Court House News

In his answer and cross complaint to the complaint of Annis Jackson against Freeman B. Jackson for a divorce, he alleges that the plaintiff has treated him in a cruel and inhuman way, that she is quarrelsome, contentious, and made life a burden for him. He asks that her prayer be denied and her suit dismissed and that he be given a decree.

An action for the recovery of money on a promissory note in the sum of $320 was filed by Emma A. Gordon against John D. Caughell in the circuit court today. The note was given to Edsel E. Gordon who endorsed it to the plaintiff. Judgment is asked.

NO PRICE FIXED TODAY

Washington, Aug. 29.--The price committee, appointed by the president to set the price of the 1917 wheat crop, may not reach a decision today.

Of the 12 members of the committee, seven represent the producers. It is reported a majority favor wheat at $2.00 a bushel.

Exemption is not a matter of statute law. It is a question of administrative discretion.

AMERICA SHOULD BUILD UP HER ARMY

Archbishop Glenn Indorses This As Best Plan of Securing Peace

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 28.--While the president's answer to the papal peace proposals made a profound impression with high Catholic church officials here attending the convention of the American Federation of Catholic societies, all refused to connect their names with comment.

"Our position was made clear in the resolutions adopted yesterday," said Archbishop Glenn, St. Louis, said. "Regardless of what the outcome of the war will be, America should go on with her work of fashioning a strong army. Eventually, I expect the plans of President Taft and the Holy Father for total disarmament will become a reality, but until then, America should be prepared."

Thomas J. Flynn of Chicago was today elected president of the American Federation of Catholic societies; J. J. Hynes, Buffalo, first vice president; Anthony Mair, Chicago, secretary; C. H. Schulte, Detroit, treasurer.

San Francisco probably will be chosen for the next convention.

Student Officers Express Preferences

San Francisco, Aug. 29.--Student officers at the second Presidio training camp turned in blanks today showing their preference for branches of the service, this being the first step toward permanent organization. The temporary organization had just been completed under orders for immediate permanent organization were received.

Colonel Sladen, camp commandant, announced that his orders were to train 1,022 men for infantry, 96 for coast artillery, 350 for field artillery and forty for cavalry. The cavalrymen will be trained as infantry and then recommended for cavalry commissions.

RED CROSS BULLETINS

Willamette Chapter, American Red Cross
Business Office and Supply Department, Room 418 U. S. National Bank Building

While there is no big excitement about the doings of the Red Cross, the work of headquarters and all the auxiliaries is going on notwithstanding the summer weather. Within the past few days, materials have been brought in as follows:

From the Golden Hour auxiliary: 15 pair bed socks.

From Alpha auxiliary: 60 wipes made from 24 balls of cotton; 19 triangular bandages and 24 nightgales.

From the First M. E. church auxiliary: 2 sheets, 2 table covers, 15 napkins, 10 fracture pillows, 3 tray cloths, 32 napkins and 12 handkerchiefs.

From Alpha auxiliary of Woodland: 12 T bandages, 52 triangular bandages, 8 pair pajamas, 42 head bandages, 34 T bandages, 25 nightgales and 5 pair bed socks.

From the Belle Passe auxiliary of Woodburn: 109 triangular bandages, 22 T bandages.

From the I. I. Stevens auxiliary of Woodburn: 45 towels and 44 triangular bandages, 22 knitted sponges, 31 operating sheets and 29 four tailed bandages.

From the First M. E. church, Woodburn: 9 wash cloths, 6 suits, 5 hospital beds, 13 abdominal bandages, 5 head bands, 3 handkerchiefs and 8 tray cloths.

The knitting department in care of Mrs. Russell Catlin is in need of 20 or 25 ladies who can knit and will knit. Mrs. Catlin is on duty every Tuesday and Friday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock at the Meyers department store and from the way rash orders are coming in, it may be necessary to instruct and work every afternoon.

From the Red Cross headquarters at San Francisco came an order yesterday for 800 knitting suits, with the information that they were badly needed in France and to rush work.

