Seattle Shipyard Strike Will Not Happen

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 2.—All danger of a shipyard strike here passed yesterday with the signing of the August first wage agreement with the Metal Trades council, by one of the largest yards in the city.

One yard already had signed and after one day's conferences another agreed to the demands of the men. There are still three yards to sign the agreement. They are expected to do so within a few days.

A "MOVIE" SCENE

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 2.—Attacked by a maid, who lunged at them with a hatpin, following her notice of dismissal, Mary and Lottie Pickford, famous sisters of the "movie" world, and their mother, were saved from probable injury when their screams brought a chauffeur to the rescue. The girl, Katherine Ripkins, was overpowered and carried bodily out of the Pickford bungalow.

WILL TAKE CHARGE OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Railroad Men Believe Government Will Do This If Strike Comes

San Francisco, Aug. 2.—That the United States government will take charge of the Southern Pacific railway system if the four railroad brotherhoods carry out their threat to strike Saturday night, was the opinion expressed today by railroad men.

The road has been devoting a large part of its resources to transportation of men and freight for the government and the officials do not believe the administration will sanction a tieup at this time.

A. Phillips, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, spokesman for the brotherhood committee, declined to say today what action would be taken in regard to the offer of arbitration of W. B. Scott, general manager of the Southern Pacific. The committee intended to disperse last night, but remained today to consider Scott's offer further.

Scott proposed immediate arbitration by a committee of five or mediation by the federal board of conciliation. The grievances of the brotherhoods rest upon decisions by Scott in ninety three cases decided under previous agreement with the railroad.

Southern Pacific officials do not believe there will be a strike.

The strike affecting 8500 men, if called, would tie up the lines of the Southern Pacific from Portland to El Paso and from San Francisco to Ogden.

According to the ultimatum served by the brotherhood leaders the strike will begin Saturday night unless a satisfactory adjustment is made in the meantime. Ninety seven percent of the men affected voted to empower the brotherhood committee to call a strike.

STIFLING HEAT IS

No Sign of Relief
 Washington, Aug. 2.—No permanent relief from the heat wave which has cost hundreds of lives in the eastern states was forecast by the government weather bureau today.

"The temperature in eastern districts will fall slightly tonight and Friday, but the fall will be only temporary and return to high temperature within the next few days, is probable," it was stated.

The department of agriculture issued another appeal to housewives to "sacrifice comfort for economy and continue canning and preserving."

Boston, Mass., Aug. 2.—Seven dead and more than sixty prostrated in Greater Boston, in the past 24 hours' record of the intense heat and humidity here. Today was another of killing heat.

Philadelphia, Aug. 2.—The mercury was at 85 at 9 a. m. The death totals the second day is 77.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 2.—With a temperature at 8 o'clock of 90 degrees, deaths from heat since Monday total seventeen.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Three more deaths and a dozen prostrations ushered in the capital's fourth day of excessive heat. Temperatures today ranged slightly lower.

"Because my husband is also in the army," said Mrs. Anna Konovalova.

"We Took Our Bayonets"

"My husband was killed in fighting early in the war and I joined to avenge his death," responded Mrs. Irene Perchurina, a sales girl.

Natally Swanniger, former chauffeuse, declared:

"Because driving a car did not make a sufficient dent in the enemy, I preferred a rifle."

"I'm a 'papa's girl,'" laughed pretty Mary Biskokurova, round faced and blue eyed. Until they used to say I went to school instead of working. Well—here I am, and I've been working."

"We are going back to the front," one of the girls declared.

The whole roomful of wounded legionnaires chorused instant approval.

"The German girls we captured carried a sign, 'Send us your women; we will pay you well,'" declared one of the girl soldiers.

"They sent us—but we carried bayonets," she added.

hot sun today. Movement of masses of men in the bottomless mud was impossible. Transfer of artillery to places nearer the advanced lines for future barrage fire, could not be accomplished over the ooze. Until some of the mud from early 30 hours' solid rain dries up, the drive is apparently halted.

