BABY MADALINE BROCK DROWNS BY ACCIDENT

Playing Near Pump Falls Head Down in Jar of Water -- Dead When Found

Putting the distance behind them at times at the rate of sixty five miles per hour, Elbert Thompson, Dave Wright and Clem Lewis, in a Hudson super-six made a vain attempt with a pulmotor to save the life of little 18 months old Madeline Brock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brock of Astoria, who fell headlong into a ten gallon jar of water yesterday afternoon and drowned. She was playing near the pump, under which sat the jar, and it is supposed she saw the reflection of her face in the water, and leaned over, lost her balance and fell in. She was found lying head down in the jar by her mother, about 2:45 p. m. and was taken to the office of Dr. Birds at Astoria, where work of resuscitation was attempted for nearly two hours.

The call for the pulmotor came to the P. R. L. & P. Co.'s office at 4:55 and immediately the three men were on their way. With Thompson at the wheel they made the twelve miles in 16 minutes. Their efforts were unavailing, as Mr. Wright said afterward, "For when a person is dead he is dead, and the pulmotor cannot bring him to life."

The doctor was of the opinion the child was dead when brought to his office. "We did everything we could, however."

Vick Brothers furnished the car for the trip.

SAMMIES WILL

Such masters of the cue as Willie Hoppe will give exhibitions in the camp billiard halls.

Libraries Installed. A monster Y. M. C. A. building and another of equal size for the Knights of Columbus are being erected at each camp.

Branch libraries will be established by the American Library commission. The government will install college professors to teach French, Italian and other languages. Intensive courses will be held in any trade desired.

Sixty-seven war departments experts today are scattered through the towns near each cantonment, teaching the citizens their share in entertaining drafted Sammys on leave.

Small towns are practically being rebuilt and doubled in size by the war department. At Junction City, Kansas, near the Fort Riley cantonment, movies, club houses, swimming pools, bowling alleys, billiard halls and reading rooms are going up.

A "make-a-soldier-home-to-dinner" campaign is being pressed among the cantonment town citizens. Lodges are being equipped by the government to provide special entertainment for soldiers who belong to their respective organizations.

Dance halls are being built. Dance and parties will be constantly on the program.

Friends of Goethals predict he will resign if he is not freed from Denman's restraint or unless President Wilson gives Goethals complete authority in directing his ship constructive program.

A demand has been raised here in official circles that Denman and Goethals settle their differences and get to work.

Goethals stated today he has not appealed to the president yet to back him. Denman reiterated that as owner of the majority stock in the Emergency Fleet Corporation, he intended to pass on all contracts.

It is likely Denman will object to the cost prices given in the shipyard contracts which Goethals was reported ready to award to the United States Steel Corporation and the Lackawanna Steel company.

Forty Forest Fires in Douglas County Two Beyond Control

Roseburg, Ore., July 18.—Forty fires today are raging in the Douglas national forests. Of this number two are beyond control and fire fighters are being rushed into the woods, said Superintendent C. Burdett of the local forestry office today.

Attempts to fight a forest fire near Sheridan have been given up. The blaze is fanned by a stiff ocean breeze and is beyond control. Only a change in the wind or rain can stop the fire.

Southern and western Oregon forests are the driest they have been for the last 10 years.

Seattle and Tacoma Walk-- 17,000 Loggers and Mill Workers Are Out

Seattle, Wash., July 18.—With all street cars still tied up by strike, Mayor Gill went into conference with the city council this morning to consider plans for forcing a resumption of service.

"We may ask for a receiver for the company," he said, "and ask the courts to revoke the traction franchise."

No attempt to operate cars has been made and Manager A. L. Kempster, of the company, announced today that it was doubtful whether cars would run tomorrow.

The company this morning offered to take back men who would desert the union before Friday morning. Union officials declared there was no chance of a general acceptance of the company's offer.

Private cars of all vintage and varieties, motor trucks and jitneys are carrying traffic, while thousands are walking. The general public is taking the strike good naturedly. Thus far there has not been the semblance of disorder resulting from the strike.

17,000 Are Idle

Seattle, Wash., July 18.—The strike among lumber workers of the state was spreading rapidly today, with 17,000 workmen reported out, and operation closed down in some of the largest mills of the state, and more mills according to the demands of the unions.

This statement was made by J. C. Brown, president of the International Shingle Weavers union here today. Brown says such mills as are operating are working on badly crippled shifts.

The Puget Sound Mill and Lumber company of Port Angeles, one of the largest concerns of the state closed yesterday when 1000 mill workers walked out. Shingle weavers at this mill had been out since Monday. The large Weyerhaeuser mill at Everett also closed Tuesday when 500 of its employes joined the ranks of the strikers, according to Brown's statement.

