these papers.

The opinion of the court was that an attempt was made to repeal without first repealing the previous platting, and that therefore the attempted replatting was not valid.

Reference is intended to the Twelfth street case, what the court really did say was this: "The plaintiffs (the property owners) base their calculations upon what we shall designate as the attempted plat, while the city makes its estimate from the lots and blocks as shown by the previous plats on the theory that the attempted plat is void, since no steps were taken to secure the formal vacation of any of the previous plats.

ed in time for publication this afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance at the morning activities and it is estimated that several thousand witnessed the sports.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

This Store Will Be Closed All Day On the Fourth of July

sary however to do more than to call attention to the controversy about the remonstrance, since the view we take concerning the publication of the notice for bids is determinative of the suit." This shows that the court did not in its opinion pass upon the merits of the replating or of the remonstrance.

It is believed that young Ector was returning to his home at Quinaby last night and that as he was riding his bicycle northward the automobile swooped down on him and crushed him before he had a chance to get out of the way.
