Camp Fremont, Menlo Park, Cal. Aug.
18.—Soldiers encamped here smacked their lips today over the first army bread to be cooked in any of the new cantonments.

It was taken from a field oven late yesterday and served for breakfast to day. Hereafter Camp Fremont, it is announced, will cook its own bread and the way the trial lot vanished before the ouslanghts of the hungry soldiers spoke well for its auxiliary.

One must travel at a pretty rapid pace to keep up with events now-a-days. A letter was received this morning from Prof. Mitchell Tennis of the gypsy band that did so much celebrating at Independence two years ago this summer. They are now travelling in West iVrginia and were asking information as to the dates of the state fair. Cadillac automobiles are their present mode of travel and they evidently intend to travel some in order to attend the annual event in Salem. One must travel at a pretty rapid

A Word to Mothers

For the Sake of Home and the Children, Take Care of Your Eyes!

You mothers in performing the regular duties of the home, crowding your spare hours with sewing, reading, shopping or visiting are placing a task upon your eyes which make you irritable, tired, nervous and fagged out at the close of the day. If continued, the strain will result in much discomfort, even ruin your health, and cloud the happiness of your home.

PROTECT YOUR SIGHT---Have your eyes examined here, where modern methods, scientific appliances and experience insure a careful, personal regard for your needs.