Tacoma is Walking

Tacoma, Wash., July 18.—For the first time since the strike of motormen and conductors employed by the Tacoma and Lewis and Clark company was called Sunday night, cars began moving today on some of the more important lines. Ten cars were sent out at 8 o'clock this morning, manned by strike breakers and a few old employes who refused to strike. General Manager Benn announced that additional cars would be sent out during the day. He stated that about 75 experienced carmen have been obtained to man the cars and declared that a resumption of the regular schedule would be had in a few days.

Few persons patronized the abridged service today, preferring either to walk or accept a "lift" from obliging automobile owners.

No disturbance of any kind has occurred thus far, although one man was arrested for trying to take a photograph of a non-union motorman.

May Tie up Shipyards

Seattle, Wash., July 18.—Seattle's big shipyards may be tied up by a strike of union metal trades workers August 1.

The men have filed demands for increases in pay averaging from $1 to $1.50 a day.

While the men have completed their plans, and declare they will walk out of the shipyards unless the increases are paid, the state council of defense and Federal Commissioner of Conciliation Henry M. White are attempting to prevent paralyzation of the industry.

A sub-committee of the state council of defense met with Dan McKillop and A. E. Miller, of the metal trades council and urged that the strike be averted.

At a meeting of the council last night, it was decided to hold a special meeting next Tuesday night to confer on the strike, after reports and recommendations are filed by the officers.

Picketing Prohibited

Olympia, Wash., July 18.—Picketing by strike labor unions is prohibited in the state of Washington. This is the decree of the state supreme court today in the case of the Germania Bakery company and the confectionery workers union number 9 of Seattle. The court decision holds that the picketing is contrary to the spirit of American institutions, and establishes a precedent whereby, in the future, labor unions will be restrained from interfering with or molesting the business of employers by picketing.

their gains broke down under heavy losses.

Fighting in Galicia.

Petrograd, July 18.—Violent fighting on the Galician front was reported in today's war office statement with the enemy forcing a retirement of the Russian line south of Novica.

"South of Novica the enemy occupied a height," the statement said. "We slowly retired our line toward Beresonica. The enemy renewed his attack toward Novica, but our counter attacks threw him back. The enemy captured a height which we re-occupied."

Much Local Fighting.

London, July 18.—Brisk local fighting and numerous raids were reported from the British front today by Field Marshal Haig.

"East of Monchy Le Preux, local fighting at night resulted in a further gain of ground and a few more German prisoners," he said.

"Northwest of Oostoverne in the neighborhood of Boesinghe prisoners were captured. Many of the enemy were killed in the course of successful raids. Near Wistijle hostile raiders were driven off."

Russians Repulse Attacks.

Washington, July 18.—Heavy attacks by German troops on the Russian lines near Riga, on the Baltic sea have been repulsed with great losses to the Germans, it was announced at the Russian embassy here today.

On Monday the Germans began tremendous artillery preparation and then launched a series of assaults. Three times they swept forward each time to meet deadly fire from the Russian rifles.

The German attacks on the north end of the line were designed to relieve the Russian pressure against the Austro-Germans on the southern sector, it was believed.

In the south the fighting continues heavy, the Russians under Korniloff being forced to give some ground.

British and Belgian armed motor cars are now being used in large numbers against the enemy in Galicia. Much of the speed of Korniloff's advance is attributed to the successful operations of these machines.

ed today. The others will stay in prison.

Others Are "Enraged."

Washington, July 18.—Enraged at the jailing of 16 of their "crusaders" the women's party militants today decided upon a great retaliation drive. Thirty-six women will be sent against the White House on Saturday.

Mrs. A. S. Baker, publicity director rushed to New York to arrange a mass meeting of protest against imprisonment of the 16 pickets at the Occoquan reformatory and will appeal to Colonel Roosevelt to attack the administration on the suffrage issue.

Dudley Field Malone conferred with his meeting with President Wilson last night when Malone was said to have offered his resignation as collector of the port of New York. Neither the White House nor Malone would discuss the reports that he resigned to devote himself to the suffragists' defense.

Husbands of some of the imprisoned women denounced their treatment at the reformatory as "hideous indignities on refined women who held principle above comfort."

No Time for Whims.

Malone with J. A. H. Hopkins, a New Jersey democratic leader, and Gilson Gardner, whose wives are prisoners, appeared at the reformatory today.

Mrs. William Golt, New York, will lead the picketers in Saturday's demonstration. The women are ready to accept 60 day sentences and join their sisters in the workhouse.

Mrs. Eunice Dana Brannan, one of the imprisoned women is ill and may pay her $25 fine to get out of Occoquan. Warden Whitaker, of Occoquan, stated the 16 suffragettes were "model prisoners and martyrs to their cause."

"They will be assigned tasks for which they are best fitted," he said. "I have not time to enter to their whims."