The magnitude of the job now before the knitting department of the Red Cross may be known from the fact that each set is made up of eight separate pieces, as follows: sleeveless sweater, knitted helmet, wristlets, knitted socks, knitted bed socks, muffler, wash cloth and hot water bottle cover. In making the allotment for the country, Oregon was given 15,000 sets.

McGraw Fined $1,000.

New York, Aug. 29.--John McGraw, manager of the Giants, was fined $1,000 and formally reprimanded by the National league board of directors here today for repudiating interviews reflecting on President Taft and the league.

ARE YOU GOING TO PICK HOPS?

Are you compelled to work hard for your money? Then why not pay cash for your groceries. Thrift is the highway to prosperity and our store is an entrance to this pleasant road. True economy in groceries is in the buying of such high-grade goods as the following at these low prices--

Damon's Best Flour makes the lightest, sweetest bread imaginable; price $2.70 sack

35c cans ground Chocolate, our price 30c

25c can Baking Powder, our price 20c

Sweet Walla Walla Onions, our price 10 lbs for 25c

Post-Tosties, our price, 3 for 25c

No. 5 Fall Pure Lard, our price $1.30

Creamery Butter, our price 50c

Savon Soap, our price, 8 bars for 25c

Curve Out Macaroni, our price, 3 lbs. for 25c

Full Cream Cheese, our price, per lb. 25c

Highest Grade Hard Wheat Flour, our price $3.00

Commission men, millers and buyers of wheat are somewhat mixed up as to what will happen when the government fixes the price of wheat. Even after the price of the various grades is determined, there is the vexing question of sacks and freight to points such as Portland and Seattle. Also the problem of how much profit the dealers would be allowed in retailing. One miller thought the government would fix the minimum price to the farmer but that if he didn't like the price, he could sell for a higher one if he could get it. Anyhow, within a day or two, the food commission will indicate just how much and how little must be paid for wheat.

A fine program and an all-around good time is promised by the Red Cross auxiliary of Liberty at the benefit concert to be given at that place Friday evening, Mrs. A. J. Rahn is on the program for a solo and Postmaster Hucksstein will deliver a short patriotic address. Prominent singers from Salem are to appear as part of the entertainment. The ladies of the Liberty Red Cross auxiliary are enthusiastic workers and the benefit is to put money in the Liberty Red Cross auxiliary.

The young lady stenographers and typewriters and also the young men of Salem evidently appreciate the action of the Civil Service Commission in sending a man to Salem to hold an examination. According to the number of application blanks asked for and also the number of inquiries made to Miss Bader Palmer, probably 30 or more will take the examination tomorrow at the Capital Business College. It is not too late for those who have put off securing application blanks, as Miss Palmer will

The new Farrar building is now about complete and will be ready for occupants about the 15th of next month. The Midget meat market will occupy the west store room, the Central Cigar store the east room and negotiations are underway for the room adjoining the cigar store. This leaves but one room vacant, in the center of the block, with a 20 foot frontage and depth of 75 feet.

Dr. M. C. Findley writes friends in this city from Sea Hurst, Washington, that he and his family are having a fine time and this includes eating whale meat and a visit to American Lake. With him at Sea Hurst is the family of Dr. E. M. Randall, of Seattle. After a visit at Rainier National Park, he expects to start home, to arrive about September 7.

Postmaster Hucksstein left this morning for Silverton where he is on the program with Governor Whycombe for an address at the Industrial club picnic. Besides the Silverton address, Mr. Hucksstein is billed for two more patriotic talks this week--one at Aumsville Friday and at Donald Saturday. These picnics are all held under the auspices of the Marion county Industrial club.

It is just a little risky for the civilian to put on a uniform that might be taken for that of a soldier. To prevent this military dressing among civilians, a law has been passed and it reads: "No one allowed to wear any distinctive part of such uniforms," referring to the uniform of a soldier. This was brought to the attention of the post office authorities at Washington when the mail carriers in a small town thought it would be a fine thing to dress in a soldier's uniform. The penalty upon conviction is a fine of $300 or six months in jail or both.