In the meantime, however, the allies have been withstanding five counter attacks delivered by the Germans despite the morass of No Man's Land. The fighting has been literally from hummock to hummock. The most violent of these counter blows was struck by the Germans around the villages of St. Julien and Westhoek, on some of the higher ground of the battle section. In both places the British were recaptured by the Germans. Early this morning the enemy also struck fiercely just to the north of St. Julien along the ridge. Fighting continued there for hours, with neither side able to gain complete mastery.

The rain abated somewhat during the night and the artillery preparation for further advance opened.

Russia Re-Forms Forces.

London, Aug. 2.—Russia appeared today to have re-formed some of her shattered armies in Galicia. In at least three places the Austro-German advance has seemingly been stopped abruptly. At other points the Russian armies actually assumed the offensive.

From a disorganized mob, torn with sedition and treason, through the work of German spies, Premier Kerensky has apparently drawn out the loyal elements and imbued them with a new determination.

The German drive today apparently centered on the frontier river of Zboroz, over a front of nearly forty miles. Crossing of the waterway has been effected at half dozen places. Around Trembowla a "partial offensive" by the Russians gained them ground.

Bad Weather Halts Drive.

Paris, Aug. 2.—Continued bad weather in Belgium, with scant fighting was reported in today's official statement.

On other fronts, however, raiding and intense artillery duels are reported.

"From Bray-en-laonnois to Craonne (along the Chemin Des Dames) artillery fire was very active," the war office said. "At Allemont we carried out a successful raid, taking prisoners."

"Southwest of Rheims the enemy was twice successful in attempted raids."

"On the left bank of the Meuse artillery fire was violent. In Avocourt

Alles Control the Air.

Paris, Aug. 2.—Complete allied mastery of the air has been achieved on that section of the front where the Lafayette escadrille of American air fighters is located. Dispatches from the squadron's headquarters today declared on Monday the star fliers of the Lafayette corps, including Captain Thonault, Lieutenant Thaw, Lieutenant Lufberry and Sergeants Rockwell, Parsons and Willis, had flown a distance of twenty miles behind the German lines without ever sighting an enemy plane. Most of their reconnaissance was over German aviation fields but the enemy declined to fight.

With Mailed Hand

Petrograd, Aug. 2.—General Brusiloff inaugurated iron handed discipline today in assuming his place as commander in chief of Russia's armies.

He issued formal orders prohibiting meetings of soldiers in the war zone and warning that disobedience would mean instant execution. He forbade any German troops had resisted the advance, Field Marshal Haig reported today.

In the neighborhood of Ypres-Roulers railway, where the enemy yesterday succeeded at great cost in gaining a foothold in advanced positions, our counter attack drove him back, re-establishing our former line," the British commander-in-chief reported.

Kaiser Summons War Council.

Amsterdam, Aug. 2.—Presumably because of the great allied drive in Flanders, Kaiser Wilhelm today summoned a special meeting of Germany's war council in Brussels. In addition to the German emperor, Field Marshal Hindenburg, Quartermaster General Ludendorff, the crown prince and numerous other military leaders will attend.

Dispatches here emphasized the importance of the conference in indicating that every German military leader of any importance would be present.

Kaiser Wilhelm has just returned from the Gallician front, where he witnessed the advance of the Teutonic armies in that section.

German dispatches recently have hinted at considerable dissatisfaction with lack of progress of the crown prince's drive against the French along the Chemin Des Dames.

General Brusiloff was a "hold over" in the Russian army from the old monarchical days. He was first heard of as the Russian army commander in Galicia in 1914, when he occupied Halicz, September 23. In April, 1916, he succeeded General Ivanoff as commander of the southwestern armies and as such directed the Russian drive on this front a few months later.

When the revolution overturned autocracy in Russia, Brusiloff pledged allegiance to the new order, but resigned his command May 14, 1917. Three weeks later he was named commander in chief, succeeding General Alexieff.

General Korniloff is peasant born and rose to his rank through sheer military ability. He was attached throughout most of the war to the Russian armies in Galicia and has a reputation as a strategist.

General Tehermisoof, new commander of the Eighth army, was named to succeed Korniloff in immediate command of the southeast front.

I am thirsting for a good old fashioned fight," complained one Lafayette flyer in a message received here today.

"Southwest of Rheims the enemy was twice successful in attempted raids."

"On the left bank of the Meuse artillery fire was violent. In Avocourt
